

Raunchy fun at the tenpony tower

By Thatfriendlyguy

Manhattan was always a lovely sight. Having been refurbished and standing in all of its glory, it was a beautiful sight from within a wasteland. A message saying that even within fallout, ponies would find some way to progress back to modern technology. Or at least get as close as they can, with heavy work being done to establish a somewhat thriving city. Being a hope for a brighter future, with the tenpony tower being one of the notable locations within the refurbished city. Even with the fallout, it almost seemed like that tower was untouched through the fallout. Regardless, it was a luxurious place, one that was watched over by a hidden society that operated in the shadows. Though for a certain grey pony, he was going to be of interest to them. Being the possibly key the society needed, to ensure a brighter future among Equestria...

Going by the name of Littlepip, there wasn't anything too special about the unicorn. Standing at around four feet in height, being rather small for a grown-mare. Having originally taken residence in stable two. Where she resided during the fallout. Though with the stables being open, pip explored the equestrian wastelands. Wearing nothing more than their vault outfit for their upper-half, diaper covering their behind, a satchel on their back, and a pipboy on her front-leg. Ready to help anyone she could, all in an attempt to possibly make the world a better place! At least that's what she had been doing on the side. For her main quest had been reuniting with a close friend of hers, Velvet Remedy. A black unicorn that he had been close friends with in the stable. Having spent multiple nights sleeping with one another, even getting a bit frisky in private, when nobody else was watching. The two were close, which made it all the more heartbreaking when she abruptly vanished outside of the wasteland one day. Never to return back to stable two, and have Littlepip be wondering where they could have gone. Until she had received a message from the unicorn herself! Seemingly alive and well, inviting her over towards the tenpony tower in Manhattan. With them desiring to 'catch up on old times' back in a private area of the hotel. Though that saying could mean absolutely anything from that black unicorn. Whether it be just talking about what has happened since their departure, or possibly getting a bit intimate with one another. Stars, she was certainly hoping the two decide to have a little fun when the two have that fateful reunion...

Having arrived at Manehattan, Littlepip couldn't deny how excited she was to possibly come face to face with her long-time friend. Being able to see the tenpony tower off in the distance, just looking at it was already sending shivers of anticipation coursing through her body. Hoping that this might be the fateful day, the two will be reunited once again! She also hoped there might be a bathroom she can possibly use inside the building. While she did have a diaper covering her bottom, she didn't want to possibly soil a fresh pair so quickly! With how costly a fresh supply could be, she didn't use them unless she had to. "Just a bit more, and I'll finally get to see her wonderful face again..." Pip was talking to herself. A smile painted across her face, along with a slight bit of arousal currently coursing through her body. She didn't want to admit it, but she was really looking forward to seeing that blackened unicorn, it was enough to already have her nethers quiver in anticipation! Having gone to checking his pipboy, looking back at the conversation she was having with Velvet. Seeing those last words, a part of her was tempted to flat out call the unicorn. Tell them that she finally arrived, and was about to be there at any moment! It wouldn't be too hard to do, all she'd have to hope for is for her to pick up! Switching it over to call, Littlepip was bringing her hoof closer towards the call button. Tempted to finally hear that familiar voice she's been looking forward to hearing...

With the hoof pressing on the call button, it wasn't long till the pipboy would begin ringing. Seconds would pass on by, along with the slight fear that she wouldn't have picked up. However, to much of Littlepip's relief, there was a response! With the screen soon flashing, before revealing what looked to be a black unicorn on the screen. Having snow-white hair, with a red and yellow strip going through it. With light-blue eyes coming to greet him, and a smile to go with, it was just a mere second before she'd hear the black unicorn finally speak. "Hello Littlepip! It's a pleasure to see you're calling me! Guessing you've eager to have some fun with me again~?" Already they spoke in a seductively tone, teasing Littlepip into some seductive fun with one another. Most likely going to be raunchy, it was making it hard for pip to possible stand still! Mind overflowing with all of the weird and kinky fun the two might possibly have, with that seductive tone leading them through whatever lewd activity Velvet had in mind for them. A part of her wanted to already jack off from all these lewd thoughts bouncing around, as she tried her best to focus on the video call. Flashing the unicorn a playful smile, cheeks unintentionally burning a crimson-red. "W-Well yes I have! And a-already you're starting to work me into a wonderful mood already~ Oh celeste, I can't wait till I get to the tenpony tower at this point!" Letting her excitement show, she couldn't help it at this point. Having been looking forward to spending some time with velvet, it was only natural for her excitement to seep out. Showing off how worked off she was becoming, before moving her hoof around. Showing she was somewhere around the outskirts of Manehattan. “I-I’ll be in tenpony tower in a little bit. Hope you’re r-ready to ‘catch up’ with e-each other~”

Pip’s playful tease, was answered in the form of a widened grin upon Velvet’s face. Given just a second to glare into those lustful eyes, knowing they were eagerly looking for the same thing she was. “Then you better hurry it along, my lewd accomplice. The faster you get here, the sooner me and you can spend some time together. Alone where we can be as raunchy as we want~” Promising of a wonderful time between the two of them, it was filling Pip to the brim with excitement! Letting a small squeal escape her lips, before she was eagerly nodding her head. Yes, she was going. She wanted that intimacy, she craved it! Hearing her partner desired the same, it was enough for her to already be wanting to head straight to the tower! Being stopped only by the call, though it did look like it was already starting to come to an end already. With a small giggling coming from Velvet’s side, before they’d be able to hear her speak once again. “Hehe, it’s so adorable to see just how flustered I can get you. Well you better hurry along now, don’t want to keep me waiting here all alone~” Velvet proceeded to flash the pipboy over. Revealing what looked to be a king-sized bed. Perfect for the two to be snuggling into one another, and possibly eat each other out~ At least that’s what Pip’s hope was. Given a few seconds to admire the lovely bed, before the pipboy was pointed back over towards Velvet’s face. Watching the unicorn blow a loving kiss towards the camera, before the screen would cut to black. Leaving Littlepip alone on the outskirts. Her need to relieve herself, having slightly died down at this point. Having been replaced with the raging arousal, desiring to be with her beloved partner~

Off Littlepip would travel! Heading through the outskirts of Manehattan. Traveling towards the dips of the city, with her full intention having been the tenpony tower. Luckily for the unicorn, this wasn’t the first time she’s traveled there, with having gone there on multiple instances. A few of them were because of Velvet of course, with each one ending in a rather lewd manner. With this visit most likely going to end up the same, Pip would travel easily throughout the metropolis. Mostly keeping to herself, and trying to keep her sexual thoughts to herself. The walk would be rather peaceful, albeit lewd with all the thoughts that raced through Pip’s mind. All of that would be put aside once she’d arrive at the entrance. Seeing it heavily fortified, with a guard pony standing near the entrance. Blocking any stray wanders from coming inside, along with checking anyone that possibly came into the building. Pip was going to be checked for any weapons of possible contraband, mainly to ensure the integrity of the building. Having already entered that building multiple times before, the security wasn't going to be as strict upon her. Being the only slight issue she would have to deal with, Pip was ready to endure whatever the security guard might have in store for her! Taking those first few steps closer towards the entrance, ready to deal with this minor inconvenience. Knowing that once she's past security, the real fun would begin for Pip~

Approaching the security guard, Pip would be greeted to a familiar grey pony she was used to seeing. Being the main guard that acted as security for the building, she witnessed the content look upon the pony's face, turn into annoyance when the two finally looked face to face with one another. "Oh, it's you Littlepip. Hopefully you're not here to piss all over the bar floor again. The staff weren't too pleased the last time they had to take care of your mess." The security guard muttered, clearly not being happy to see the unicorn. Nor was Pip too happy to remember the last time she was at the hotel. Having gotten drunk with Velvet at the bar, it was a fun little drinking game to see just who could hold handle their drinks the best. At least, that's what she slightly remembered from that night. Apparently, she wasn't able to handle her drinks too well. Having woken up on the floor in some spare room. Reeking of her own urine and musk, and being told she blacked out at the bar. Relieving herself all over the floor, before inevitably crashing into it. Not the brightest visit, with the memories already causing a cherry-red blush to appear upon Littlepip's cheeks. Shyly looking away, muttering underneath their breath. "T-That's not going to happen again! It was an a-accident, I d-didn't mean to do that!" Defending herself to the best of her ability, she was pointing over towards the diaper she had on her butt. Perfectly clean, ready to take on any loads the unicorn might have coming out. "A- And I'm wearing a diaper now. I d-don't plan on making a mess a-again... At least n-not in public..."

Even with her reassuring words, it didn't look like the guard believed too much of the unicorn's words. Giving a displeased look, not having been too trusting of the unicorn's word. "You said that last time, and then you took that diaper of yours off at the bar. Something a bet or something?" They were recalling the previous encounter, trying to piece together what had happened that night. Further embarrassing Pip, who was shyly looking off to the side. Too flustered to possibly stare the security guard, as he could feel them patting her down. Checking for any contraband, and thankfully not finding any on her. “Looks like you’re clean, for now.” The guard muttered, before backing away from Pip. Giving her some room to breathe, and more importantly, access to the hotel. “You’re now able to freely walk inside. Try to use that diaper of yours to relieve yourself this time. Don’t want to clean up any more of your messes...” Given a verbal approval, a sigh of relief was coursing through Littlepip’s body. Granted she still needed to relieve herself, but she could at least do it inside! Not wanting to waste any more time, she gave a nod of approval towards the guard. “O-Of course! I’ll try my best not to m-make a mess!” Before hurrying herself into the entrance. Rushing her way inside to avoid any future embarrassment, along with possibly finding a bathroom!

Wandering into the main lobby of the hotel, she was greeted to the familiar sights of the heavily-maintained building. With a classy interior ascetic, but looking to have been well implemented with modern-day technology. A beautiful sight to a land that had suffered nuclear fallout, Pip always felt relaxed and cozy being in this lovely place. Not being able to stare for too long however, with the desire of relief having been mainly on Pip’s mind. Ignoring the lingering souls that wandered the ground floor, she was heading off towards the back. Able to already see the restroom signs near the back. Currently unoccupied to much of her relief, with nobody else lingering near the restrooms. This was it; she could possibly relieve herself, and avoid any further embarrassment! “J-Just a bit more...” Pip was talking to herself, rushing directly towards the door, and quickly pushing down upon the bathroom door. Revealing what looked to be a mostly-clean interior. A few piss stains here and there, but the bathroom looked clean for the most part. With a toilet for her to use, Pip was about to walk inside! Until she heard a familiar voice, calling out from just behind. “Hey Littlepip! What do you think you’re going to the bathroom for? You’ve got a perfectly good diaper on your ass, why don’t you use it~?”

Trying to hold in her bladder, Pip dared to take a look behind her. Coming to find what looked to be that familiar black unicorn standing behind her. Flashing a playful grin upon their face, clearly excited to be reunited again. “Seems like a waste to leave that diaper completely clean, don’t you think? Especially with all the lewd things I want to do with you~” Velvet continued to speak. That grin never fading, as she eyed over towards the diaper. Eager to see that whitened fabric, turn a light-yellow from the unicorn’s urine. “W-Well uh hello V-Velvet! I wasn’t anticipating you to f-find me so quickly! I was just g-going to use the restroom, since I’m in dire n-need of relief.” Pip tried to explain, mainly avoiding the whole question. Already starting to slowly lose the battle, with her grip weakening upon her bladder. A few droplets managing to make their way out, creating a small yellow spot upon an otherwise perfectly-clean diaper! Being just big enough for Velvet to notice. Playfully giggling to herself, as she brought a hoof towards the small wet spot. “And your point being? Use your diaper silly, it’s already your walking toilet! Why are you bothering to resist that sweet relief~?” Speaking in that playful tone, Pip was about to explain why she was trying to resist dirtying her diaper. Only to be caught off guard by Velvet pushing down upon the white fabric! Having it crinkle and give way underneath their hooves, as they stroked around the nether regions. Purposefully hitting the sensitive regions, as she further teased on. “Just let it come flowing into that diaper of yours. There’s no shame in dirtying another pair, nobody is going to care if you wet yourself in public~”

Being teased and toyed with about her bladder, Littlepip was already ready to give in. Not able to resist that sweet call of relief, as she’d finally let loose! No longer holding back, the urine was quickly flooding its way out of the sensitive passageway. Slipping out of the urethra, and into the awaiting diaper down below. Making a loud crinkling sound, as the hot fluids were poured out. With Pip unable to resist letting out an audible ‘Aaaah~’ as her bladder was relieved. Cheeks burning a crimson-red, having been embarrassed by doing this out in public. Luckily, there weren’t too many ponies lingering around the lobby. Though it didn’t stop that guilty pleasure from coursing through her body. Sending a mixture of pleasure and embarrassment throughout the unicorn’s body, as the urine continued to flow into her diaper. “Y-You really like doing this in public, d-don’t you~?” Pip tried her best to possibly tease on back, though her mind was overwhelmed with relief at this point. Not looking to have noticed Velvet having been purposefully pushing down upon the diaper. Massaging her hooves upon the growing wet spots, being able to feel the hot urine having soaked the fabric. Having its texture turning soggy, with it growing heavier with the rest of the urine working its way out. “Well of course! I’ve always seen you wearing a used diaper, to be far more adorable than a clean one~” Velvet was quick to respond. Giggling mischievously to herself, as she leaned over Pip’s body. Making sure they were right above the smaller unicorn’s head, before she softly whispered. “It’s also a great way to set the mood. Because me and you are going to have some raunchy fun together~”

Hearing those wonderful words, it was enough to have Littlepip's face be an intense crimson-red. Though it was far from embarrassment, as it was being sheerly flustered in the moment! Unable to possibly have anything to remark, stuttering to even put anything out! "W-Well u-uh..." Being the best she could mutter out, while her bladder was completely emptied out. Not a drop of urine lingering inside of her, as she was able to slightly bask in the sweet relief. With it being heavily disturbed thanks to Velvet teasing of a pleasurable time. "So adorable~ I swear it's too easy to get you choking up with my teasing. Though perhaps you've been looking forward to our little fun too~" The blacked unicorn continued her playful teasing. Having gone to standing in front of Pip. Blocking the way out of the bathroom, and having the two be staring face to face with one another. "From how red your face is, I'll take that as a yes~" Not giving them any chance to possibly react, Littlepip shyly nodded their head. Slow and steady, with those cheeks being on full display. They knew it was impossible to deny how much they wanted to fuck Velvet. Her flustered state was a clear sign of it! Making it far too easy for Velvet to be easily toying with them in this playful torment. Fucked around with as a bit of foreplay, before the real fun could actually begin. "That's what I thought, hehe~" Velvet remarked, before pointing a hoof over towards the elevator. Showing them looking to be in working order, with one looking to have been currently at the lobby floor. "Now how about we take this somewhere private, and get to the real fun~?"

Velvet didn't need to say anything else, for Pip was already ready to go. Not saying anything else, as she stumbled her way towards the elevator. Cheeks still remaining a heavy-red, as she stumbled into the nearby buttons. Managing to hit the up button, and hearing a loud 'ding' coming from the elevator. Followed by the elevator doors opening just beside her. Revealing at the clean interior, ready to take the two upstairs. "Hehe, be careful now. Don't want to end up on your ass, after using that diaper of yours. That's for later~" Velvet remarked, as she stepped into the elevator. Pressing down upon her floor, before keeping her hoof over the entrance. Waiting for Pip to slip inside. "Better hurry inside. Elevator isn't going to stay open forever. Nor do I want to wait any longer than I have to~" Being encouraging through her taunting words, it did seem to have an effect on Pip. Evoking a small 'eep!' out of the smaller unicorn. Managing to back a few feet away from the wall, before slowly trotting into the awaiting elevator. Lightly crashing into the wall again, but being able to recover much faster than before. "O-Of course! I can't wait t-till I have some wonderful f-fun with you too~!" Managing to mutter her words, she'd watch the elevators doors slowly close behind them. Sealing the two within the tight interior, before feeling their bodies weigh a bit heavier than before. Now on their way to Velvet's room, and being one step closer to getting frisky with the unicorn~

Besides the frisky introductions, the elevator ride would be rather smooth for the two. Pip resting against the nearby walls, watching as Velvet walked from side to side. Purposefully showing off their body as they walked around. Revealing at the dirty diaper they had been wearing. Already urinated by the unicorn, as they wore it with pride! Taking no shame in it, with Pip giving a clear view of the soiled fabric. Thankfully the two wouldn't be stuck there, with the elevator soon letting out a noisy ding! Alerting the two of their destination, before parting the doors open. "Just follow me, and we'll be having our fun soon enough~" Velvet remarked, being the first to leave the elevator. Shaking her ass around, causing a small crinkle to be heard from each step she took. Heading towards one of the nearby doors, with Pip already starting to follow shortly behind. Keeping most of her attention upon Velvet's body, with her eyes constantly looking back over towards the soiled diaper. Knowing just behind the fabric, two very sensitive holes were being hidden away. It was almost quite tempting to pull them off of Velvet's body. Just enough for her to take a peak, and admire that wonderful ass. Between contemplating taking a peak, Pip wouldn't have noticed Velvet stopping in place. Leading to Pip inevitably crashing into their behind! Accidentally knocking the two over, with Pip having the 'lucky' pleasure of having her snout pushing into the dirty diaper. Being able to feel at the damp fabric upon her snout. Telling of the mess having been made a while ago.

"Oh my~ Guessing you weren't paying attention, or perhaps you got a little too caught up staring at my ass~" Even in a minor accident, it seemed Velvet had something to tease the grey unicorn! Purposefully pushing her ass back a bit, having the used diaper being pushed against Pip's face. Forcing them to breathe in the acidic aroma of leftover urine near their nostrils. "Don't worry though, you'll get to be up close and personal with my behind, once I have some fun with you first~" Velvet spoke in a playful tone, picking herself back up. Grasping a hold of the door in front of them, before slowly pushing it open. Revealing at what looked to be a spacious interior, with a kitchen having been close to the entrance. At least that's what Pip was able to see, having still been on the floor. Blinking a bit at the sudden stop, having to take a moment to gather herself again. Picking herself back up, and already admiring at the slight peak into the room. "I-It does look lovely. I can see why y-you like staying here!" Complimenting the unicorn on her home, it would evoke a slight giggle from the black unicorn. Already walking into the comfortable living quarters, looking to be heading towards the beds at the far end of the room. “Oh but that’s not even the best part of it! Just come walk over here, and I’ll show you the true wonders of staying here~” Promising of something far greater, Pip was hoping it was going to lead to something lewd between the two of them. Having already been toyed around with, and her arousal spike, she was hoping to finally get intimate with her dear friend. “I h-hope so~!” Pip spoke positively, unable to hide the lust inside of her tone as she walked closer towards the bed. Passing by one of the walls, and coming across quite the interesting view...

Having been a heavy contrast to the peaceful living interior, Littlepip was greeted to the sight of Velvet’s sex dungeon! Where there were a variety of toys and restraints on the wall. All neatly organized for easy access, what caught the unicorn’s attention was mainly the heavy amount of restraints that were clearly visible on the wall. Coming in a multiple of sizes, each offering its own abilities and weaknesses. Whether it be restraints being small enough to make any free movement almost impossible, to more forgiving restraints that would give some room for Pip to possibly squirm around. If she was fortunate enough to even move! “Y-You certainly have quite the impressive a-amount of toys! Guess you r-really enjoy dominating others~?” Pip knew Velvet was a heavy dom. From previous experiences, and having known the unicorn personally. There wasn’t a time where she’d ever see them ever being in a subby position. With this one being no exception, having Velvet already going over towards the nearby restraints. Pulling out what looked to be four shackles, blindfold, and a ball gag from their respective areas. Placing them onto the floor, nodding in approval from Pip’s question. “Of course I do~ It’s a treasure to dominate adorable subs like yourself. Especially when I get to have my personal fun with the strap-on~” Bringing a hoof into the air, she’d point it back over towards Pip’s face. Pointing directly to their cherry-red cheeks. The blush having slightly weakened with the two traveling into the bedroom, though it was far from vanishing any time soon. “Just look at yourself. I’m only saying a few teasing remarks, and I’m already getting you heavily flustered with just my voice! Now imagine how wonderful it feels, once I truly get to dominating your adorable ass~”

Littlepip was at a loss of words! Having not anticipated the playful taunt, she absolutely loved hearing Velvet taking control. Nether regions getting soaked at this point. She didn’t know how much more of the teasing she can endure, before she’d beg for the real deal. Luckily for her, it didn’t have to be for much longer. Watching Velvet bringing the restraints over to them. Setting them off to the side, before pointing towards the roof!

Revealing what looked to be hooks hanging above them, ready to be holding the unicorn in place. “Gagged, and restrained. You’re going to look quite slutty being restrained in the air~ I can’t wait to see you dangling for me to fuck, I just need to do one thing before I can get to your restraints...~” Leading Pip further into getting one of her holes fucked, she was about to ask what possible bit of preparation they needed to do! Only to feel her diaper being pulled upon shortly afterwards. Tugging slowly off her hips, with the black unicorn having been loosening the dirty diaper. “Can’t fuck you with that diaper on. Though you’re more than welcome to have it back on, once I fill that cunt of yours with spunk~” Keeping the mood alive, worked the diaper off. Crashing onto the ground below, and exposing at the two lovely holes she had been looking for. Seeing the glistening folds in front of her. Tempted to possibly eat them out as they were, Velvet kept her mind on course. Planning on doing something far better, she resorted to kissing at the nether regions. Evoking a loud ‘Eeep!’ out of Littlepip! Jumping forward in shock, with their body going into a tense state. Not having anticipated the sudden lick, though it was certainly an amusing sight for her. “Hehe, that’s adorable~ Looks like I better restrain your body before I can get to any of the good stuff~”

Held back from getting into the action, it was enough to elicit a needy whine out of Littlepip. Having already been hoping for her cunt to be penetrated, she was becoming antsy. Unable to stand still, with her body desperately begging to quell her lustful arousal! “P-Please hurry u-!” Pip tried to plead for it to be quick, only to be interrupted mid-conversation thanks to a sudden gag in her mouth! Catching her off guard, eyes darting around the room. Noticing Velvet right in front of her, along with that ball gag sticking partially in her mouth. “Oh trust me darling, I want to fuck that needy cunt of yours, just as badly as you want to be fucked~ You’ll get your pleasure soon enough, now be a good sub and hold still for your master. It makes it easier to restrain your slutty body~” Degrading her to being a needy slut, Pip couldn’t resist a slutty moan from slipping out. Muffled thanks to the ball gag in her mouth, growing more muffled as Velvet pushed it further inside. Ensuring she wouldn’t be able to speak, before grabbing a hold of the blindfold. “Trying to prove a point now darling, or are you just showing off~? Regardless, hold still while I continue restraining your body~” The unicorn’s taunting words, were painfully pleasurable to Pip! Revealing her far more submissive side, desperately desiring to be abused by her dominant partner. Having to wait for a little bit longer till she can feel that lustful ecstasy she was craving. Standing still while the blindfolds were put over her eyes. Taking away the world of light, replacing it with pitch-black nothingness. Unable to see anything at all, but certainly being able to feel her legs being restrained one by one... Clicking them to the restraints above, prepping Pip to be abused by that dominating partner~

“And there’s the last click, now to prep you in the air, so I can finally fuck your needy body~!” Velvet’s voice could be heard from somewhere in front of her. Their voice sounding of excitement and lust mixed together, having been eager to fuck. As was Pip! Trying her best to let out a submissive whine, the ball gag kept them restrained from doing so. Helplessly stretched out, with all four of her hoofs being lifted into the air. Most importantly however, were them being pulled behind her back. Exposing her to her partner, as she ascended what felt like a few feet into the air. Far enough to tell she was nowhere near the ground, perhaps being chest-level to Velvet. Assuming they were going to mount her, and fuck the lustful unicorn silly. Sweet Celestia, she was hoping that was going to be the case. Quivering at the thoughts of being bucked into, was enough to already begin the painfully pleasurable torment of her restraints. Becoming too antsy to hold still again, except she was unable to move around at this point. Being held in an awkward position, made struggling incredibly difficult. Let alone draining on her body. She was going to be stuck like this for a while, and she couldn’t have asked for a better position~

“Lovely! Now that you’re in the air, I can finally grab the strap-on, and fuck that cunt~” Velvet spoke, having been ecstatic to see Pip restrained as they were. Completely vulnerable, ripe for the taking~ It was hard to resist downright fucking her partner. Luckily, the strap-on was already close by. Having to simply turn around, and grab a hold of the strap-on. Having this lovely artificial equine shaft, being equipped with a syringe for whatever ‘fluids’ one might climax with. Fortunately for them, Velvet already had some leftover spunk in the syringe. Filled to the brim with the seed of a male Pegasus. Specifically calamity’s, having been the leftovers from when the two had their intimate moment. With the load having been blown inside of her ass, she would inevitably drain it slowly into the syringe. While it may have taken a while for her to completely fill the syringe, but it was going to be all so worth it~ Having been getting ready to grab a hold of it, Velvet was able to get the straps around her hind-legs. Raising them almost up to her ass, when she’d feel them abruptly tugging away from her body. As if having a mind of its own, trying to take the unicorn with! Thankfully, it was weak enough for Velvet to easily pull out of. Taking a few steps forward, and having the pulling cease shortly afterwards. Though out of the corner of her eye, she could have seen the grey aura surrounding the strap on. Telling of her partner's own doing.

“And what exactly are you doing there, Pip~? Are you just so eager to be fucked in that needy cunt of yours, that you're willing to do it yourself? Such a shame, I expected you to at enjoy knowing it's me that'll be pounding you full of spunk~” Retaliating in a taunting manner, Velvet did have something that could make sure they weren't able to interfere with their fun. Whether it be accidental, or intentional, it wasn't going to stand. Having it be on the table nearby, she'd grab a hold of a small ring. Too small to wear around a hoof, but certainly being big enough to go over a unicorn's horns. “We're going to make sure you're not going to be doing any of those little 'incidents' while I have my way with you. So be a good sub, and don't bother resisting. You're bound to have your needy sex to be filled with my seed~” Warning the trapped unicorn of what was happening, Velvet was delighted to see Pip holding still for the most part. Not daring to move any of their body, whether it be out of sheer will, or the inability to move them in the slightest. She was able to easily reach Pip's face. Lifting the ring just above their head, and setting the silver ring on top of the horn. Watching as it slipped down towards the base of the horn. Giving off a small green light on the side, showing it was currently on. “How delightful~ Now that we've got that on, I won't have to worry about you using any more of your magic. Now it's time to ravage that pussy of yours...~”

Bringing herself back over towards Pip's behind, it took only a mere moment for Velvet to already be mounting them. Cock already pushing a few inches into the awaiting folds. Evoking a heavily-muffled moan from Littlepip. Cunt already clenching down upon the invading member. Trying to milk it like any other member, though they weren't going to be getting any spunk just yet. Body being in a tense-state, going to make it difficult to possibly buck into. “You really were desperate to be fucked, huh? Cute~ Being already tight on entry, just the way I like it~” Shame to say it wasn't going to be staying as such, as Velvet abruptly bucked her hips! Cramming the member as far it could possibly go, as it pierced the vaginal walls. Pushing them out of the way, as the synthetic shaft pushed its way past against the lining! Evoking a mute cry out of Pip. Being unable to possibly scream out in pleasure thanks to the gag in their mouth, though they didn't need to speak for Velvet to know they were enjoying themselves. Causing the grin to be growing wider, as she readjusted herself. Hind-hoofs firmly pressed against the floor, while her fore-hoofs were pressed against Pip's hips. Holding the both of them in place, while she prepared for another buck. “Cry or scream as much as you want, nobody is going to hear you thanks to that gag in your mouth~” Desiring to have the rough-love making to be as passionate as possible, Velvet started to enter into a series of heavy thrusts! Pushing their member in and out of the drooling pussy. Sinking it inch by inch, eager to cram the entire cock into those needy folds, before giving them that musky spunk they were desperately begging for~

As for Littlepip, she was already having the time of her life! Having the member finally piercing her cunt, she clung onto the member. Not desiring it to be leaving any time soon, with each pleasurable thrust feeling heavenly for the unicorn. Making it almost impossible for her to think straight, with the synthetic shaft having been sending a pleasurable spike coursing through her body. Evoking a loud ‘eep!’ with every buck, though the mouth gag was keeping her mostly quiet. With the occasional stray noise managing to slip by, only to be heavily muffled and incredibly incoherent. Impossible to understand anything that managed to slip past Pip’s filled maw. What was able to slip by, told of pleased cries of ecstasy, and a unicorn drawing closer towards her blissful orgasm. Nether regions having been soaked at this point, trying her best to savor this rough-loving making session. Not wanting it to end so abruptly, with her orgasm already drawing near its peak. It didn’t help her current positioning was less than favorable for her. Unable to move around, with her hoofs having been useless at this point. The same could be said for her horn too! Having originally used it to possibly grab a pillow for herself, she didn’t mean to possibly interfere with Velvet’s plans. One of the many problems of being blindfolded and gagged. Unable to do anything, as Pip basked in the sweet ecstasy of the moment. Breathing heavily from her nose, while her body was quivering with each passing second. It was hard to tell how much longer she was going to hold, but she was going to try her best! Tensing her body to make it as tight for her partner, while her vaginal folds were basking in the heat of the moment. Fueling the raging lust that overtook her body, drawing her closer to that peak!

“Not much longer my tight flashlight. Only a bit more till we stuff that womb of yours with spunk~” Velvet could have been heard from behind Pip. Panting for breath, with their body having been growing exhausted from the constant bucking. Not that she could blame them, seeing she was already closing in towards that blissful peak! Feeling like she was just moments away from possibly letting it come rushing down in a waterfall of ecstasy, it was incredibly difficult to resist the climactic peak! Defenses being destroyed with each passing buck of the synthetic cock. Pushing her closer towards the edge with each passing buck. What made it worse, was Velvet's forceful thrusting. Changing their once quick and rapid bucks. Transforming into much slower, but far forceful thrusts! Grinding against the sensitive flesh, with the tip already creating a bulge upon her body. Feeling like there was something moving underneath her flesh, it send a shiver of energy through Pip's body. Desperately wanting to squirm around from this strangely pleasurable being, only to be restricted of any movement. Subjected to this uncomfortable position, without the comfort of something below her! Yet, through it all, she loved it. She loved being dominated by Velvet, and used by such a gorgeous unicorn. As much as she wanted to have this last for a bit longer, it was already a losing battle. Her resistance quickly being demolished, while her will was near its breaking point. It was only a matter of time before she'd succumb to her partner's lustful thrusts!

Buck after buck, it would inevitably be too much for Pip to hold onto! Feeling the pleasure becoming too much for her to handle, it was only inevitable for a blissful cry to be heard. Muffled heavily thanks to the gag in her mouth, though her climax would be quickly apparent. With the femmy juices rushing its way through the unicorn's vaginal passageway. Splattering itself against the synthetic cock, before splattering against the base of Velvet's crotch. Making a mess of the unicorn's fur, but it wasn't like either one of them cared about that. "Awe, that's adorable~ Looks like I'm going to have to finish up now~" Her voice could have been heard, though it was faint for Pip. Lost within that blissful ecstasy, she wouldn't have noticed the dick being thrust a few times against her used-folds. It wasn't until the sudden load of spunk would rush its way through, would she be able to feel it! Having the hot and slimy substance being splattered against her vaginal walls. Covering the sensitive flesh in the hot seed. Being accompanied by the blissful cry from Velvet, having 'climaxed' themselves! Leaving the two to now be basking in the wonderful afterglow. One getting to enjoy being the stuffer, while the other was enjoying the wonderful experience of being stuffed! Though while the two may have had their climactic peaks, their fun wasn't going to be over so soon. Pip was about to find out of the other lewd, and raunchy plans that the black unicorn had in mind for her~

Taking a few moments for the rest of the spunk to come out, the two would be leaning into one another. Both heavily panting, trying their best to recover from such an orgasmic bliss. Pip more than anyone, having reached a natural climax. Mind still overwhelm with a blissful ecstasy; she wouldn't have originally noticed her body starting to be pulled off of the restraints. Mind too lost in the pleasure, to feel her body being lowered. One by one, until she was safely resting upon the floorboards. Able to finally rest, with the ground underneath her. "Well, that was fun~ Though it's only just the beginning! I still got a few things that I want to do with you, before wrapping things up~" Velvet's voice could be heard from close by. Looking to have been returning back to that seductively playful tone, as she dragged Pip's body against the floor. Bringing them back over towards the nearby changing area close by, with a diaper pail right beside it. Filled to the brim with the previous diapers the unicorn had used in the past. "For the beginning of our fun, I couldn't have asked for things to have gone any smoothly than that! Though I'm going to need to hear that lovely voice of yours before we can continue~" Explaining what was about to happen, Pip would be a bit confused at first. Confused on why they had possibly needed to speak. She could be wanting to fuck their mouth, which was a possibility. Feeling the restraints starting to loosen from the gag, it was only a matter of seconds before it was pulled from Pip's lips! Finally letting the unicorn speak, with only one question coming to mind. "W-What's next...?"

A simple and short question, Velvet was honestly expecting to hear more from their partner. Though she couldn't deny how delighted they asked. "Oh? What's next~? Well I'll answer your question, with a question of my own Pip..." Purposefully leaving her response in the air, she turned towards the diaper pail. Daring to stick her hoof inside, and be rummaging around. Trying to specifically look for a diaper she had disposed of a while back. "Have you ever heard of a thing called 'Vore'? I know it's got some mixed feelings within the wasteland, and I was curious to see what you thought of it." Her tone having shifted slightly into a more serious manner, yet still containing bits of that teasing manner. Making it difficult to decipher what the unicorn had in mind, especially when it came to such a taboo subject. "V-Vore...? I t-thought raiders only ate others for food..." At least, that was the rumors. When food were scarce within the wasteland, some ponies would result to cannibalism. Taking prisoner of any unlucky soul that came across them, and supposedly eating them whole! Of course, Pip hadn't seen it herself, nor did she ever want to witness such a heinous sight! Though it had her wondering why Velvet would have brought up such a thing! Before she could possibly ask, she'd hear the black unicorn speak once again. "Yes, you would be correct in that regard. From my previous encounters with raiders, I can confirm that they do eat other ponies out there. Whole, and alive. It's quite surprising to see they're willing to leave their prey alive, when they swallow them in one piece...~"

All this talk about vore, was getting to Pip at this point. A part of her wanted to get up, and get away from her longtime friend. Or at the very least, put some distance between the two of them, so nothing got out of hand. Proving to be rather difficult seeing she lacked most of her energy at this point. The rough love-making session having taken most of her energy out. While she was regaining some of her energy, it was incredibly weak. Barely able to move her hoofs around, let alone possibly stand upright. To make matters worse, she was still blindfolded. Unable to see what was happening around her, with darkness having claimed her vision. Keeping her in the dark, unaware of the surrounding environment. With Velvet's voice being heard somewhere off to the side. Being accompanied by the occasional crinkle of what she could only assume was diapers being pushed around. Pip had no idea what they were doing, but it didn't look like it was going to possibly end well. "W-Why are you bringing this up now...? Have you had a r-recent encounter with a r-raider...?" Pip hoped this wasn't going to take a serious turn. Taking in breath after breath, while being able to feel the hot cum oozing itself out of her nether regions. Creating a small trail going down her ass, sending a cold shiver down the unicorn's back. The sex felt absolutely wonderful for Pip! Though she could tell that was going to most likely be the only fun she has for the night...

"Well you could certainly say that I've had an encounter with a raider. I think it was maybe a few days ago...? At least... one of the recent ones...~" In truth, Velvet had already known about vore a long time ago, in fact, she quite honestly enjoyed it! Being able to eat another living being whole, before snuffing their life for good. Shitting out their slimy remains into the piles of diaper, it was always such a wonderful sensation for the unicorn! "Always quite the interesting encounters. It's rather amusing to see someone, so eager to eat someone else, only to have the tables turned on them...~" Dropping hints of her predatory nature, it wasn't long till she'd finally feel at the one diaper she had been looking for. Feeling its warm texture against her touch, with the remains looking to have been still warm from when they originally left her ass. "Perfect~ Now just to pull it out...~" Mumbling underneath her breath, before starting to use her powers. Having her horn radiating a soft-grey aura, as she focused upon the diaper within her touch. Managing to grasp a firm hold of it with her telepathic-ability, before tugging it upwards from the diaper pail. Disturbing the nearby diapers from above, shifting from the sudden movement from below. Due to the pail's overstuffed-state, it wasn't long till a few came tumbling to the floor. Crashing to the ground with a soft crinkling, before lying mostly-flat on the ground. Giving off the scent of musky urine, and a bit of leftover horse apples. Luckily for her, the diapers weren't as much of a mess, as the one she was currently pulling out. Having mostly been wetted by the unicorn earlier, clean up would be easy for them. However, that wouldn't be the main prize, as was the diaper she was pulling out...

With a bit of tugging, and a few more wetted diapers, the messy diaper would be pulled out! Revealing a heavily-worn diaper. Filled to the brim with the remains of Velvet's last bowel movement. Containing a massive brown spot that almost entirely engulfed the used fabric. With there being a small yellow spot being visible off to the side. Though most importantly, she could see the remains of the raider still being visible within the fabric. More specifically, their skull. With the snout having been creating a noticeable bulge within the brown mess. Telling the fate of an unlucky raider that fell victim to Velvet's voracious appetite. "D-Did you seriously e-eat someone V-Velvet? A-Alive and w-whole?" Pip could be heard from up ahead. Unable to see the diaper for themselves, but she was horrified from what she were hearing. A part of her didn't want to believe they would be willing to do such a thing. Someone she had known for years, and had spent intimate time together, was not a voracious cannibal! How wrong she would inevitably be, when her blindfolds were abruptly yanked off her face. Taking a moment to adjust to the dim lighting close by, before being greeted to a horrific sight! Witnessing the diaper first-hand, with the skull having been pushing itself against the brown fabric. Creating a big enough indent for her to easily identify it was that of a pony. Feeling the warmth radiating off of the filthy remains, while the stench of burnt flesh was slightly present in the soiled diaper. Along with a faint but noticeable scent, of Velvet. "Oh indeed I have! And it's not just one, but multiple~ Each and every one of them, being absolutely delicious for me to taste~"

The sudden news, was earth-shattering to Pip. To hear the unicorn confirming the horrific truth, her body was already recoiling in disgust. Shifting her head to the side, only to feel it being grabbed by Velvet. Forcing her to be looking back over at the raunchy remains, with the skull being on full display. Looking like it could just rip through the fabric, and tumble down on top of her. Giving her a far too up-close encounter with the ex-raider. "What's the matter? Is the life of living out in the wasteland, too much for you to handle? You'll be surprised just how common it is to eat another living being. Especially ones that I've personally had the pleasure of fucking~" Velvet could be heard, with the unicorn having been moving the diaper around in front of Pip. Showing off each bit of the used fabric. From the dark-brown spots that told of the lingering crap inside, to the small tears that had started to show upon the sides. Revealing at the pieces of bone lingering from within. It was a terrorizing sight, with it only being further intensified by Velvet's words. "It's always enjoyable to engulf a pony, and reduce them into nothing more than a bowel movement. Doesn't matter how big they are either. They could be as small as you, or even bigger than me, and it wouldn't change a thing~ What comes into my gut, is bound to come out as a giant load of horse apples~"

Littlepip had heard enough. She didn't want to be here anymore, not after seeing how much Velvet basked in this dreadful experience! "I-I don't want to do this anymore! G-Get away from me!" She'd cry in terror, trying to pick herself back up. Managing to push down upon the floor below, her attempts were quickly foiled once Velvet slammed their hoof on her chest! Instantly knocking the breath out of Pip's body. Putting any chance of an easy escape, down the drains for the unlucky unicorn. "Awe, that's a shame! We haven't even gotten to the fun part yet~!" Velvet spoke in a far more aggressive tone. Moving the diaper around with her powers, pushing it just behind Pip's head. Ridding their view of the soiled fabric, and filling the unicorn with a variety of fears of what was about to happen. Were they going to force her to wear it? To feel that shitty skull rubbing against her ass, taunting with a fate she might possibly share? The thoughts were all too horrific for the unicorn, evoking a fearful whimper out of them. Unsure, and horrified of what was to come next. "Oh quit your whining, we're just getting to the good part! You're going to enjoy what I'm going to do; I can assure it~" Their terrified whimpers, having evoked a joking remark out of Velvet. Giggling slightly from the terror being fully visible. While she did intend on eating Pip in the end, it didn't mean she couldn't at least have a bit of fun 'stuffing' her prey! With the rear still being visible, she was able to lower the stuffed-diaper towards the sensitive area. Positioning directly towards that puckered-donut, knowing where this was going into. "Before I have you sliding into me, I think it's only fitting you get to feel a raider inside of your body! At least, the shitty remains of one~."

Desperately wanting to scream for help, Pip wasn't prepared for what the black unicorn had in mind. Managing to cry out for help, only to have it quickly turning into a blissful moan! Her ass being abruptly violated, stuffed with what she could only assume was the filthy diaper. Hearing the lewd crinkling of the fabric, clashing against the wet sounds of flesh grasping a hold of the used underwear into her ass. "O-OH CELESTIA!" The words barely managed to leave her lips, as her body tried its best to possibly push the foul remains out! Clenching and pushing down upon the foreign object, but it wasn't enough. Easily being overpowered by Velvet's magic, as it crammed itself deeper into the intestinal track. Leaving a noticeable bulge upon Pip's lower-regions, as it reached around the first bend. Filling the unfortunate unicorn with an overwhelming sensation of dreadful bliss! Body savoring the diaper-sized dildo being jammed into such a sensitive region. Yet absolutely horrified knowing the contents used to be a living creature! Tearing Pip between lust and fear. Wanting to get the smelly remains out of her ass, but also wanting more of this wonderful pleasure. It was moments like these did she hate her slutty submissive self. With her body preferring the pleasurable sensation, compared to the terror plaguing the traumatized unicorn. Further trapping her within this pleasurable torment. Watching as the seconds slowly pass her body, as the diaper was wedged deeper into her bowels. Being able to feel the dreadfully delightful sensation of the skull grinding itself against the lining. Sending a shiver of ecstasy through her body, seemingly freezing her in place! Wasting away at the precious seconds she had, before it'd be her turn to slip inside of Velvet's ass...

“Enjoy having that ex-raider up your ass, Pip~? Imagine just how pleasurable it is to swallow them whole! Getting to feel this wonderful sensation you're currently enduring, but far heavenly~ It's just a shame you won't be able to experience it. Seeing I doubt you would ever eat someone whole~” Having been pushing the diaper in far enough, Velvet was all too curious to see how far she could push the soiled fabric through Pip's body. Sadly though, her body would have other plans. With a low growl coming from the stomach, reminding the unicorn on her desire for food. She was hungry, especially with it being post-sex. Needing to regain her energy after their delightful fun, Pip was the perfect height for an easy snack! “That, and you'll be helping me enjoy a filly-sized dildo up my ass. A far pleasurable experience than going down my throat, though still suffering the same fate~” Purposefully telling of the unicorn's fate, she wouldn't have to wait long for Pip to be already panicking. Flailing their legs around aimlessly, desperately begging out. “N-NO PLEASE! D-DON'T EAT ME! I DON'T WANT TO DIE!” Practically giving their all-in begging, it was an adorable sight for Velvet. It wasn't every day she got to see Pip like this. Weak and powerless, with her having control over their fate. No matter how much they begged, it wasn't going to stop her from continuing on with her plans. Having her grin growing wider, as she walked in front of the terrified unicorn. Making sure they were going to get a good view of her ass. Seeing the slime-covered puckered, and the nether lips that were already growing wet in anticipation for Pip's grand entrance. “Sadly, I can't let that happen Pip. You see, once my stomach decide what it wants to eat, it's usually hard for me to resist listening~.”

Plopping that ass down in front of Pip, she was certainly greeted to quite the sight! Both holes being visible, with both looking to have been horrifyingly fascinating to her. Just looking at the nether lips, she could feel the heat coming from the womanhood. Reeking heavily of musk, telling of an aroused unicorn that needed something to get off. Specifically Pip, with her attention soon being shifted over towards that puckering hole up ahead. That slimy pucker, having been opening every few seconds. Giving a sneak peek of the horrid interiors she'll be exploring, before it was inevitably clenched. Closing the hole off, with the asshole giving a wink towards the unicorn. "P-Please... D-Don't eat me... I d-don't want to end up as a pile of shit...!" Trying one last time to possibly beg her way out of it. There was no way she could get out of this situation. Even with Velvet having lifted their hoof off of her back, her mind was unable to focus. Being threatened by her slimy grave, along with fighting the pleasure she's been constantly enduring. Still being able to feel the diaper moving around inside of her bowels, moving closer towards her stomach. The sensation still being dreadfully pleasurable. Yearning to moan from the foreign object in her intestines, yet being tied down by the dreadful fear of death. Both sides tugging at her mental strength, most likely going to break her if she couldn't escape! "Hehe, oh come on now darling~ I'm sure you'll look great being a bunch of horse apples resting in my diaper. I'll even have a special place to show off what happen to playful Littlepip~" Velvet was ready to taunt the horrified soul. Enjoying the playful remarks, using her powers once again. Lifting Pip's head up to the pucker, having their snout be firmly pressed against the slimy donut. "Any last words before you slip inside? Unicorn meat~?"

"Y-You're fucking insane!" Pip managed to scream out! Trying to pull her head away, but she was far too weak. Unable to break away from Velvet's magic, as it pushed her directly against the sphincter. Witnessing the back-entrance abruptly starting to stretch itself in size. Going further than what should be physically possible, she was given a quick glimpse into the awaiting internals. Seeing they were a fleshy-pink, with bits of goop being visible. Thankfully for Pip, there didn't look to be any pieces of crap lingering inside of the bowels. It was probably going to be the only relief she'll get, just as a loud SLURREELCH could be heard! The pucker quickly enveloping at her head. Taking away the light, replacing it with the horrifically darkened interior of the rear. Hearing the flesh grinding itself against her face, tugging her deeper into the slimy passageway. "Ooo~ Already feeling pleasurable back there! And to think, that's only your head inside of my ass... Makes me all the more eager to consume the rest of your body~” Velvet’s voice came out in a blissful groan! Enjoying this wonderful sensation, still guiding Pip’s head deeper into the slimy intestinal track. Being able to feel their head being fully enveloped inside of her behind, it was leaving quite the noticeable bulge upon her ass! Showing off the head of a horrified unicorn, as they were dragged deeper by the anal walls. Being in a state of constantly squeezing and tugging. Yanking in more of its prey, with Pip’s neck slipping in with ease. Unfortunately for them, Velvet was used to taking in prey that were usually larger in size compared to her smaller yet all so delightful snack~

As for Littlepip, things were only getting worse for her. Having taken the plunge head-first, she was unable to see where she was going. Tucked away within the hot bowels of Velvet’s ass, she could feel the walls continuing to grasp a hold of her body. Dragging what felt like her chest inside next, with her front-hooves getting awfully-close to the distended hole. “T-This can’t be happening... N-None of this can be r-real...!” Unable to cope with reality, this had to be some kind of messed up dream. None of this should be physically possible, yet it certainly was. With the pucker continuing to engulf her body. Feeling her chest being pushed against the slimy back-entrance. Given one tight squeeze, followed by another lewd squelch. Enveloping her into the humid environment, bound to be nothing more than a meal for Velvet! “Oh you feel so wonderful going up my ass! I should have eaten you earlier when I had the chance. I’ve clearly been missing out on this ecstatic dildo~” Speaking of the black unicorn, it didn’t seem her taunting remarks were ending any time soon. Her voice being loud enough for Pip to easily hear, along with the heavy pants coming from the unicorn’s lips. Mind being overwhelmed with ecstasy, making it difficult for her to possibly think. Luckily, her body was already well accustomed to this state. Continuing to gobble down its prey, without Velvet having to focus on them being dragged inside. Savoring each pleasurable spike going through her body, whilst battling the urge to jack herself off. Luckily, with how small Pip was compared to her, it wasn’t going to take too long to engulf her filly-sized dildo into her lustful rear~

Squelch after squelch, it wouldn’t have taken long till Pip’s fore-hoofs to be closing in towards the pucker. Having originally been trying to keep them away from the back-entrance, the terrified unicorn had pushed them towards her stomach! Hoping they would be far away from the hungry hole, hoping to avoid their gurgling fate. Sadly, it was never meant to be. With the ass continuing to gobble up more of Pip's miniscule form, she was helpless as it crept over her chest and stomach. Enveloping her fore-legs, before inevitably starting to squish near the terrified hoofs. As if taunting them of the pucker's presence, with the dreadful heat radiating from the spread-entrance. "Almost have your hooves tucked away~ Only a little bit more till you'll be just an ass sticking out of my own~" Velvet taunted from outside. Giving a firm squeeze of her bowels, mainly getting a feel for her partner being halfway-enveloped by her ass. The sensation having been already heavenly at this point, only to further intensify with her dildo being pushed throughout the intestinal track. Forced to bend to her body's will, as they made it past the first bend. Further sliding away from the exit, and closer towards the stomach below. And oh sweet Celestia, was it already brooming with activity. It was hungry, and taking Pip in the backway wasn't helping its case. Forcing the stomach to wait a bit longer, as Velvet was consuming at her prey's stomach! Feeling those fore-hooves sinking past the stretched-out donut, and being squished down by the intestinal lining. Lubricating them with the anal fluids, and leftover goop that came from her earlier fun with Calamity. "Not much longer~ Only a little bit more of this mighty adventurer, before they'll be exploring my digestive track~"

SQUELCH! Being the only sound Pip could possibly hear, as she trekked throughout the slimy intestinal track. Breathing in the stale musky air, while the walls were constantly grinding against her body. Surprisingly and quite fortunate for the unicorn, she wasn't encountering any bits of crap within Velvet's intestinal track. Though it was incredibly slimy, with what felt like a heavy amount of goop being all over the place. Almost as if the black unicorn had something inside of them earlier, it was hard to tell. Not that Pip was possibly able to even think within this current state. With an environment hotter than a sauna, and far more cramped than a janitor's closet, the experience can only be described as hellish. Being made worse feeling her stomach and front-hooves already slipping past the pucker. Leaving only her ass, and the hind-legs that were sprawled out on the changing board. Too weak to possibly stand, nor coordinated enough to possibly pull her way out. Between the stale air making her light-headed, and the diaper moving around inside of her, it felt impossible to do anything at the moment. Unable to see, or move, as the inner workings of Velvet's digestive system was pushing them along. Body drenched in the heavy anal fluids. Acting as a natural lubricant, sliding her much further into her digestive demise. Her ass dreadfully getting closer towards the hungry rear, knowing it'll be engulfed in due time. Further stressing Pip's already panicked state. "P-Push me b-back out! I don't want to d-die in here!" Desperately pleading, hoping to avoid being digested alive! Hearing the loud and echoing growls that came from above.

Hearing it grow louder with each passing bend she was going through, knowing one bend will be revealing that fateful sphincter. Being the hellish entrance to her cruel demise...

Pushed further along into the anal passageway, it was only inevitable their rear would be coming up to the pucker. Slipping inside with ease, putting up almost no resistance to the lustful ass! “Ooo~ That feels heavenly...~ O-Only a bit more left to engulf...~” Velvet happily cooed between heavily breaths. Tongue hanging out, panting as she drew closer towards that blissful peak. Feeling close to the blissful orgasm, she was purposefully holding out. Wanting to savor the moment as best as she could, knowing it was going to sadly end soon. Already turning around to face her rear end, she could see Pip’s hind-legs sticking out from her ass. Looking to be lightly lifted into the air, thanks to her gluttonous rear making short work of the unicorn. The same could be said with what remained of her ass snack. Hind-legs being no issue for the black unicorn, as they slipped past the distended entrance. Further increasing the bulge tucked away inside of her intestines, causing the pleasure to only intensify for the lustful unicorn. “J-Just a little bit more... And then you’ll be all mine... Snack...~” Getting to taunt her prey once more, while her hoof was brought over to her nether lips. Shoving it against the sensitive folds, evoking a pleased shudder from her body. Only a matter of time before the inevitable peak, though Velvet was going to make the most of it! Purposefully grinding down upon her nether regions. Overwhelming her in the sweet ecstasy that she so lustfully craved. Making it impossible to think, as the room was soon filled with blissful moans from the unicorn. Pushing herself over the edge, just as her prey’s rear-hoofs would finally be slipping into the slimy pucker~

Just as the feet were completely enveloped, Velvet would reach her climax! Evoking a noisily pleasurable cry from the ecstasy-filled unicorn. Body entering a heavy-tense state, temporarily pinning Pip in place as Velvet blew her load. Rushing its way out of her womanhood, the sweet nectar quickly splattered against the ground below. Marking the ground with her sexual pleasure, having the area reeking heavily of her musk. At last, she was able to savor this blissful afterglow. Tongue lolling out, heavy pants coming from the unicorn’s lips. Worn out, pleased, and having a delightful snack inside of her ass, there wasn’t anything else she could have asked for~ However, the same couldn’t be said for Pip. Swallowed alive by Velvet’s ass of all things, and currently pinned in place. Unable to move around thanks to the walls firmly hugging her figure. Encasing her in this furnace-like heat, draining away at what bit of energy she did have. Panting heavily, though this one wasn't mainly from pleasure. Feeling her light-headed-state, starting to grow in intensity. Eyes forcefully held shut, not wanting to possibly see of this hellish experience she was enduring. Being stuck in this state for what felt like minutes on end, the intestinal track would begin to slowly relax around Pip's body. Possibly drawing closer towards the end of Velvet's peak. It was hard to tell when all she could possibly hear was the lewd squelching of the flesh against her body. Uncertain of how much more she has left to go, but certainly not looking forward to it...

As for outside of Pip's slimy prison, Velvet was starting to recover from her blissful climax. Mind coming back slowly to reality, as only a little bit of femmy juices oozed out of her cunt. 'S-Sweet Celestia... That felt great...~' Softly muttering, having loved engulfing Pip with her ass. A hoof already working its way over to her side. Feeling around at the bulge imprinted upon her body. Feeling what felt like the faint outlines of their figure, slowly being pushed deeper into her body. Passing through bend after slimy bend of the intestinal track, and drawing closer towards her hungry gut. With the stomach having been sloshing and churning around in a constant rate. It was hungry, and she was certain it wouldn't give Pip much time to 'savor' being in here tummy. A grand sham for sure, but she had something else planned for Pip. A little bit of fun for them, before their inevitable digestion. "Not much longer~ I'm sure my gut will enjoy breaking you down~" Wanting them to think this was going to be the end, with it not being far from the truth. Picking herself back up, she'd wander over towards the leftover diaper on the floor. Being the one Pip had wetted earlier, it was what she perfectly needed for their disposal. "I must thank you for using your diaper. It'll be using to fit it, when I stuff your remains inside~" Carefully positioning her hind-hoofs into the open holes within the diaper, before lifting it up to her ass. Grinding the still-warm diaper against her rear. Feeling at the leftover urine rubbing against her nether regions. Hot to the touch, and being an all too pleasurable feeling for Velvet. Shuddering at the slight stimulation to her body. "O-Oh this is going to be great! Now, to get into position...~" Walking away from the sex dungeon, she parted towards the bed. A devious grin on her face, ready to have a little bit more with her terrified prey~

With Velvet retreating to the bed, it would have Pip swaying with each step they had taken. Rocking the terrified unicorn around, as she continued to sink deeper through the digestive track. Losing track of how long she's been in there, with most of her energy being drained at this point. Unable to even put up a struggle, while the walls also made sure she remained unable to move. Clinging onto her body, making the environment skin-tight, and incredibly humid. It was a living hell, but it was only going to be getting worse. Drawing closer towards the stomach, she was able to hear how much louder they had become. Having been already loud when she was originally slipping inside, it was becoming deafening at this point. Feeling like it was just above her at this point, with it most likely not being far from the truth. She was moving far faster than any ordinary meal. It wasn't going to take a couple hours to arrive at her destination. It was only going to take a few minutes... A terrifying thought, further adding onto the dread Pip was enduring. Eyes closed, with her lips heavily whimpering. She didn't anticipate the end to come by her best friend of all people. Let alone be as cruel as this... She could only hope they would have a change of heart, before it was too late! However, Pip knew their fate was already sealed, once they stuffed her head into their ass...

Pushing through the intestines for only a bit further, Pip would finally be arriving at her destination. Snout pushing itself against the stomach's sphincter, feeling it opening from the touch! Allowing for the intestinal walls to push her head into the awaiting gut. Stretching out the stomach lining with the abrupt entrance. Stretching to accommodate its meal, while also starting to secrete a light amount of stomach acids. Stinging against Pip's face, already trying to digest away at the horrified unicorn! However, there was nothing she could possibly do in this dreadful position. While the walls were stretching to accommodate her figure, it was still too tight to move around much. Not to mention the rest of her body was still trapped within the intestinal track. Kneaded and squeezed around, useless in her current state. "P-Please... D-Don't..." Begging for a saving grace, her fate grew grimmer with each passing second. Feeling more of her body pushed through the sphincter, and tucked away inside of the stomach. With the predator showing no signs of wanting to let their prey go...

A few dreadful seconds would slip on by, before the rest of Pip's body was completely tucked away inside of the stomach. With her hind-hoofs being the last part to slip inside, before the sphincter sealed itself shut! Not letting anything else in, but most importantly, it was keeping her tucked away within the gastric chamber. Stuck within her fleshy prison, with the stomach rejoicing in approval. Sloshing in delight, as it played gastric symphony! Being to the point of ear-deafening, with the noises being all Pip could possibly hear from within this fresh hell! Having this nightmarish experience, being only worsened by the walls kneading down against her body. Pushing harshly against her squished-frame, forcing her to curl up into a fetal-position. Her head staying just on top of her frame, wanting to avoid the acids seeping out of the walls. With Pip fully sealed away, the acids would begin to truly come out. Rushing out in an abundance, already beginning to fill the compact interior. Submerging most of Pip's body, with her head having been staying upwards. Grinding against the fleshy roof, in hopes of avoiding the harsh acids! All while the acids continued to soften away at her figure. Sending a tingling sensation, that wasn't too painful. However, it was far from comfortable. With the tingling sensation coursing through most of Pip's body, she felt unable to lay still while her body was being eaten alive. "V-Velvet please! I'm s-s-starting to digest! Let me out!" Pleading one last time towards her predatory companion, it was perhaps the only thing she could possibly do at this point. Fucked, stuffed, and gobbled up, it had taken a massive toll upon her body. Unable to fight back, as the acids softened at her body. Slowly growing in intensity, the further her body stayed within the acidic fluids... It truly felt like she was going to die in here...

Just as Pip was about to give up hope, something could barely be heard faintly from up ahead. With the sound just barely being heard over the gluttonous calls of the stomach, it almost sounded like Velvet was gagging... Was it a possible sign of them wanting to get her out? Were they sorry for what happened? Thoughts were racing around through Pip's mind, trying to figure out what was going on up ahead. Only for her time to think being cut short, thanks to a distressed groan from the stomach. Audibly upset with what was happening outside, it was filling the unicorn with some kind of hope! Praying to the gods that this may be her lucky break out of this hell! Sadly for her, it wasn't going to come that easily. As the stomach continued to groan and distress over possibly losing its meal, it led to the stomach lining abruptly tightening even further upon the unicorn's body! Threatening to crush the unicorn, too gluttonous to possibly get rid of their pleasurable prey! Not caring for the poor soul trapped within its fleshy clutches. Crying out in pain as their body was being compacted by the slimy walls. Snout rubbing against the esophagus sphincter, desperately trying to keep its meal tucked away. However, with the walls further intensifying their harsh squeezing, the sphincter would eventually give in! Parting enough for Pip's head to be pushed into the slimy esophagus! Followed by her neck and chest, as the esophagus walls forcefully shoved its prey back out. Squished firmly by the slimy muscles, as they ascended her towards the maw! Given freedom from the hellish experience that was Velvet's digestive track, it truly felt like Pip was going to live to see another day! Only a little bit more, and she'll be able to see the familiar bedroom once again...

After what felt like a few more seconds of being pushed through the slimy throat, she'd finally breach the maw! Sliding against the resting tongue, before forcefully parting Velvet's maw as she slipped out. So tempted to possibly open her eyes, but she kept them closed for now. Breathing out a sigh of relief, beyond thankful her companion had spared her. "T-Thank you..." She softly muttered under her lips. Too weak to speak any louder, as she splattered against the bed sheets. Not expecting much of an answer from Velvet, with the unicorn not being able to respond with half of her body still in their throat. Filling the air with the lewd gagging noise, as flesh grinded against flesh. She wasn't completely out just yet, but she was alright with that. Already coming out at a steady pace, she was more than content waiting a bit longer to be fully pushed out. Having the soft fabric of the bed act as a soft cushioning for her to rest her body against, helping to further increase the relief coursing through Pip's body. Having her front-hooves coming out, would be another sweet relief for Pip. To finally be able to move them around, and not feel anything fleshy in return. She can only imagine what it'll feel like to have her entire body completely free from Velvet's digestive track. There was going to be an awkward talk between the two of them, but it was far better than suffering a digestive end...

Being pushed most of the way out, it would have come to an abrupt stop once Pip's ass finally slipped out of the rear. Leaving her hind-legs to still be in the maw, with the hoofs trapped inside of the throat. "H-Hey... why did you s-stop...?" Pip couldn't resist asking, mainly from how close she was to freedom! To feel her slime-covered body, being exposed to the outside world, it was wonderful. One of the best sensations she has ever experienced, only because she had to endure hell moments before. Her hind-hoofs were the only thing that was left, and it was having a few of her fears starting to rise. Looking over towards the black unicorn for an answer, she would be surprised by the one she got! Having expected some kind of verbal response, she couldn't have anticipated Velvet's tongue pushing itself directly into her cunt! Evoking a blissful moan out of the tired unicorn, as she was being eaten out. Nethers clenching from the wonderful sensation coursing through her, as that slimy muscle worked upon her used folds. Cleaning away at the leftover spunk leftover from earlier, and overwhelming Pip in a wave of sheer ecstasy! She didn't think she'd be orgasming again any time soon, but she was already drawing close! Spasming with each passing lick from the tongue, she was loving this sudden twist! "O-Oh Celestia...!" Moaning out those words, while her hind-legs squirmed against the throat muscles. Tickling them with their movement, yet remaining firmly in place within the esophagus. As if this was planned, Pip didn't think too much of it for the time. Opting to bask in the heat of the moment. Savoring her cunt being eaten out, and drawing closer towards a second peak...

Seconds would pass on by, as Velvet was eagerly eating away at Pip's cunt. A devious grin being visible upon her face, though not for the reasons her partner might be thinking. It was always planned to let Pip come back out, at least twice. Wanting to have a bit more fun before she fully enjoys her meal, she was lapping around at the vaginal walls. Getting a taste of Calamity's spunk against her tastebuds, while her tongue danced around the dampening walls. Drenching them in a hot drool, and drawing Pip closer towards that orgasmic peak. "Hmm, I wonder how much more you can handle being eaten out. My tasty meal~" She at least tried to say, only for half of her words to be too incoherent to understand. Throat clogged with the feet of the prey she was still going to swallow, making it hard to speak. Not that it looked like it was getting much to Pip at this point. The unicorn having the time of their life, constantly erupting into a series of heavy moans. It was funny to think of how terrified they were of going inside of her. Only to now be moaning like a bitch, all thanks to her tongue~ Tasting at the dampening walls, and breathing in the heavy musk lingering within Pip's womanhood. Growing stronger by the second, as she pushed their body to the limit! Trying to reach their breaking point, and enjoy a lovely drink for herself~

Within a few licks, Pip would reach their peak already! Not having the mental strength to possibly hold a load for too long, the orgasm quickly overcame their body. Rushing out along with an orgasmic cry, giving Velvet a small but delightful drink of Pip's sweet nectar. Having the small batch splattering against the tongue, and rushing its way towards the back of the throat. Being swallowed down with a loud GLUURK, taking with it her prey's hind-legs. Pushing them down a few inches through the esophagus, and having the ass be right on top of her maw! Forced to part her lips once again to take in the rear end, with the unicorn being too worn out to even notice what was happening. Either too worn out too care, or possibly too lost in the ecstatic state the second orgasm brought upon them. Regardless, it was giving Velvet plenty of time to start swallowing back down her meal. Taking small swallows, as she didn't want to completely engulf Pip while they were in their state of ecstasy. Managing to gobble down their ass, and have been slowly working that stomach into her parted jaws. Sliding their butt against her taste buds, before being tucked away with another noisy GLUUURK! Little by little, Velvet was going to see just how much she could slowly engulf of Pip's body. Before they could realize their fateful dive back into her gut~

It would have taken a few moments, but Pip would eventually snap out of the blissful afterglow! Greeted to the loud sound of swallowing, her fear was already assuming the worst. Having it be confirmed by another loud swallow, before she felt her stomach having been slipping back into Velvet's maw! Returning back to the fleshy hell she had just endured, sinking down towards the stomach below. "N-No..." Pip's voice barely escaped her lips. Too horrified to possibly say anything else, her eyes glancing over at Velvet's body. Being able to see the parted jaws of the black unicorn, and the heavy bulge filling most of their upper-half. Distending their neck and chest, with the bulge slowly starting to move its way further downwards towards the awaiting stomach. This time, she knew there wasn't going to be escaping the stomach. Her trip down there was going to be final, and there was nothing she can possibly do about it. Drained of what energy, her body would inevitably go limp within their grasp. Not putting up a fight, as it was being dragged closer towards the awaiting lips. "Awe, such a shame~" Velvet's voice could have been heard. Mostly coherent, though still a bit hard to hear what she had to say. Thankfully the grin on her face, was enough to tell how she felt about gobbling down her prey. Wishing they had at least put up a better fight, suppose she underestimated her morsel. After all, after being fucked, eaten anally, and then eaten out, it was going to drain someone's energy. Especially someone like Pip, who was horrified from being eaten. While it was a disappointment, it was a delight to see their whimpering head being dragged closer to her. Seeing the terror fully visible in their eyes, telling of a unicorn that didn't want to end up as a pile of horse apples. It was just a shame she fully intended on filling their diaper with their own remains~

With a few swallows coming to pass, it didn't take long for Pip's head to be sliding directly into Velvet's parted maw. Forced into the incredibly humid environment, with the tongue greeting her with a few slimy licks! Covering her chin, and a small bit on each cheek. Getting a taste for their meal one last time, before they would inevitably take the plunge down the throat. "Well I've had my fun today, and it's only halfway over for me~" Velvet spoke in a cruel tone. Not caring for the unicorn's wellbeing in the slightest, having been savoring their terrified state. Though with there being only one place left for Pip to go, it was time to sadly say their goodbyes. “Any last words, Pip? Before you get turned into a bunch of horse apples~” Granting them one last chance to say what they wanted to say, it wasn’t going to do much. No matter what Pip might be able to say, it wasn’t going to stop them from possibly ending up back inside of her gut. It was probably why they didn’t bother speaking in the slightest! Choosing to have their voice come out in a pitiful whimper, it was sad to say the least. After all the fun the two have had together, and the adventures they’ve done, she would have expected some kind of response. Instead, she’s filled with a bit of disappointment, with a defeated sigh slipping out. “Nothing to say, huh? Guess that means you’re all accepting of your fate. How lovely~” Treating their silence as approval, it did evoke a startled cry from the unicorn! About to possibly say something to her, only for it to be silenced by her jaws sealing shut! Tilting her head into the air, and taking a heavy GUUUULLRRK! Taking with it, the head of her prey, as they descending down towards the grumbling stomach~

Descending down the same throat that had once pushed them out, it seemed hopeless for Pip at this point. Sliding down the throat was ease, there was nothing she could do about it. Fore-hoofs pinned just beside her chest, with the walls firmly grasping a hold of them. Ensuring they wouldn’t move around, and put up much of a resistance. Not that it would have to worry long, with gravity being on Velvet’s side. Making what had been almost half a minute of being pushed up the throat earlier, to be a mere few seconds sliding back down. Being pushed through the stomach’s sphincter, and plopping back into the familiar gastric chamber. Forced back into the pool of acids, that didn’t seem to leave when she was originally regurgitated back out. Already starting to nip and soften away at her body. Continuing on directly from where they had left off from earlier. The acids weren’t the only thing that would already be resuming back to work. As were the walls returning back to aggressively kneading upon her body. This time, compacting much harder than they were originally, submerging most of Pip’s body into the acidic pool. Her head barely keeping above the acids, just as an audible BURRAAAEELLCH was heard from outside! Shaking the fleshy environment, with the acids sloshing around her figure. Splashing some of it against Pip’s face, evoking a pained cry from the digesting unicorn. She didn’t know how much her body can endure the harsh acids, though she had no choice in the matter. Both exits being fully sealed off, trapping her within the gluttonous stomach. With the only way of getting out, is by being churned down to nothing more than a massive pile of goop and bones for Velvet’s body to use...

“Aaaah~ You were certainly a delight to swallow down. Glad I got to enjoy you both ways, before my gut has its way with you~” A delighted sigh slipped past Velvet’s lips. Able to speak clearly, though she doubt Pip would be able to hear her over the noisy stomach. The sounds having intensified now that its meal was tucked away for good. Softening and perhaps even starting to partially digest the unicorn inside. Having the stomach heavily distended, still showing of the unicorn inside. Whole for the most part, but that wasn’t going to last for much longer. Especially with a stomach that was well accustomed to their raw, far larger meals. Giving Pip’s smaller size, she could only imagine the digestion process wasn’t going to last all that long. Perhaps half an hour, to maybe an hour, if she accounts for processing the remains. “Looks like I get to relax, before I have to shit you out. Might as well enjoy having you sloshing around inside of my stomach. See just how long my slutty snack can last for~” Bringing her head to rest on a nearby pillow, she’d stroke her fore-hoofs against the stomach. Listening to each passing moan and grumble that erupted from the gut. Helping to further break down her prey, and cause a few burps to slip out. Far smaller than the one from before, having pushed out most of the air from within the gut. Whether Pip possibly stayed conscious to see their entire digestion, or pass out from the lack of air inside of the gut, it didn’t matter in the end. That unicorn was going to be coming out as a big pile of horse apples, and there was nothing they could do to stop it~

With Velvet happily relaxing with their bloated tummy, it would leave Pip to be resting uncomfortably within the stomach. Most of her body having been submerged, with her head barely avoiding the acid’s touch. Enduring the tingling sensation, with some parts of her body having reached a peak in intensity! Having the tingling sensation grow to be a light burning sensation, before it was shortly followed by numbness. Telling of how far along her body was digested, she thankfully didn’t feel too much of it. With it having been affecting mainly her mane, being the first part of her body to be dissolved by the acids. Her hoofs were possibly going to be the next to fall victim to the digestive stew. Having the tingling sensation growing heavier, telling of their untimely demise. “T-This can’t be it... I can’t die h-here...” Trying to keep some kind of motivation to keep living, Pip was desperate at this point. Horrified of being digested alive, her mind was racing for an escape. Any kind of way of breaking out of this fleshy prison, and surviving this nightmare! Hoofs desperately spasming against the nearby walls, giving what little fight they possibly had in them. Only to instantly falter against the strength of the stomach lining. Having one firm squeeze of the gut, being enough to knock the breath outside of her. Barely given any room to possibly breathe, she was incredibly nauseous. Feeling like she was about to pass out from the hellish heat, it didn't feel like it was a fight to fend off the digestive acids. As it was, a battle just to possibly stay awake! Feeling herself slowly lose the battle, as the acids continued to hungrily churn away at her body...

With one unicorn having to bear the weight of digestion, it was only natural for the other to be enjoying the digestion process. Letting her gut do all the hard work for her, Velvet was watching her distended belly. Watching it slosh and tighten around its prey, breaking away at bits of their body. Turning it into a fine goop, before draining it directly into her intestinal for her body to absorb. It was going to take a bit to digest Pip's entire body, with a good majority of it going to be used to fuel the unicorn. However, not all of it was going to be useful. Anticipating a good chunk of their body to be churned into nothing more than a pile of horse apples, with some of it having to come out during the digestion process. "Wonder how long I'll have to wait, till I can start disposing of you. For you see, I can't hold all of your remains inside of my intestines. Some of it has to come out already, just so I have enough room to absorb the rest of your remains. Nothing personal, my gut hungers for a meal~" Shaking her ass around to go along with her remark, she could already feel the goop starting to be absorbed to her body. Slowly adding onto her figure. Bits of it going towards her hips, while a portion of it was bound to be adding onto her gut. She'd have to work Pip off of her body after their little visit. Till then, she'd continue stroking away at her bloated gut. Watching the digestion process, and anticipating the load of horse apples to come slipping out of her ass~

Minutes would pass by in the stomach, as Pip continued their speedy digestion. Having been squished and kneaded around by the tight walls of the stomach, with Velvet's firm kneading only helping to further break down her body. Having started at the weakest parts of her body, her tail and mane were the first to go. Followed shortly by the vault outfit she had been wearing. Not being able to stand against the digestive juices, with the fabric melting off of her body. Losing that tiny bit of protection she had for her main torso, as it now endured the full force of the digestive juices. Spreading the heavily tingling throughout Pip's body, evoking a pained groan out of the exhausted unicorn. Somehow awake through it all, even though she was losing parts of her body at this point. Feeling her hooves having succumbed into numbness. Unable to feel what was happening, though she'd quickly find out about what parts of her body have already succumbed. With it coming in the form of a robotic voice! Issuing a distressed warning to the unicorn. "Hind-hoofs have been crippled! Seek medical attention!” The robotic voice distressingly said, with a slightly muffled voice. Urging its user to seek for supplies, Pip was unable to possibly do anything about it. Daring to part her eyes for just a moment, and seeing the familiar green screen on the pipboy. Showing off body, with the two hind-hoofs having been crippled. One hoof was being visible on the screen, while the other looked to just show a missing limb. Confirming just what part of her body had succumbed to the acids... “T-This can’t be real... I can’t d-die like this...” In denial over their gurgling demise, Pip closed her eyes once again. Pushing her snout against the fleshy walls, trying to avoid looking over at that horrifying screen. Having it act as a progress bar for her untimely demise...

While Pip may be having a panic attack within the stomach, Velvet would already be feeling the little bits of crap already starting to form inside of her intestines. Her body working into overdrive, trying to process its meal as fast as it could possibly handle! Having it fly through her system, the small pieces were already approaching the rear exit. Pushed along by the intestinal lining, hurrying them along to make room for the plentiful amount of horse apples Pip’s body was going to make. With these pieces being too small to even worry about, they’d easily slip right through the pucker. Not needing any pushing from Velvet, allowing her to bask in the delightful process. Relieving the loads directly into the diaper. Landing close to where the golden spots of urine, the little horseapples were splattered against the fabric! Already starting to turning bits of the cushioning, into a brown stain upon the diaper. Being small at first, it was only going to be growing much larger once more of Pip’s body was thoroughly broken down by her stomach. “That’s it, just collapse and break apart in there. The wasteland won’t be needing you anymore, once I’ve fully disposed you inside of your diaper. Quite the shocking way for your story to end, but at least I’m getting a good meal out of it~” Velvet was continuing on with her taunting remarks. Uncertain if they would have been able to hear it, but she didn’t care. Having one hoof stroking around upon her distended gut, while the other was stroking around at the diaper. Feeling around at the pieces of shit that already slipped out. Hot to the touch, and having a leftover aroma clinging to it. Giving a small taste of burnt flesh and digestive acids, telling of the unicorn’ fate inside of her. “Only a little bit more, and I’ll have that adorable butt of yours finally adding onto mine~” She cooed to her stomach, listening to it groan and slosh around! Already looking to have shrunken quite a lot from its original size...~

As for within the gastric chamber, Pip would be hearing her pipboy go off again. Not daring to look at it, as the robotic voice pierced the gastric moans from the stomach. “Hind-legs are crippled. You are paralyzed!” The robotic voice cried out, telling of the unicorn’s weakened state. Bringing a few tear to Pip’s eyes. Flowing out past the closed eyelids, going to join the pool she was stewing inside of. Even if this wasn’t the most painful way to possibly die, it was by far the most horrifying way. To be betrayed by someone she trusted most, and to end up as nothing more than a meal of all things to them. Betrayed and hollow, she just wanted her misery to end at this point. To snuff out her life, and put her tired soul to rest as a pile of digestive slop. Thankfully she would be getting that wish, when the robotic voice rang out once again. Telling more of her harrowing demise. “Front-hooves severely injured! Seek medical attention!” Followed by another short message, this one sounding more urgent than the one prior. “URGENT, HEALTH IS LOW. SEEK MEDICAL SUPPLIES.” Before shining the screen in a heavy-red to signify the threat of death. Ignorant to the fact she wasn’t able to possibly save herself, with the acids bent on making sure she was broken down into a fine goop for Velvet to enjoy. And at this point, Pip was desiring to end her pitiful suffering. Even if it meant having to add onto his former-companion’s hips...

With half a unicorn already digested, it wasn’t long for Velvet to be feeling the much heavier logs coursing throughout her intestinal track. Being around the same size as a normal log, they were easily filling her intestinal track. Pushed along by the lining, and heading straight for the rear end. “Now this is what I’ve been looking forward to...~” Velvet grumbled to herself. Rubbing her hoof a bit deeper into the diaper! Grinding the dirty fabric against her rear, smearing a bit of leftover crap against the cheeks. Timing it just right for the bigger logs to be pushed out of the pucker. Using a bit of force to push them along herself, the messy horseapples were being plopped into the diaper. Landing softly against the soiled fabric, before being grinded against Velvet’s ass. Giving her a chance to feel the small pieces of bone from within the mess. Lightly scratching around at her ass, having it feel like a nice massage for the raunchy unicorn. “There’s the bones I’ve been looking forward to! I knew it wasn’t much longer till I got to the juicy parts of your body. Though I wonder what part of you I’m feeling right now~?” Shifting her hoof around against the fabric, she was trying to tell what bone was poking around at her ass. Only to find they had been broken into pieces. Not able to withstand the intestinal passageway, with some bones having been shattered into dozens of pieces. Making it hard to possibly figure out what part used to belong to Pip’s body. “Hmmm, hard to tell, though I suppose it doesn’t matter. All of you will be ending up in this diaper soon enough~”

As for inside of the stomach, things would have gotten only worse for Pip. With the seconds feeling like minutes of endless suffering inside of the acid-filled stomach. She would actually be delighted to hear the robotic voice calling out once more. “WARNING! CRITICAL HEALTH! FRONT HOOVES CRIPPLED. SEEK MEDICAL ATTENTION IMMEDIATELY.” Beeping its alarm for her to get some help, there was nothing Pip could do at this point. Lacking any limbs to even push with, she could feel herself starting to slip completely into the acids. Having enough room to fully submerge her body, the unicorn was ready for her cruel death! A small smile being slightly visible upon her face. Not telling of joy, but of sweet relief her suffering was almost over. Submerged into the acidic pool, every part of Pip’s remaining body was under attack from the harsh acids. Nipping and breaking her into a goop, with most of it having been affecting her main torso. For some strange reason, her head was feeling oddly fine through it all. Heated up from the surrounding environment, but it wasn’t enduring a heavy tingling sensation like her torso. Acting as if it was still above the pool of acids, Pip wouldn’t think too much about it. Being so close to death, she embraced her inevitable demise. Eyes held shut, and lips sealed, as she waited to move on to the afterlife. Waiting for the moment her conscious will fade, and her agony to be over. Whether it comes in a few seconds, or possibly another minute or two, it didn’t concern a unicorn. Knowing in the end, she’ll finally be free of this hellish experience...

It was around this point; the stomach would have shrunken to half of its original state! Not as heavily distended like it once was, with the bulges looking to be evening out around this time. With there being a few smaller bulges forming within the mess, it was a lovely sight for Velvet to see! “Heh, already halfway digested in there? Or are you mostly gone at this point? Hard to tell when my prey doesn’t squirm around in there~” Taunting her prey, she was answered by a gluttonous growl from the stomach. Causing the interior to tighten once again, before a noisy BURRAAP managed to slip past the unicorn’s lips! Coughing up bits of undigested fur, and what looked to be tiny pieces of bone that managed to make their way back up. This time, she could recognize they belonged to Pip’s hoofs. Or, used to at this point. Being reduced to their bare skeletal form, with the muscle and flesh having been turned to a goop at this point. Telling of just what parts have already succumbed to their digestive fate. “Expected those hooves to be the first to go. Guess that means all that’s left is that torso of yours, and that adorable head. Such a shame it has to be churned too, but that’s what happens when you become prey to me~”

Bringing her hoof back over towards her distended gut, she kneaded harshly upon the bloated fat. Getting a feel for the massive bulge lingering inside of her gut. Feeling mainly their torso, with her being able to feel their head on occasion. The rest of their body seemed to have been churned away at this point. “Not much longer Pip, soon you’ll be seeing life as a pile of horse apples~”

Seconds would turn into minutes, as Pip’s anticipation would start to grow stale. Turning more into slight annoyance, as she was confused why she was even alive. Not being able to feel any part of her body anymore, she was still conscious. Able to hear the loud moaning from the stomach walls, and the loud splashing of stomach acids against the lining. It didn’t make any sense why she was still awake during this time; she shouldn’t have survived this deathly experience. Making it far stranger when she’d feel her head being pushed around against the stomach lining. Being pushed with the leftover goop of her body, through the intestinal sphincter. She was... escaping from the stomach...? It was hard to tell what was possibly happening, though she could feel the intestinal sphincter stretching around her facial features. Giving a firm squeeze as they went over her, and pushed her into the intestinal track. Accompanied by the stomach chyme, and what felt like the pipboy being pushed against her head. Hot to the touch from being sloshed around inside of the stomach, but looking to be completely intact. All three of them managing to escape the stomach, and now be on their path through Velvet’s intestinal track. Heading for the exit far ahead, with the goop going to be turned into a heavy amount of horse apples once the body was done absorbing the nutrients lingering inside. As for Pip herself, it would have been a small relief, to finally be able to escape from the noisy organ. While she had to give up the bit of stomach space she had, to have the intestinal track squeezing upon her leftover remains. Slowly absorbing and thinning out the chunky goop, using the nutrients to fuel the predatory unicorn. As for Pip’s head, and the pipboy, they remained untouched by the clenching walls. Staying intact on their journey, with them being covered in bodily juices at worst. Leaving a unicorn wondering why she wasn’t dead, and what was going to possibly be waiting for her outside of Velvet’s digestive track...

With a unicorn’s remains inside of her intestines, Velvet was simply relaxing post-digestion. A content grin on her face, as she laid peacefully on the blankets. Letting her diaper be filled by the continuous logs of crap that had been slipping out of her ass. With each log growing bigger than the last, she could have felt more of the bones scrapping along against her interior walls. Sending shudders of ecstasy throughout the unicorn's body. Tempted to possibly jack off again, with her hoofs being drawn towards the diaper. Feeling at the massive brown spot upon the diaper. Weighing the used-fabric down with the weight of the Pip's remains. Coming out bit by bit, with the occasional PBHRRRFRT filling the air. Having the area reek heavily of fresh horseapples, with the lingering scent of death in its noxious scent. It was an aroma Velvet had personally loved smelling, especially when it came from her own ass. Murmuring in approval, with her hoofs kneading down upon the diaper. Listening to it crinkle and squish down against her grasp. Much hotter to the touch, with the load inside growing larger with each log that came out of her ass. "E-Even though you were smaller, it's still a pleasure to shit you out Pip~ It honestly makes me wish I had done it sooner~" No qualms about what she's done to her best friend. Thinking they were better off as a massive load stinking up her diaper. With the digestion having completely finished, it was just a matter of letting Pip take their course through her body. Absorbing the nutrients from their goopy remains, before shitting out the unwanted leftovers into her messy diaper~

Meanwhile, inside of Velvet's slimy depths, Pip wouldn't be having an enjoyable time on the way out. While she may have been drawing closer towards freedom, the nearby slosh had been absorbed of most of the nutrients. Leaving only the leftover remains of her body. Now turned into a brown mass of horseapples, with her being able to feel them mushing against her face! Covering it in the disgusting crap, with the horrific scent invading Pip's nostrils. It was a miracle she was still alive as just a disembodied head, though it was far from enjoyable. Letting out a muffled groan, being too soft to be heard from outside, as she was further pushed towards the awaiting pucker. "W-Why... Why am I alive..." She kept muttering to herself. Trying to figure out what's possibly keeping her alive. Given only a few seconds to think about it, before she was assaulted by the waves of gas passing through the intestinal track. Assaulting Pip's nostrils with the horrific stench of rotting flesh, mixed with the heavy manure she was surrounded by. The scent wanted to make her gag or possibly even puke! Though she lacked any body to do any of that. Instead, she'd stay still with her firmly held shut. Listening to the flesh grinding itself down against her body, and the occasional fart filling the air. With each one growing louder by the second, it seemed like she was almost at the exit! Being just a bit further up ahead, she just had to brace herself for a bit longer. Only a few more moments of being covered in shit, before she'd finally be able to escape the hellish environment that is Velvet's bowels...

Taking just a bit more traveling, Pip would eventually arrive back at the pucker! About to go out the same hole she had been engulfed; she could already feel the much cooler air from outside. Bringing with it, somewhat-dirty air. Far fresher than the stale fumes she's been inhaling, even if it was mixed heavily with the lingering crap. "F-Freedom. F-F-Finally..." Pip muttered with tired eyes. Refusing to open them just yet, keeping them closed just in time for the pucker to slowly spread over her. Having the snout being the first to slip out, she was able to breathe out a bit of fresh air! Filling her nostrils, removing most of the stale stench. Though the stench would remain, being right next to the pile of horse apples. Along with it being no surprise, Pip would end up crashing into it. Having gotten half of her head through the sphincter, only to faceplant directly into the nearby horseapples. Further smearing herself in her own remains, with the pipboy falling on top of her. At last, she was free from the rear! However, the trouble didn't end just yet. Having a few logs still traveling out, Pip would be subjected to more of the disgusting crap be splattered against her face. Subjected to this shitty treatment, while being able to hear Velvet up ahead. Pleasurably moaning from her departure from their intestines. Just hearing the unicorn moan over this, would send a mixture of feelings through Pip's mind. Torn between arousal, fear, and betrayal, she didn't know what to possibly feel! Giving the head plenty to think about while they were stuck in the diaper. Having to wait and see what'll happen, once Velvet finishes relieving herself...

Finishing what felt like the last few logs coming from her ass Velvet was having the time of her life disposing of Pip's body. Having it pile and stuff her already soiled diaper, causing it grow heavier with the weight of everything inside of it. With most of it coming out rather smoothly, the only issue she had at the moment, was the pipboy trapped inside. Having forgotten Pip had even worn the damn thing, her body was unable to digest at the metal. Now residing within the diaper, currently pushed against her nether lips. Blocking any chance of relieving herself. "Well that's unfortunate..." Grumbling to herself, getting into an up-right position. Resting her back against the bedframe, while her eyes were staring at the noticeable two bulges within the fabric. One with the pipboy pushed against her cunt, while the other looked to be of Pip's skull. The skeletal remains having been filling up the space in there. She was a bit surprised to see it was still relatively big in size! Having anticipated them to be much smaller than that. "Huh. I guess you really did have a big skull. How lovely~" Putting her hoofs towards the diaper, she'd gently lift the soiled-fabric off of her body. Revealing at the shit-covered pipboy within the diapered mess, and giving a small glance over at the completely-alive head inside. Being just noticeable enough to evoke a surprised gasp out of Velvet. "P-Pip? You're alive!?!"

Using her telekinesis, it wasn't long till she would be pulling out what looked to be Pip's disembodied head. Covered heavily in the leftover horse apples, with a shocked look being clearly visible upon their face! "W-What, you were going to kill me!?! I t-thought we were friends Velvet! I c-can't believe you'd be willing to eat me!" Having the betrayal be on the top of her mind, there wasn't any way she could possibly forgive them for this! Trying to look back at them with a serious look on their face. Or at least as serious as she could, seeing she was nothing more than a head covered in her own remains. "Oh hush, it's not like I would have permanently kept you as a big pile of shit. I do have my ways of bringing you back from being nothing more than a clump of horse apples. Though I am curious to see just how you've managed to survive my bowels..." Revealing a way of possibly returning back to her previous self, Pip was excited to possibly hear the news! Only to be in distraught, seeing the unicorn's attention was focused on their survival. Not eager to return her back to normal, as they lifted her disembodied head closer to their face! Having the two be temporarily seeing eye to eye with one another. "It's fascinating how your head and a bit of your neck survived the digestion process. Maybe there's something on you, that enabled you to survive so far..." Velvet continued to speak, all too fascinated with their survival, it was starting to get a bit on Pip's nerves. Just as she was about to say something, she would be quickly interrupted by Velvet speaking once again. "Ah, so that's what's kept you alive! I shouldn't be too surprised, considering I'm the one who gave you that~"

Upon looking directly at Pip's head, Velvet was able to see the ring currently resting on the base of their horn. The anti-magic ring she had used to ensure the unicorn wouldn't fight back, also protected the wear's head in the most hellish of environment. They were fortunate enough to have the ring on them, or else their head would have joining the rest of the load as a giant pile of horse apples. Which was a small shame, though Velvet had some ideas on what she could possibly do with the talking head. Before she could possibly do any of the ideas in her head, she was interrupted by Pip's voice. "W-What's keeping me alive right now? I-Is it reversable? Can I g-get my body back, and soon?" They were throwing out question after question, clearly concerned about their wellbeing. Suppose it was only fair she gave them some answers, seeing how she did just eat and digest them. "Hang on, one question at a time, let me process what you're saying" Quickly putting an end to the constant questioning, the unicorn would fall silent for a moment. Giving Velvet some time to possibly think about what was asked, and how she was going to word it. Starting off with the basics, she'd point a fore-hoof directly to Pip's horn. "Well first things first, the thing that's keeping you alive right now, is that ring I had put on your horn. It has some special properties that keeps their user from being killed entirely, though it limits any use of your magic. It's personally why I had used it earlier when I was eating you with my ass~" A devious grin appearing upon her face, recalling the glorious sensation that was engulfing her companion anally. She'd be more than happy to do it again, if she could get them back to their normal selves.

"S-So I'm still able to survive a-after this? W-Well that's great!" Pip was trying to at least be a bit cheerful. Having an intermission after all that lewd experience, it was a relief for the unicorn. Seeing that she still had her friend with her, seeing how it wasn't some grand betrayal behind her back. It made the lewd scenes a bit more enjoyable, slightly denying just how enjoyable it was to be fucked and eaten out. "Hehe, yes~ You'll be good and back to normal. I just have to talk to the twilight society to see how they'll revert you back from your current state." Though that wasn't going to be for a while, seeing it'll take a bit just to reach the council. Seeing that excited look on Pip's face, she knew they were wanting their body back. Before she could even possibly mention a possible wait, she was inevitably asked the question she had already anticipated. "So when can I get my body back? I kind of want to head out, and d-do some stuff around the wasteland." Expressing a small desire to head back out, in the wasteland, she knew they weren't going to be able to be heading out for a while. Instead, she decided to change the conversation a bit. "Woah, hang on a moment. Don't you want a moment to rest? After all, I think the both of us can use a small breather after everything we've done together." Playing it off like she needed a break, she wanted to recover a bit from her fun, she did go off to mention "Besides, don't you want to chat for a small bit? I'm sure you'd love to discuss how much fun it was being inside of my body! Hehe, you've always talked about how much you love eating me out, I'm sure being inside of me must have been a treat! Assuming you got past the fear of being turned into shit~"

The playful remarks, were enough to have Pip's cheek's turning a cherry-red! Shyly looking away from Velvet, though that proved to be difficult being nothing more than a head. "W-Well I suppose you're right. It did feel w-wonderful to have you eating my cunt out...~" Letting on they did enjoy themselves. Even the parts when she was inside of their body, she could see bits of enjoyment out of it. Granted she was absolutely horrified of being eaten alive originally, she didn't get to spend too much time actually admiring Velvet's body. She could only imagine the fun she'd have, possibly exploring their cunt. Getting an up-close and personal view with it, like she had with their ass. It would certainly make her one absolutely ecstatic unicorn~ "Heh, well maybe I'll eat you with my pussy one of these days. Let you enjoy eating me out, before I turn you into my next orgasm or maybe just a large load of urine~" Speaking of urine, she was feeling it starting to build up inside of her bladder. The liquid remains of Pip's body, taking a bit slower to process compared to her bowels. Having it originally being small at first during disposal, was starting to feel much heavier at this point. With the desire to relieve herself starting to take center stage. While she did want to possibly continue to relax and mess around with Pip a bit more, she was feeling the need to relieve that building tension. She could keep talking to Pip as they were now, but she already had something better in mind~

"Say, how about we have a little bit of fun~? I'll let you enjoy eating me out, before we take you to get fixed up. How does that sound to you~?" Making it sound like it was going to be a pleasurable experience, she was just missing the fact she was going to relieve herself in the process. Having it be a surprise for now, she didn't have to wait long for Pip to agree. Already eagerly nodding in approval, with a devious grin being clearly visible upon the unicorn's face. Even without their body, they were always willing to do something lewd with her. "Y-Yes of course! I'd love to do t-that~!" Ready to eat her out, the energetic tone was enough to bring a smirk upon Velvet's face. Having found it to be a bit amusing, and just one of the many reasons she loved fucking around with that horny little unicorn. "Wonderful! Well looks like I better get you into position then~" Bringing a hoof towards the diaper, she'd lift the soiled-fabric. Being just large enough for her magic to push Pip's head inside. Bringing it to rest against the nearby clumps of horse apples, with their snout being positioned firmly against her nether regions. The hot snout touching against the sensitive folds, sending a shiver through the unicorn's back. "T-This is going to be pleasurable, for me at least~" Softly mumbling under her breath, as she could feel Pip already starting to eat her out. Feeling that tongue lap and stroke against the sensitive flesh. All that was left, was to finally let lose, and relieve her bladder of its current load~

Rushing its way out like a flowing river, Velvet wasted no time relieving her bladder! Letting the golden fluids pour out of the urethra, and splatter itself on top of Pip's snout. Forcing the unicorn to close their eyes, as the yellow fluid was splattered against their face! Drenching their grey skin with the musky fluids, before draining towards the nearby clumps of crap. Having some of the crap starting to soften under the hot fluids, while some remained untouched by the golden fluids. Leaving any remains to be splattered against the side of the diaper. Lightly staining the already soiled-fabric a light-yellow, further making a mess of the diaper. Yet, to the two unicorns, it wasn't like either one of them cared. Pip having already been enjoying themselves with their raunchy fun. Tongue continuing to dig and lap around at the vaginal walls. Eating their companion out, and listening to the moans that came out of Velvet's lips. Basking in the hot urine just above them, having it be a surprise for the grey unicorn! Yet, it was a delightful one, with the scent certain to stay on her head for weeks on end! Keeping them delightfully content within the diaper, while Velvet was savoring this blissful sensation. Experiencing relief from emptying her bladder, and being eaten out. Not having it in her for a second orgasm, though it was certainly spiking her arousal from the blissful moment. Bringing with it, a devious idea she'll have to do with Pip. Once she's emptied out her bladder of course. Not wanting to ruin this already ecstasy-filled moment, she continued to empty her bladder. Letting out the occasional moan, while her hoofs were pushing Pip's snout a bit further into the slimy folds. Wanting to make the most out of this blissful moment~

Having the bladder be filled towards the top, this blissful feeling would have lasted for what felt like a solid minute. With the stream staying strong for the most part, before inevitably dying down in a quick fashion. Changing a once heavy stream, into a few small dripples of urine coming out of the urethra. Splashing down on top of Pip's snout, as they had been taking a small breather. Breathing in the scent of heavy-sex, with it evoking an audible 'Aaah~' from the body-less unicorn. Telling of their enjoyment eating their cunt out. "Well that was a nice shower. Probably the best one I've ever h-had~" They spoke in a lustful tone. Panting lightly, feeling slightly exhausted from the fun they've had down below. Having the taste of Velvet's sex lingering in her maw, she'd lick around at her lips. Savoring the wonderful leftovers, but having the desire to have the rest of her body back. While it was fun and all to be nothing more than a head against Velvet's cunt, she still wanted to still freely move around the place. Something she couldn't easily do, being nothing more than a detached head stuck in a diaper. "Hehe, yeah... That was one of the best ways I've relieved myself...~" Velvet would let out a relieved sigh, taking a moment to catch her breath. Her arousal having surged through her body, she was still feeling ready for another round with Pip. Though she didn't want to be eaten out again. She wanted to be in control this time. Desiring to dominate that head inside of her cunt, it was going to be a slight bit difficult. Thankfully she had a few ways of improvising for situations like this. "Say... how do you feel about a second round~?"

“A second round? A-Aren’t you worn out from everything w-we’ve done?!?” Pip was shocked to hear of them possibly going another round. She knew Velvet had quite the sex-drive, but she didn’t anticipate them wanting to go for another round so soon! Unable to look at the unicorn for herself, she was seemingly talking to their cunt for now. Only able to see the fleshy interior, while the voice rang from somewhere up ahead. “Well of course! I do have something in mind, and I’m sure you’re going to love it. The best part is, you won’t even need your old body for me to have my fun~” Velvet explained, while she was starting to undo her diaper. She did have something in mind that was going to be fun for the both of them. It was going to be lewd, and incredibly raunchy to say the least. With a heavy amount of shit going to be used in their little fun. “It’ll be like you had your old body again, but it’s going to be a bit shittier, and smaller than you remember it being~” Further adding to her remarks, as the diaper was slipping down her hind-hoofs. Pulling Pip away from her nether regions, with their head soon falling back into the pile. Facing the top of the diaper, being given one last view of the nether regions before they vanished from sight. “W-What exactly do you mean by that? A-Are you able to get my body back now...?” She was morbidly curious on what they had possibly meant, with the curiosity only growing stronger once the diaper was being lifted into the air. Though it was oddly moving away from Velvet, having traveled off of the bed. Going maybe a few dozen feet away from it, before resting back on the floor. The magic soon vanishing away from the soiled fabric, leaving the diaper to be motionless. Sagging open to reveal at the mess inside, ready for Velvet to possibly mess around with.

“I personally can’t give you your old body. That’s entirely up to the twilight society to do.” Trying to give some clarification as to what she meant, Velvet was getting off of the bed. Wandering over towards the mess that was the diaper, looking face to face with the head trapped inside. “What I’m going to be giving you, can be described as a far shittier body. It’ll be good enough for me to fuck, but that’ll probably be it~” Dropping one last hint towards what was about to happen, before Velvet’s horn glowed with its magical aura. Having it now be grabbing a hold of the mass of shit lingering within the diaper, lifting it into the air! Evoking a surprised ‘eep!’ out of Pip, having fallen face-first on the diaper below. Having the leftover smeared shit break their fall, while the shit above was starting to transform. Mushed and grinded against one another, as they took the shape of one large blob at first. Confusing the body-less unicorn, having been able to watch from where she was. “W-What are you doing with your s-shit? A-Are you going to use it to help me move...?” She was honestly grasping at straws on what was happening. Having expected some way to move around, instead she was treated to Velvet playing around with their shit. Making it into a variety of shapes, as a form was starting to appear upon the shitty mess. “Oh don’t you worry about a thing. Just sit back and watch. I’ll be ready to show off my creation in just a moment~” Velvet sang in a sing-song voice. Clearly excited for what she was doing, and further confusing Pip on what was happening. Stuck to watch in a confusing awe, trying to figure out what exactly they were trying to make.

Slowly but surely, a body would have begun to take shape! Looking to have been a very raunchy-looking unicorn, that looked to be small in height. Looking to be perhaps half of Pip’s original height, if she could possibly compare herself to the shitty unicorn floating above her. “There we go! Made a lovely body out of your leftover remains~ It isn’t the best of forms, nor is it cleanest. Though it’ll be perfect for you to use for a bit~” Velvet praised the sculpted unicorn! Having it come to rest right beside Pip’s body, with its ‘face’ looking to be facing her. From the looks of it, the sculpture only went up to the neck, with it lacking a head of some sort. Pip didn’t need to think too hard to already know she was going to be placed on top of her ‘new body’. If she could even call it that. “S-So will I be able to move around w-with that...? A-Are you sure it’s going to work...?” Being heavily doubtful, and rightfully so! A part of her didn’t believe this was going to work, but there was this foolish hope inside of her mind. Thinking that perhaps there was something magical to this ‘remodeled’ body she could use. Sadly for Pip, those hopes would be shattered when Velvet picked her up with their powers. Having the two be temporarily staring each other face to face, as they slowly aligned them to the ‘neck’. “Not in the slightest! Though it’s certainly impressive I was able to make a miniature version of you, just from your remains. Guess you weren’t all that useful for my body, if a good half of it ended up as diaper filler~”

SQUISH, the wet sound filled the air, as Pip’s head was being pushed directly into the shitty neck. Feeling herself being pushed directly into the hot waste, having it cling onto her flesh like it was a part of her body. It was honestly disgusting, yet slightly arousing to the unicorn. Sadly her desire to be whole again, outweighed her lust. Simply staring at Velvet with slightly-annoyed eyes. “C-Can’t we do this later...? I’d l-like to get m-my body back soon!” Trying to stress how much she wanted her body back; she was greeted to a disheartening shake of Velvet’s head. Not willing to wait till later, desiring to fuck her much shittier body now! “Oh come on, you’re already perfectly set up for me to pound! You can handle a few minutes of your ass getting pounded. Especially now that you've been turned into a pile of hot shit, it's going to be a pleasure to fuck that ass of yours~" Desiring sex over possibly helping Pip, Velvet pushed upon the unicorn's head. Being gentle enough that it wouldn't destroy the entire statue she made, but being firm enough for her to push back against. Making sure they were going to stay in place, when she had at their ass. "Besides, I've been honestly curious to see how this'll feel. What better way to test it out, than with a unicorn I recently shat out~? You'll still be able to enjoy yourself, even if you are nothing more than a talking head~" Continuing on with the remarks, Velvet was grasping a hold of the strap-on nearby. Suiting herself once again, as she prepared for quite possibly the shittiest sex she's had in a while~

Walking over towards the rear end, it didn't take long for Velvet to be mounting Pip's much smaller form. Having her hind-legs right on top of theirs, while she rested her front-hooves around Pip's chest. Resting just below the unicorn's head, as she held on for support. Not pushing too hard in fears of possibly having the shit crumble, but being firm enough for her to position herself. Pushing the tip of the strap-on currently towards the puckered hole. The gaping donut, purposefully being large for her to ram into. "Oh I can tell this is going to be fun~" Being a mixture of mumbling to herself, and talking to Pip, she could feel the adrenaline rushing through her body. She hasn't even started fucking the shitty remains, but she could feel her dominant side already starting to show. Feeling the urge to fuck Pip until they're nothing more than a pile on the ground, it was becoming hard to resist bucking into the shit already! Grip slightly tightening, while a submissive whimper would slip out of Pip's lips. Having not been too excited about being fucked, especially with how much she wanted her body back. "C-Can you please be quick...? I want to b-be back to normal soon..." Their voice soft and submissive, unable to hide away her submissiveness to the black unicorn. Wishing she could possibly move this crap body of hers away from her aroused partner, and get some kind of help! Sadly however, she remained stuck in place. Unable to move herself, as she clung onto the crappy other-half of her body. Just hoping this would at least end soon...

"We'll be done when I say we're done! Now shut up and enjoy me fucking your shitty ass!" Velvet barked, before thrusting the member into the shitty bowels! Forcefully stretching the already gaping pucker a bit more, as Velvet pushed against Pip's ass. Smearing some shit against her crotch regions, but she didn't care. Overwhelm with her desire to dominate, she was already getting into a rhythm of heavy thrusts. Her grip tightening upon Pip's chest, lightly digging into the crap in the process. "How do you feel, my miniature cock-sleeve~? You enjoy how much I'm tearing away at your ass? I've always imagined it being this dirty, but now that's entirely true thanks to your trip inside of my ass~" Velvet's remarked, rocking the miniature-sculpture around as she pounded away at it. Smearing more shit against her body, while knocking a few pieces of it off of the sculpture. Already starting to fall to pieces within her grasp, she wasn't too pleased by its already deteriorating state. Not letting it get the best of her, she continued to pound away at the shitty ass, making another cruel remark. "Savor this moment while you can my little shit~ By the time I'm done with you, you'll be a pile of crap heaped all over the floor. There won't be any part of your body left!" The aggressively dominant remarks were enough to evoke a heavy blush upon Pip's face. While she couldn't feel too much of their bucking, she could certainly feel the crap starting to shake and move with each passing buck. Threatening to fall off if they weren't holding onto it. Cheeks burning a heavy crimson-red, being unable to not get aroused by her partner's vulgar tone. Without the ability to jack off, she was treated to an endless torment of teases. Wishing she could feel Velvet pounding away at her actual ass, but certainly loving this strangely delightful experience...~

On and on, the bucking would continue to dig its way into Pip's shitty mold. Riding off this dominant high she was entranced in, not even realizing the mold's deteriorating state. Having originally starting off as just bits and pieces, were soon turning into clumps. Exterior falling apart within her grasp, threatening to collapse over if she hadn't been firmly holding onto it. Even then, her front-hooves had been holding on too tightly. Squeezing at the molded crap, hooves sinking directly into the model. Further deteriorating the exterior of the crappy unicorn, crumbling at the seams at this point! The same could even be said for the interior. Having been taking quite the beating, with the synthetic horse cock having pushed against the shitty walls. Warping the interior, causing it to hollow out the interior. Weakening the inside, not being able to possibly support the upper-part of the mold. Tie it together with the already crumbling exterior, and it was only a matter of time before the mold would give way! Pip being the first to notice, as they fell off the crumbling mold with a loud eep! Unable to save herself from falling, she did safely land upon the pieces of crap that fell earlier. Giving the head somewhere to rest, while the rest of the mold came crashing around her! Having her supposed 'body' being destroyed by Velvet. Suffering the fate of not only being destroyed by the lustful unicorn not once, but twice. For Pip, the thought of that alone was already enough to make this session another delightful experience with her partner~

Though for Velvet, she wouldn't have been finished with what she had been doing! Heavily displeased that her cock-sleeve had been worn out, she'd result on the second-best thing. Pip. Still having a head she could possibly fuck; she was going to savor the last bit of domination! "Come back here you little shit. I wasn't done fucking that pitiful body of yours!" Speaking in a commanding tone, it didn't take long for her to see Pip faceplanted into a bit of shit. Their back-half being somewhat covered in the leftover horseapples, but she didn't care at that point. "There you are! You'll do just fine as my cock sleeve~" Explaining her motives in a cruel remark, further arousing Pip. Being absolutely speechless, as she was lifted into the air by Velvet's magic. Having anticipated a cock to be entering her mouth, she wouldn't have anticipated coming through her throat! Choking originally, as she felt the member being shoved into the wide-opening, she was helpless in this state! Choking on the synthetic shit-covered cock, as it crammed its way further up her throat. Smearing the interior with the wretched horse apples, as the member forced its way into her maw. Parting her lips, completely impaling herself on the strap-on! "Just because you have no body to fuck, doesn't mean you're un-fuckable. Now start swallowing my little cock-sleeve, I'm going to enjoy pounding at your throat~" Ordering Pip around the place, she didn't put up a fight against the unicorn's orders. Having a barely audible whimper escape her lips, before she started swallowing upon the member. Rubbing the lingering horseapples further upon her throat. Making this experience a pleasurable misery, while her throat was being bucked into. She didn't know how much more of this was left, but she was going to savor this lewd and rather raunchy experience~

Being pounded orally, the sensation would have lasted for minutes on end! Letting Pip enjoy the strange yet wonderful high of being given a reverse blow job. While Velvet had been able to run off that dominant high. Having it slowly start to fade into exhausting, with her body needing another break from the rough sex. "Huff... Huff..." Filled the air, as she tried to last for just a bit longer. Getting a few more bucks in, before finally bringing their crotch to rest. Taking in a few deep breaths, to finally speak again. "Heh.... Oh that was... one way to finish... our little fun...~" Having to take a few deep breaths just to speak, she was done for the day. Having her magic grab a hold of Pip's head, and slowly pushing them off of the shit-covered member. Finally bringing their head to rest on top of the remains of their shitty body. Giving the body-less unicorn the ability to finally breathe again, and speak without a cock in her mouth. "H-Heh.... I suppose it was f-fun...~" Playing a bit hard to get, it didn't take long for her to hear a smirk coming from Velvet. Already knowing she was lying about it, with her ready to remark. “Oh shush... I know you enjoyed being fucked silly~” Playfully sticking her tongue out, as she sat down in front of the giant mess she made. Thankfully, it was all on the wood, making it easier to clean up. “Besides, we’re going to have some more fun once we get your body back to normal. But first, we got to get you ready to travel~”

Sounding like they were going to be heading out, Pip was excited! A grin visible upon her face, as she slowly shifted herself against the nearby piles of crap. Expecting to be picked up by the unicorn. To which, she would be picked up, but not the way she had expected. Originally thinking she was going to be just going by herself, she didn’t anticipate the rest of the shit following along. Having most of it being lifted into the air, clumping it together into what looked to be one giant ball of manure. With Pip being the main star of the ball, getting to rest her head against the still-hot horseapples. “W-What exactly are you doing now...? I thought you were only going to take my h-head with you!” Exclaiming their shock, Pip was greeted to a playful giggle from Velvet. Taking amusement in their confusion, as she brought the ball of shit back over towards the open diaper. “Do you really think I’m just going to carry a head covered in shit around with me? I’ve got somewhere lovely to put you. Somewhere little shits like you belong~” As the sound of loud crinkling could be heard from just below Pip, already telling where she was going to end up. Filling the head with a mixture of shock, anger, and a bit of arousal from the raunchy location. Wanting to fight back against being tucked away in a diaper, though she knew she was still under Velvet’s control. There wasn’t much one can do when they’re just a head resting in a ball of crap. “I-I guess not...” She softly mumbled, accepting defeat as the diaper was being wrapped around them.

“Good~ Now relax like a good pile of crap, and stink up that diaper. I’ll be taking you to the twilight society. I’m sure they’ll be interested seeing you in your current state~” Tying up the diaper, Velvet walked it over towards the diaper pail. Carefully walking over the couple that had already fallen earlier, with her putting Pip on top of the pile. “Though a used diaper has no reason to be on my ass. That’s what the diaper pail is for. To join with the rest of the delightful prey that have gotten the pleasure of going through my bowels~” Wanting to hear the panicked cries of her partner, it didn’t take long for Pip to already be having a fit. Not wanting to be with the rest of the diapers, it wasn’t long till an audible ‘Hey, don’t do it!’ could be heard from the head. Being a mixture of a beg and a shout, not wanting to end up in a diaper pail. However, it was of no use! Being unable to control anything of their environment, Velvet was able to easily push down upon the diaper. Squishing the soiled fabric against Pip's face, and mushing them into the nearby pile of crap. Sinking deeper into the pail with the rest of the diapers, just enough for her to finally close the lid. "There we go! Now to just take this entire pail, and head off to the twilight society. They'll be in for quite the surprise for when they find you trapped in that diaper. Wasting with the rest of your remains~"

Turning around, Velvet grabbed a hold of the pail with her magic. Lifting it into the air, before starting to walk back over towards the elevator. Smirking to herself, as she listened to the yelling from within the diaper pail. Too muffled out for it to be understood, though knowing Pip was tucked away inside one of her diapers. Upset they have to spend the trip inside of a diaper pail. That's just the outcome when you decide to have some raunchy fun at the tenpony tower~
