

An accidental slip up

By Thatfriendlyguy

It would have been a cold Friday, with there being a heavy chill to the air. With the temperatures being just above freezing, it would have been a typical day for the winter season. Not being able to get snow just yet, everyone would have been continuing on with their daily lives. Mostly wearing some heavy clothing to help keep them warm for the day, or some remaining naked thanks to their fur keeping them warm. Being just cold enough to leave folks wanting snow to fall, but alas, it will have to be for another day. Till then, life would resume on like normal. With folks doing the daily activities that they usually attend to, on what was a mostly peaceful Friday evening. With one feathery gryphon going to be spending their Friday night, with a certain robotic pony that he knew of.

Going by the name of Gunny Feathers, though he was usually just called Gunny for short. Having decided to wear nothing since his grey feathers were able to keep him warm enough, he was walking down the street. Going through the suburbs of the city, he was mainly visiting his friend, Grease Pan. A unicorn that had a mostly robotic body. With their legs having been cybernetic. Standing at a massive nine feet tall, they were well over double his own height! Being at only four feet in height, though that didn't stop the two from being good friends. If anything, it probably made the dynamic between the two of them, rather interesting! With him being smaller in size to her, it has led to some 'interesting' experiences. With this trip certainly going to be an experience of its own! Fully intending to use that height difference towards his advantage, he wanted to have some sexual fun with the gigantic unicorn. What kind of sexual fun did he have in mind? No idea, he didn't think too far into it. He could always try to fuck his much larger companion, or he could be eaten alive by them. Both of which he's done multiple times in the past, with both being a wonderful experience. He wasn't in the mood for anything in particular. Other than to cure this sexual arousal he had been feeling earlier. Having already chatted with them before this visit, he would have been walking further down the street. Getting all too excited, and just a tiny bit aroused once he could see their house just a few more blocks down the road. He didn't know what kind of fun he was going to be signing himself up for, but he was looking forward to what lewd things may come out of it~

Taking what would have been another few moments, Gunny would eventually arrive just outside of his companion's house! Looking to be staring directly at the exterior house, with it looking to be a typical-brown color. With the blinds covering the windows, he wasn't able to see what was lingering inside. However, he could already tell there were probably a variety of high-tech stuff, scattered around the place. Mostly just screens and gadgets that Grease often kept lying around the house. If the town had let her mess around with the exterior of the building, he was certain it would have been covered in projects. Instead of being just another typical door, with a cute little welcome mat that had a few gears on it. Having them being actually functioning, with them being able to say 'Welcome' at the moment. However, if one was to turn the gears, it would say 'goodbye' for anyone that was leaving the house. It was a cute design, and something Grease had made themselves. With it currently to 'Welcome', he could only assume they were home at the moment. Now it was just time to knock on the door, and see if the unicorn is up to any lewd activities. "I wonder what kind of fun stuff we'll be doing together, Grease~" He was grumbling underneath his breath. Bringing a talon up towards the door, before loudly knocking on the door. Even going to hitting the small doorbell close by, to make sure they had heard he was here. "Hang on! I'll be there in just a moment!" A voice could have been heard from within, sounding like no other, than Grease herself, she sounded like she was in her bedroom by the sound of her voice. Doing who knows what, leaving him to sit and wait at the door. Already eager to see what kind of fun things the two can do together~

It would have been a bit, before the door would finally open. Revealing the cybernetic unicorn in all of her beauty! Standing at that massive nine-foot-tall size, with him having to look up just to see her! Where he'd be able to see their excited smile upon their face. Along with a diaper resting upon their rear end. Looking to have been clean this time around, with it looking freshly placed. Almost like the unicorn had recently put it on herself. "Gunny! It's a pleasure to see you again!" Her voice was bright and cheerful, clearly excited at seeing their companion. With it being further showed, by her firmly squeezing her front legs around Gunny's neck. Pushing him directly against her chest-area, lightly crushing him from the weight of her legs. It was a small issue with having cybernetic legs. Not realizing how strong one can be, especially when it came to physical affection. Even though she may be trying her best not to harm him, the gryphon was definitely experiencing slight crushing. Having to squirm around a bit, trying to break out of the unicorn's grasp. "I-It's nice to see you too. Though this h-hug is a bit too tight for me!" Speaking in a bit of a strained voice, he was finding it difficult to move around within her grasp! Hoping that he wouldn't end up getting crushed before the fun can even begin, he was thankfully spared from the crushing hug. With Grease lightly weakening their tightness upon his body, before inevitably releasing him from her tight hug. Quickly apologizing for the tight grip. "Hehe, sorry about that. I tend to forget how strong I am! Then again, I tend not to think of how heavy the machinery really use, when I'm wielding it. Though suppose we're not here to talk about work stuff, are we~?"

Hinting towards the main reason that Gunny was here, the gryphon was already grinning to himself. Having picked himself up off of the ground, he'd lightly shake himself off. Focusing back on the aroused thoughts he was having; he was quickly nodding his head. Grinning happily to himself, as he faced the robotic unicorn. “Y-Yes! It isn’t what I’m mainly here for. I’m sure you already know why~” Turning to face their rear end, he would have been given a view of their diaper. Seeing that it was in plush shape, it almost looked like it was just recently put on. He knew Grease loved to wear diapers, but he also knew they tended to do some diaper play on stream. Something he’s got to experience watching himself. “Did I end up catching you at a bad time? It looks like you’re about to do a stream. Or did you recently do one of those streams?” Trying to figure it out for himself, he wouldn’t have to wait for an answer for too long. With Grease instantly nodding her head. Having shaken her rear end a bit, with the diaper having been moving around with the sway of her body. Making a few crinkling noises, before finally coming to rest back on top of her rear. “Well no, I was recently doing one earlier! Had been wearing a diaper I had dirtied a few hours earlier, and was mainly messing around in it. I ended up switching it out, once you said you were coming here. Figured you wouldn’t want to be dealing with a dirty diaper, heh. I can take it off if you want, I probably have to, if you want to access any of my holes back there~” Giving another shake of her hips, mainly doing it to purposefully taunt the gryphon. Already well aware of their intentions, and their desire to have a bit of intimacy with her.

Of course, just being teased of their lewd fun, was enough to have Gunny’s member pushing itself further out of the sheathe. Standing at a halfway-erect state, he was already starting to slightly move around in place. Trying to possibly contain himself, even though he was far looking forward to possibly being able to have his fun with the unicorn. “I’d say you would have to. How else can I fuck that gorgeous ass of yours~?” He was quick to tease, with his arousal only growing further in size. Entering a little above halfway-erect, with it oozing a bit of pre in anticipation. However, with them still being out in the open, it probably wasn’t the best place for the two to start fucking one another. Trying to possibly get his mind off of sex, he would add onto his tease. “B-But besides that, how about we take this inside? I doubt your neighbors want to see me, pounding at your ass~” He was also trying to hide his members from anyone else possibly noticing. Thankfully for the two of them, it didn’t look like there was anyone else close by. And if there was, they were way off down the road. Unable to possibly see at his member, especially from how far away they were. “Of course! I know you’d rather prefer this to be more intimate and private anyways, so that’s fine by me.” Moving out of the way, she would have been holding the door open for him. Allowing for him to finally slip into the unicorn’s home, and possibly start their sexual fun in just a bit. “Come on in~ Feel free to crash on the couch at the moment. I’m a bit thirsty, so I’ll get myself a glass. Do you want one?”

Looking to have been thinking of him, Gunny was a bit happy to be offered a glass of water. With him nodding his head, before starting to walk into the house. “That would be lovely. Do you mind if the water is warm? With how cold it is outside; I don’t want to be dealing with anything else cold.” Walking into the house, he was instantly greeted to the warm temperatures of the room. Being a cozy warmth, it already had him reading directly towards the couch to crash nearby. Walking past what looked to be an orange projection that had some kind of gun being visible on it. However, the gun was incredibly fetishized. Looking more like a sex-toy, than an actual gun. “That’s perfectly fine. It’s already cold out as it is, so I can’t blame you.” Closing the door behind her, Grease was heading over towards the kitchen. Swiftly turning the water to hot, to help warm it up for the gryphon. Grasping at two medium-sized cups, before bringing it over towards the tap. Easily filling the two cups, with her going to mention. “Besides that, is there anything in particular that you’re looking to do today? Anal? Vaginal? Or are you going to eat me out back there~?” Still wearing the diaper, she would take it off when the time would come. However, she wanted to do something with the gryphon. Something that was going to be incredibly lewd, and might surprise them. However, it was going to be incredibly pleasurable for the both of them~ As for Gunny though, he would have been shaking their head. Having gone to sitting down upon the couch, watching the two cups being filled with the warm water. “Hmm, honestly, I don’t think I have any preference for today. Other than being able to dominate either of those holes... Do you have any preferences this time around...?”

Grease Pan would nod her head. Carrying the two drinks upon her back, as she retreated back over towards the living room. “Well I have been feeling up to having something inside of my cunt. Maybe you’d be willing to fuck me back there? Or perhaps go in there yourself~? Choice is entirely up to you~” It wasn’t like Gunny had much of an option, as she was going to be purposefully unbirthing him. Having a specific way to do it, she just had to get the gryphon to shrink down in size. Thankfully, she had grabbed a shrinking pill that she kept in the kitchen. Having placed it in her maw while she was waiting for the water to flow, she had to get it into their gullet. It was too big to be dropping it into their drink. So a small kiss would have to do it. With it being incredibly abrupt, she would at least put the glass onto the nearby table. Only to end up abruptly kissing the gryphon’s beak! Forcing her lips right on top of his, and causing a surprised ‘Squawk!’ to slip past Gunny’s lips. Before he inevitably ended up pushing back into the kiss. Thinking she was just doing it to start the intimacy, it had everything already going according to plan. With her now having to move on with it, she was able to push her tongue into the partially-open beak. Forcing it open, with no objections from the gryphon. Making it easier for her tongue to be quickly pushing itself over his. Tilting it at just the angle, that the pill would slide its way off of her tongue. Ending up sliding directly into the esophagus, with a noisy GLURRK being heard shortly afterwards. Gunny instinctively swallowing out of pure instinct, though he was instantly pulling away, once he felt something slide down his throat. Not knowing what it could be, he looked at her with a bit of a puzzled look. Trying to figure out what that was all about. “What did I just swallow? Did you have something inside of your mouth...?”

It was clear she had been found, but Grease knew how to spin this around. Make it look like it was just an accident, with her going to make something up. Not denying that they had pushed something into his mouth, she would play it off as purely accidental. I was just eating a candy bar earlier, while I was waiting for the water to heat up. I guess you just ate the piece I ended up chewing off of the main bar. Lucky gryphon~” Playing it off in a jokingly manner, she would grasp a hold of one of the nearby cups. Bringing it over towards the gryphon, offering it for them to drink. “You may want to possibly swallow some water down along with it. I would hate to see you choking on a piece of chocolate. Would definitely make for an interesting story to tell your friends, if you did!” She wasn’t trying to be too pushy, but she did want to make sure that the pill had gone down. With the cup being held just in front of Gunny’s face, it was only a matter of time before he’d take a hold of the cup. Opening his beak, before taking what looked to be a few swallows of the warm fluids. Making sure that if the pill hadn’t gone down, it was certainly going to be heading down now. Letting out an audible ‘Aaah~’ once he finished the glass, before setting it back onto the table. “Well next time, do try to swallow the candy down. It would be terrible if I’m trying to get intimate with you, only to be choking on some piece of your treat...” Grumbling out loud, he sounded completely oblivious to the fact he had just swallowed down a pill. Having Grease’s grin only grow wider, as it was only a waiting game at this point. Waiting for the gryphon to now shrink down in size, and have her fun with her horny companion~

Going along with the conversation, Gunny did look to have just been relaxing on the couch. Looking to have been mainly focusing on his companion, with his eyes focused upon the unicorn, he went off to mention. “Besides that, shouldn’t we possibly have our fun in the bedroom? Or did you possibly want to try doing it out here? I don’t think I have any preference on where we are. As long as I can have my fun with your cunt, I don’t have any issues here~” Having gone to lying upon his back, he was exposing his lower-half to the unicorn. His shaft, hanging out in the open. Having been at a mostly-erect state, there was a bit of pre oozing out of the urethra. Self-lubricating the member, as it waited to possibly have his fun with the unicorn. Yet, he was completely unaware of what was really happening. With the pill having been digested and absorbed into his body, it would have him figure already starting to shrink down in size. With it being unnoticeable at first, with him shrinking only a few inches, every few seconds or so. Tie that along with the fact he was inside of a house, that was far larger than he was, and he was none the wiser. Killing time by talking, while he unknowingly shrunk further in size. “Well I do think that doing it in the bedroom, would probably be most preferred. I know I have my phone set up in there, for when I was streaming. It’s out of the way though. Resting near the front of the bed, it wouldn’t bother us in the slightest. We can even have the stream off, if you’re not a big fan of fucking on camera.”

As for Grease, she was happily watching the shrinking process, happening in front of her eyes! While Gunny may not have been able to notice, the unicorn certainly was. Having watched them already dropping by a foot, they were continuing to shrink down in size. Showing no signs of stopping, with the gryphon continuing to be blissfully unaware of what was happening. This was temporary of course, with the gryphon going to be back to normal in a few hours. Or in their case, it was going to be after she's churned them into her load of femmy juices. Having to buy just a little bit more time for herself, she'd listen on to Gunny responding to her question. Speaking in a bit of a smug tone, with him mentioning. "Heh, what. You think that I'm just going to scare away all your viewers, when I fuck your cunt? Or are you trying to say that I'd be too ugly to have on the stream~?" Playing it off in a jokingly manner, not taking it too seriously. Still unaware of their current shrinking size, or at least not picking on it just yet. Slightly moving around, looking almost as if they were slightly uncomfortable from where he was. "Hmm, is this couch a bit worn out? I'm starting to feel a bit uncomfortable in it." He grumbled; his eyes still focused upon Grease. Slightly squirming around within the cushioned couch, attempting to possibly get back into a comfortable position. Slightly getting on Grease's fears, that they might recognize what was happening. Having to try and work around it, she decided to make up a lie. Nodding her head, she'd go on to mention. "It might be a bit worn from me having been lying on it. You know how that stuff goes, when it comes to having these robotics legs of mine. Hehe~" She'd do a little shake of both her forelegs. Purposefully showing them off, making sure their attention was focused upon her.

Luckily, it looked like she was able to keep the gryphon's attention. With him chuckling at her remark, and having his attention being shifted over towards her legs. "Heh, yeah. I suppose that would make sense. With how this couch is cushioned, I'm surprised that you didn't end up destroying it yet!" Still blissfully unaware of what is happening, with them now being reduced down to half of his original height. She would have to keep this conversation interesting, if she wanted them to remain blissfully unaware of what was happening. Trying to keep the conversation on going, she did go to jokingly mention. "I should ask, do you need some time to warm up? I'm sure with how cold it is lately, that walk has left you desiring to relish in the warmth for a bit." Switching subjects around, she had the gryphon looking back over towards her. The shrinking process looking like it was slowing down, perhaps finalizing Gunny's height, which wouldn't be too bad. Being at around a foot and a half at this point, and still partially shrinking down. "Heh, I'm always warm! You really think some cold weather is going to bother me? Please, I've dealt with far worse than that weather~" With Gunny acting like their cocky self, they chuckled to themselves. Having found their remark to be rather amusing, with his attention being focused on the unicorn. Though it was around that time, when he would begin to notice that something was wrong. There was something strange about the environment around him. Almost like it seemed bigger for some reason, or perhaps he was getting smaller. He knew that the house was designed for someone bigger than him. However, he was starting to feel a bit smaller than normal! “H-Hey um... did something change...? I don’t think I remember you being this tall. Or did you perhaps grow or something...?”

It was clear that she wasn’t able to keep up the charades for much longer. However, with the shrinking already being mostly done at this point, why should she even bother? Having her playful face, turn into more of a mischievous grin, with her nodding her head towards the gryphon’s remarks. “You could say that~ Maybe you remember me being far shorter than you remember. Or perhaps, maybe you’ve shrunken down in size. I know that gryphons are quite small after all. Especially compared to large unicorns such as myself~” Taunting the cocky gryphon, it wasn’t long afterwards for Gunny to be quickly looking around at their surroundings. Before eventually turning to look at his body, and realizing what had happened. He had been shrunken down in size! Reduced from his mighty four-foot-tall height, to a mere foot in height! With the shrinking having finished up at this point, he was stuck at this height. A fraction of his current height, resting in front of a large and lustful unicorn. “W-What...? W-Wait a second... You gave me a shrinking pill, didn’t you!?! Was that the thing I felt going down my throat? Or did you spike my water with something...?” It could have been either or, though he was feeling like it was most-likely the foreign object he swallowed. Whatever it was, it didn’t stop the fact that he had been shrunken down in size. Looking like a delicious snack, to the towering unicorn. Having seen the shrinking pill having come to a complete stop, was about to finally make her move on her little toy. “Perhaps I did. What I do know is that I’m feeling a bit hungry still, and I can go for something to snack on~” Grease remarked, before bringing her head down upon the couch cushion. Maw parting right in front of the gryphon. Revealing at the hot and slimy interior, ready for the micro to climb their way inside~

As to be expected, Gunny was incredibly hesitant towards possibly doing this! With them attempting to back away from the mouth, only to end up running directly into the couch cushion. Having nowhere to go, and a mouth resting close beside him, it didn’t seem like things were looking out well for him. “H-Hey! I thought we were going to have me being shoved into your cunt. I didn’t sign up to end up as just some snack for you!” Trying to possibly fight back against the giant unicorn, he was pushing himself against the cushioning. Trying to stay as far away as he could away from the mouth, while it remained completely wide open. Exposing the hot fleshy interior, with the hot breathing easily coming down on top of him. Strands of drool could easily be seen, with it clinging to the tongue. Ready to be broken, once he slips inside. While it wasn’t the first time he’s been eaten orally by the unicorn, it wasn’t exactly what he had in mind! “No, we’re still doing that!” Grease was quick to mention, with her mouth quickly coming to a close. Having her to be directly looking over at the gryphon. A bit of an annoyed look on her face, as she stuck her tongue out towards Gunny. “I do intend on still stuffing you inside of my womb. However, I need to lubricate your body! What better of way of doing it, than by using my maw? It's natural, and it'll make you incredibly slimy! Not to mention you'll taste being pushed against my taste buds~" Already salivating at the thought, drool was slipping out of the unicorn's slightly-parted lips. Having it come oozing down her face, before crashing down onto the ground below. Clearly someone was hungry for gryphon at the moment~

"A-Are you sure that you won't swallow me whole...? It looks like you're a-already anticipating me going in there..." He wasn't afraid of going inside of Grease's maw. What concerned him, was how easy it would be to fall to the back of the throat. Forced to endure a gurgling demise, instead of the sweet and blissful feeling of becoming her next orgasm. H was completely justified in it, and he was certain they were aware of that. Leading to what looked to be a new approach to her tactics. Having Grease's lips part once again, only to have the tongue slither its way out. Resting out of the mouth, looking just long enough for the gryphon to easily climb onto. "because I'm not going to be tossing you around that crazily! The most I'm going to do, is slosh you around inside of my mouth. But first, I'm going to let you get off on my tongue. Just to help satisfy that arousal of yours~" With things turning back to being sexual, Gunny was slightly convinced by the unicorn's words. Still slightly nervous though, he would have been taking a few steps closer towards the tongue. Not daring to climb on it just yet, but being close enough to feel the heat coming from the muscle. With it already being slimy and squishy, it would act like a perfect fleshlight for his member! The only issue would be convincing himself to get on that tongue. With his cock already at a fully-erect state, it had him staring at it with lustful thoughts. Imaging what it would be like, to be fucking the tongue. "D-Do you promise that? That you won't swallow me alive...? I may be willing to get off on your tongue, but I still want to go in that cunt of yours!"

Wanting to make sure that he wasn't going to accidentally be swallowed, there was a small bit of relief upon seeing Grease nodding her head. Agreeing to his requests, with her going to reassure the gryphon. "If it helps, I'll keep you mostly in front of the tongue. You won't be anywhere near my throat, so you won't accidentally be swallowed. Worst case scenario that you do, I'll regurgitate you back out." Speaking in what was a calm and gentle voice, Grease knew being hostile would not end well. Having to speak a bit weirdly due to her tongue being outside of her mouth, the message was still mostly understandable. With her fully intending to keep him safe, she didn't want to swallow the gryphon down. After all, there were far more enjoyable ways to engulf their body, instead of sending them down her gullet. It seemed that her words would also have a positive impact on Gunny. Having him letting out one long sigh, looking to be giving in to her devious intentions. "Alright... But do try to keep me in the front of your mouth! I don't want to be anywhere near it. Especially when there are few lewder places to be~" With the power of his lust, overcoming his fears, the gryphon was walking onto the unicorn's tongue. Looking to have easily gotten his entire body on top of the pink muscle, before starting to lay down upon his stomach. Gripping at the tongue with his front-talons, while his hind-feet wrapped around the tip of the tongue to the best of his ability. His cock firmly pressing against the unicorn's tastebuds, already giving them a small taste of his flowing pre. "Other than that. I- I'm ready to go inside of your mouth... Just remember not to swallow me!" Stressing the importance of not wanting to be eaten, Gunny was ready for his time inside of his companion's mouth! Hoping that he won't accidentally take a trip down to her stomach, while he enjoys himself.

"Of course. You can consider yourself safe with me! I'd much rather have you slipping into my cunt, instead of taking a trip down into my stomach~" Parting her lips once again, Grease was carefully lifting her tongue into the air. Bringing it back to the cozy interior of the maw, with the tongue resting at its normal resting spot. She was going to let her companion get off first, before she toys around with him. Already being able to feel his member being grinded against her tastebuds, she couldn't resist murmuring in approval from the musky flavoring of the member. Having to resist the urge to start licking at Gunny's body, while they were bucking against her taste buds. Already trying to get off, with her being able to taste their lustful efforts. 'hehe. Get off as best as you can. I'll be having my fun with you, in just a bit' Talking to herself, she was picking herself up from the ground. A bit disappointed that she would have to be taking off the diaper off for a little bit, mainly since she loved having them around. However, she had some different 'clothes' she wants to try out with the gryphon. Clothing that was going to help push them directly against her womanhood, and have the two of them enjoy themselves for a bit. Before she inevitably pushes the gryphon into her womb, to churn away into her next orgasm. Just the thought of that alone, was already getting her slightly aroused at the thought. Being eager to possibly get ready for their lewd fun, she would begin to slowly walk her way back over towards the bedroom. Keeping her head mostly still, and her tongue staying in its resting place for the most part. Allowing for her feathery friend to use her tongue as his personal fleshlight.

As for the gryphon himself, Gunny was enjoying himself! Happily bucking against the slimy tongue, with his member digging itself against the hot flesh. Already throbbing heavily from the wonderful stimulation, he could already tell he wasn't going to be lasting too long. With his climax on the horizon, he tried riding off the wave of sweet ecstasy his mind was enduring. To be filled with this pleasurable thrust, while his tongue was being drenched in the unicorn's saliva. The interior of the mouth, wasn't too horrible. After getting over his fear of being accidentally eaten, he was pleasuring himself against the wet muscle. Grinding the member with each buck, while his talons clung firmly onto the pink muscle. It was a bit challenging to keep a firm grasp on the muscle, but he was doing a decent enough job to be remaining on top. Going along with the tongue's movements, as it moved up and down with each step Grease took. While they may have tried to possibly stay motionless, it was almost impossible for her. With the tongue instinctively moving up and down with the movements of the gryphon's thrusting, not that it was bothering Gunny in the slightest. Managing to work in unison with the tongue's movements, bouncing the member along with each twitch of the tongue. "F-Fuck! Why does it feel so good fucking your tongue!?! It feels like one giant fleshlight~!" He shouted into the fleshy interior. Having his voice bounce around him, while the strands of drool were clinging onto his body. Being already so close to climaxing, he tried his best to finish off what he had started! Pushing his body as hard as he could, only to be suddenly stopped by the loud giggling from the unicorn. Followed by the sudden movement of the tongue, as it bounced around within its resting spot. Forcing Gunny to hold on for dear life, while his member was pushed against the tongue. "H-Hey! D-Don't laugh! It's making it hard to jack off in here!"

He should have kept his mouth shut, as more playful giggling would have erupted out of Grease's throat! Causing the area to bounce and shake around within the warm interior, with the unicorn's lower jaw moving from her giggling. Forcing Gunny to hold on as tight as he could upon the tongue! Talons sinking into the hot flesh, as he was bounced around. Lifted slightly into the air, before being abruptly slammed against the tongue. Quickly draining him of his energy, and weakening his defenses against the unicorn's laughing. He could also feel the tongue constantly grinding itself against his member. Not sparing a moment from his lustful desire to climax, as the slimy tastebuds were grinded against his member. Edging him near the peak, but not pushing him over the edge. Being just close enough he could possibly finish it off, assuming he could possibly focus enough to climax! "A-Augh! Stop laughing! I can't get off while you're constantly giggling out there!" He tried his best to reason with her, only to be greeted with more laughter. The tongue continuing to bounce itself underneath him, showing no signs of possibly stopping. It was perhaps best to reach that climax, before he ends up slipping somewhere, he doesn't belong! With eyes being closed, he was pulling himself on top of the member. Attempting to stay right on top of the hot flesh, while his crotch was grinding down against the wet muscle. Not bothering to thrust into the warm flesh, with it grinding the throbbing member. Pre heavily flowing out of the urethra, with the member just moments away from climaxing! All he needed, was just a bit more. To hold out for just a bit longer, with the tongue helping to inch him closer towards that blissful peak. He could only hope that he ends up finishing on her tongue, before he possibly takes a trip down into her gut!

Having to endure what was just a few more seconds of constant movement, Gunny would eventually find his peak! Letting out one loud and blissful squawk, he'd finally blow his load. Splattering it against Grease's tastebuds, spreading the musky flavoring for her to enjoy. Easily wearing the gryphon out, as his grip loosened upon the tongue. Unable to hold on as tightly as he could, causing him to slightly move around upon the wet muscle. Not enough to possibly push him to the back of the throat, but having his load being splattered against the tongue. It would have also been making a mess of himself too! Covering his fur in a mixture of saliva and spunk, he would have been an absolute mess. A mess, that at least got to reach a climax! Now being able to bask in the wonderful ecstasy of the moment, while the loud giggling finally having come to a stop. In fact, the rest of Grease's body had come to a stop, but Gunny was too lost in his ecstasy to notice. Heavily panting, as he rested his head against the warm muscle. Getting what felt like a few ropes of spunk out, before having his load dying down. To no surprise, it only made a bit of a mess within the unicorn's mouth. Being small enough that he could fit within the cramped maw, he wasn't able to cause too much of a mess. The same couldn't be said for his body though. Drenched in drool, and feeling sticky from staying inside of the slimy maw. He needed a shower, but not of the warm kind. Still desiring to be able to mess around with Grease's cunt, he would rest idly upon the tongue. Heavily breathing, as he tried to catch his breath from such a blissful load. He was able to blow his load, now he just hoped that he was going to be getting out of the mouth soon...

Sadly that didn't look like that was going to be happening! While he may have been given a chance to relax from his blissful peak, he would be abruptly pushed against one of the nearby cheeks. Mushed by the slimy tongue, being unable to possibly move away from the slimy muscle. "H-Hey what are you doing! I thought you said you'd let me j-jack off in here!" He'd try his best to possibly argue with the larger unicorn. Pushing back against the tongue to the best of his ability, however he was far too weak. Having just recently blown his load, he was drained from most of his energy. Sapped away in the form of a blissful climax, with it being smeared against his body! Making a further mess of his body, with his feathers being ruffled up. His fur being matted together. Becoming more of a mess, than he already was. All while the sound of loud giggling could have been heard from the unicorn. Clearly amused at his current state, with the laughter causing the area to bounce around. Adding onto the constant pushing from the tongue, and it wouldn't make for the most pleasurable of experiences. "Oh shush~ You already came, it's my turn~" As the tongue continued to grind itself against his body, it would have been accompanied by some loud murmurs of approval that came from the unicorn. "Mmm~ Tasty gryphon~" She taunted the gryphon, playfully teasing him of his current location, and not exactly helping Gunny. If anything, it had him a bit terrified at the idea he was just tricked! Kicking in a fight-or-flight response, with the adrenaline rushing into his body. Hitting him with a wave of energy, and having him pushing back against the tongue! Using as much effort as he could, to possibly break away from the cheek! "I-I'm not food! You said I w-wouldn't!"

Pushing with enough force, the tongue would eventually give way! Finally backing away, as it fell flat to its original resting place. Giving Gunny a moment to breathe, only for it to be ruined by Grease tilting her head. However, instead of it being backwards like he had feared, he was tilted to the other side! Crossing against the rows of teeth, and the slimy tongue that kept taunting him, before being mushed against the other cheek. Landing against it with an audible squish, with a bit of drool being put on top of his head. Of course, it wasn't long after till he'd hear the audible giggling from the unicorn. Causing their head to shake around once again, with him being rocked back and forth against the warm flesh. "Hehe, oh I never said you were food! I'm not done tasting you. Just a bit more, and then I'm done. I promise~" Grease spoke in a tauntingly playful tone, with their tongue rising once again. Sparing the gryphon no mercy, it would lunge itself towards his side! Quickly lapping away against his body, covering him in another layer of hot saliva. While he wasn't being eaten like he had feared, this wasn't any better. Still stuck inside of the unicorn's maw, being licked and cleaned by their gluttonous tongue. He swore if he was any smaller, she'd purposefully push him closer towards the gullet. However, just trying to endure this slimy torment, he clung to the nearby walls. Shuddering with each lick against his side, feeling himself growing heavier with each passing moment. He hoped that this would finish up soon, before she decides to end up making him a meal!

Thankfully for Gunny's sake, he would finally be able to escape from the mouth! Having to endure it for another minute longer, before Grease spat him out. Freefalling for what felt like a few seconds, before landing on what looked to be Grease's bed. With the soft cushioning of the blankets, helping to give him a safe landing. "Hehe, there we go! All nice and lubricated~ Now we just need to put on some of these lovely undergarments, and I'll be having you pushed directly against my cunt~" Grease teased, having already stripped herself of her naked. She had a few sets of undergarments she had. Ranging from a nice pair of panties she had found, a thong, and a bikini bottom that she had pulled out from one of her drawers. Perfectly ready for the unicorn to wear. With it covering enough room, to make sure a certain saliva-covered gryphon wouldn't fall out so easily~ "A-Augh... Did you really have to keep me in there for so long...? It was dreadful in there!" Gunny could have been heard, with him having gone to wiping away the heavy excess saliva currently clinging to his body. Having been drenched in drool, he felt far heavier than he was before. All thanks to the saliva clinging onto his body, he did try his best to get some of it off. With the heavy fluids slowly starting to come off of his body, not all would end up easily slipping off. With a good majority being stuck to his fur, it was going to take a long shower if he wanted to be free from it. The best he might get, is a bath of femmy juices, but that wasn't going to help get rid of the heavy strands of drool. "I s-seriously thought you were going to eat me at some point! You were really enjoying my taste in there! I know y-you tend to usually enjoy it, b-but still! I didn't want to go down your throat this time!"

His annoyed groans, were only answered with playful giggles from the unicorn. "Oh shush. You should know that I wasn't going to gobble you down. You're far more enjoyable to have at my rear, than you are in my stomach. Why would I ever gobble you down, when there's something far more enjoyable instead~?" Looking to have been picking up what looked to be a pink pair of panties. Having them being large enough to cover up most of her body, it was going to be a starting point for what she had in mind with the gryphon. Bringing them in front of the micro, she'd show off the opening. Having it be at just the right angle, making it easy for Gunny to possibly walk inside. "Anyways, how about you go ahead and slip your way inside of these panties of mine? I would love to try walking around with them, while you're being pushed against my nether lips~ It should be tight enough that you'll be easily squished against my womanhood. So you should be able to do whatever you so desire, if you have the energy to possibly do such a thing~ Hehe~" Already knowing well ahead she had drained a good portion of his energy, she kept her underwear top completely open. Ready for the small gryphon to slip inside, which they would have been happily inching themselves towards. Having already grasped a hold of the pink undies, as he stared directly inside. With there being plenty of fabric to catch him, he didn't have to worry about accidentally falling back out. Not to mention Grease would probably push him back inside, if such a thing was to ever happen. "Oh come on, are you seriously doubting me? I may be small, but I still have enough energy to taunt that cunt of yours!" He was quick to retaliate from the unicorn's comment. Huffing a bit to himself, before taking the first few steps into the unicorn's panties. Heading directly to the base of it, already fantasizing of being pushed against Grease's lovely womanhood~

Having made his way completely into the panties, it wasn't long till Gunny was relaxing within the underwear. His back relaxing against the fabric, with it being a bit cold against his body. However, it was to be expected. Especially after having spent some time inside of Grease's humid mouth. Still drenched in saliva, he'd relax against the interior. Looking forward to finally being pushed towards his destination. "Besides that, how about you go ahead and put these pair of panties on you already? I'm looking forward to being mushed against your cunt, and getting a taste of that musky area again~" Even though he recently blew his load, it wasn't stopping his arousal from growing again. With his member entering a halfway-erect state, it lightly throbbed in excitement. A mixture of pre and leftover cum oozed its way out of the urethra. Making a mess of his member, while he was looking forward to his personal fun. Not having to wait much longer, with Grease already picking up the pair of panties. Lifting them into the air, with her hind-legs being already up. Ready to have her legs slide through the leg-holes in the panties. "Oh I'm getting there, just you be patient. I was letting you rest, before we had our fun here. You know, try to recover from that climax of yours. I know you had gotten off on my tongue, and it was quite delicious~ I figured you'd like a small break after that. At least enough to get your energy back." With the panties slipping between the two legs, it was only a matter of time till it would be perfectly placed upon her rear end. Looking to have been covering the top of her ass, with it covering most of her behind. The leg-sockets, having been filled with her body. And having a certain small gryphon, being pushed against her nether lips. Finally getting the reward he had been cherishing~

And as for the lucky gryphon, he was finally getting what he had desired. At long last, he was on top of the nether lips! That sweet equine pussy, having it standing directly in front of him. Already having been wet, from the lewd thoughts the unicorn had been experiencing. Making for a squishy surprise, once Gunny stroked his talons along against the slimy interior. Massaging his yellow talons against the pink flesh, as he stared into the slightly-parted interior. “Hehe, someone’s wet back here. Is this from me being back here, or have you just been eager to have me tucked away in your panties~?” Playing it off in a jokingly manner, he’d push his beak against the sweet womanhood. Breathing in the scent of musk, and a bit of natural body odor that came from the interior. It kind of smelled a bit fishy, but that didn’t bother the gryphon in the slightest. Having just been excited to be against Grease’s nether lips, he was taking the moment to stroke around against the slight inner-flesh of the vagina. Not daring to dive too deep just yet, with his talons purposefully taunting the large unicorn. Eliciting a small shudder to go through her body, along with getting the unicorn to stutter over her own words. “W-Well I c-couldn’t help but imagine you being back there earlier... J-Just imaging your s-saliva body interior, stroking against my v-vaginal walls. How can I N-NOT be aroused by that~?” With the nether regions growing wetter by the moment, it was just giving more for the tiny gryphon to play around in. Having just laughed at his companion’s words, with his talons stroking around at the inner-flesh. Massaging the squishy interior, while his hind-paws stroked just outside of the nether lips. Stroking the sensitive regions, to further tease the larger unicorn. “Oh shush, I haven’t even gotten in there yet, and you’re already aroused. I’m sure if I hit just the right spot, I could make you climax~”

Yet, this wasn’t the only thing that Grease had planned for her little micro companion. Far from it honestly! Having already gotten the panties on her body, now it was time to walk around on them! Test how they feel on her rear, with her companion resting inside of her panties. “Perhaps! But when can you do that, when you’re busy bouncing around back there~?” Not giving them any time to figure out what that could possibly mean, she’d abruptly stand up onto her feet! Standing back up onto her feet, and having her companion being abruptly pushed against her nether lips. Evoking a pleased moan, with her body entering a tense state. Stopping the gryphon from sinking too far inside of her cunt, with only their head and chest having slipped through the nether passageway. Squished around against the slimy flesh, and causing a few light squirms against the vaginal walls. Further stimulating Grease’s body, making it a bit difficult to move around! With each step that she did take, was already sending shivers down her body. Her nether regions growing wetter by the moment, but she wasn’t going to be climaxing that easily. Letting out a loud huff, as she tried to take in a few deep breaths. Slowly walking around the bed, mainly trying to avoid hitting the phone she had set up from earlier. Savoring the sweet sensation of having her companion being temporarily lodged against her nether lips. “Hehe, so how’s this for eating me out~? You’ve got plenty of me to eat out, not to mention you won’t be slipping out any time soon~ And with the other two things I'd like to try on. They're going to make sure you won't accidentally slip out of my cunt, any time soon~"

As for within the undies, Gunny was honestly enjoying himself! Having originally been caught off guard from the unicorn having been moving around outside, it had him currently lodged inside of her cunt. Unable to move himself out of it, with her constant moving leading to uneven ground for him to possibly pull away. Not that he would desire to do such a thing, when he had sweet such nether lips right in front of him! Greeted to the delightful sight of the vaginal walls right in front of him, he was basking in the sweet moment. Eagerly nuzzling his head into the nearby walls, with his tongue daring to push itself out of his beak. Lapping away at the fleshy interior, getting a taste for its musky flavoring against his tongue. Reeking of the natural body odor, with it being slimy against his tongue. He would even say it was soaked at this point, with the unicorn clearly enjoying themselves. With that being further confirmed by a blissful moan from Grease herself! Looking to have been clearly enjoying his tongue against her sensitive walls. "Heh, are you sure about that~? With how much you're enjoying yourself so far. I wouldn't be surprised if I can get you to cum already~" He was playfully teasing, with his talons having been grinding along against the slimy interior. Going much further than it was earlier, as it massaged around at the warm flesh. He could slightly feel the walls firmly grinding down upon his talons. Squeezing them, and trying to pull them forwards. As if lustfully desiring to have them being dragged the rest of the way inside of her womanhood, to further pleasure her into a blissful climax. He was more than happy to do it, but not yet. He wanted to get a bit of revenge over his unicorn companion, especially since he had used him as a personal candy to suck on!

As for Grease herself, she had been already struggling not to reach an orgasm already! Having already been finding it hard to walk around, the gryphon certainly knew what he was doing. Not that she should be surprised in the slightest, considering how many times he's been at her cunt. However, she didn't expect a peak so soon! Having to already try rushing on a new set of clothing, she'd flop herself onto her bed. Bouncing upon the cushioned comforter, and caused her little companion to be shaken around within her cunt! Slightly submerging him further into her sensitive regions, and causing yet another small shudder to go through her body. 'F-Fuck! I didn't mean for that to happen...' Talking to herself, she was already starting to strip off her underwear. Being able to easily push it off with one of her front hooves, before having her hind legs squirming around in place. Slowly working it off of her body, and getting it to be resting near her hind hooves. Luckily Gunny wasn't slipping out so easily. Having already been firmly lodged inside of the pussy, the additional few inches deeper, helped to secure himself inside. Looking to have been up to their stomach, it would have made for quite an amusing sight. "Hehe, I'm not going to ruin our fun that quickly~ I mean, why would I? I still got some other things that I want to try on, before I eventually tuck you away for good. So don't go in there too far, I don't want to reach two peaks, because of how deep you are in there~" Playing it off in a calm yet teasing manner, she was getting the pink underwear off of her body. Tossing it to the floor nearby, and having her eyes being focused upon her thong close by. Seemingly the next lovely piece of clothing, she was going to try out~

Unlike her panties, the thong would have been a pitch-black. Having been recently clean, it was just waiting for the unicorn to put on. "Hope you're ready for another fabric pushing against you. Going to see how you are against my thong~" Grease playfully remarked, before grasping a hold of the thong. Lightly stretching them with her front hooves, before carefully putting it upon herself. Slipping right upon her hindlegs, with them being sent up to her rear. Being a bit smaller than her panties, they wouldn't be giving as much room for the gryphon to move around. Not that moving around was all that possible for them at the moment, being halfway lodged inside of her cunt. With it most likely going to act as support for the gryphon's hindlegs, more than anything else. As for the little creature, she wasn't getting any complaints out of them. Other than a few light squirms as the thong was being put upon her rear. Sitting firmly upon her body, with the black fabric covering up both of her holes. Snapping on tightly, giving very little room to possibly move around within the fabric. Helping to make sure that her little companion, wouldn't be slipping out so easily. "Aaaah~ It feels quite lovely having you back there. I might have to carry you around the place like this. Just going to work, or doing things around the house. Being stimulated by a lovely gryphon, as they eat my cunt out~" Playfully teasing his companion, with a hoof lightly stroking against the small bulge Gunny left behind. Shuddering once her hoof brushed against their figure. Lightly sinking them deeper inside, and evoking a few light squirms from the gryphon inside. Sinking deeper into their destination, and helping to inch Grease closer towards her orgasm. If she wasn't careful, she might reach her peak, before she could anticipate it!

"Heh, totally. Just having me constantly stuffed inside of whatever you're wearing. Eating you out, and drinking your orgasms. What a lovely experience~" He played it off in a jokingly manner, with his head resting along against the interior walls. Having been pushed into the nether lips, he had half of his body being tucked away at this point. With his stomach resting just at the entrance, it had his upper-half to be resting against the squishy interior. Massaging around at the slimy insides, feeling just how wet they were against his grasp. To no surprise, he could tell Grease was already getting close towards an orgasm. With her regions having been soaked at this point, he could tell she was trying her best to hold back. To possibly avoid blowing her load so soon, and enjoy having him tucked away inside of her. Nor did he want this fun to end so soon, with him savoring each moment he was against the nether lips. Massaging at the warm flesh, with his tongue occasionally giving a few licks at the fleshy walls. Tasting the heavy musk, growing stronger with each passing moment. Stars it was overwhelming. Being all he could possibly breathe in at the moment, it was spiking his own arousal. Bringing his halfway-erect member, into a fully-erect state! Hanging proud and tall, with the very tip stroking along against the womanhood. Stroking around at the inner-flesh of the vaginal opening. Purposefully taunting the unicorn, in return for receiving a bit of pleasure for himself. “Keep pushing me inside of your cunt, and I just might have to start fucking you again. Especially with how close my member is to your cunt~” Firmly grasping a hold of the vaginal lining with his talons, he’d evoke a loud ‘Eeep!’ out of the unicorn! Having the vaginal walls firmly squeezing down against his figure. Making the environment to be skin-tight, with him unable to possibly move around! Certainly being an issue, considering he was trying to possibly buck into her nether lips!

“Y-You’re certainly making it hard not to cum already! Keep moving around in there, and I might have to tug you back into my thong!” Huffing out from the sweet wave of ecstasy coursing through her body, she was trying to remain on top of her little companion. Taking in a few deep breaths, as she slowly relaxed her walls. Having her vaginal walls slowly starting to relax, she was able to get off of the bed. Carefully putting her hoofs back onto the ground, with her shifting off of the bed. Standing back on her feet, as she stood still for a moment. Trying to readjust her body, with her little companion being pushed against her vaginal passageway. She swore she could feel a bit more of him starting to slip inside of her cunt, but she wasn’t able to feel any sudden movements. Still, it was enough to have her bringing a hoof to the back of her thong. Carefully grasping a hold of the bulge to the best of her ability, before tugging them backwards. Pulling Gunny a few inches out of her cunt, sparing her from having him slip inside so soon. “Aaah~ Just pulling you back a bit. Would hate to have you slipping in so soon. We’ve only halfway through what I want to try on. I still want you to experience what other fun things I want to have pushing you into my cunt~” Talking in a playful remark, she was thankful that she was able to pull him out a few inches. It would save her from accidentally blowing her load to soon. Even if she would have been getting a bit of resistance from Gunny. Not being too pleased that they were slightly pushed out, with only their chest-up being tucked away within the nether lips. “B-But where’s the fun in that! You could be enjoying more of me inside of your cunt. Why wouldn’t you want that~?”

There was a slight huff, with the unicorn haven’t been flustered from the gryphon’s words. However, trying to remain in control of the situation, she would have begun to walk around the bedroom. Purposefully shaking her ass around with each step she took, mushing Gunny directly against her nether lips. Stimulating her womanhood once again, with the tiny creature being pushed a few inches into the sensitive flesh. “Is this what you wanted~? You can still eat me out all you want. I simply request not to have you fully inside of my cunt just yet. I don’t think you’re ready to be churned into my load. At least not till I try two more things to wear~” Promising that it might be happening in the near future, she would walk around the bedroom to the best of her ability. Having to walk a bit funny, with her having to work around the gryphon's movements. With her having been moving around, she could have felt Gunny massaging around at her vaginal passageway once again. Licking away at her quivering walls, while those talons lightly stroked around against whatever it could possibly get its slimy grasp on! "Are you sure about that~? You can't keep doing this for much longer Grease. I know you're going to reach your peak soon. And when you do, I'm going to drink all that sweet nectar you have to offer. Or at least, I'm going to try to~" Promising to be basking in her sweet orgasm, it was enough to have Grease's cheeks to be burning a crimson-red. By all means, he was right. She wasn't going to be lasting much longer, especially with him constantly stimulating her body. Having her become a ticking timebomb at this point. Testing to see just how much she could handle, before she'd finally blow over~

Trying to move things along, it was only a matter of time before Grease was making her way over towards the bed! Instead of flopping on it like she did earlier, she was carefully climbing onto the cozy blankets. Taking her time not to possibly push Gunny even further into her cunt, with her managing to lay down upon her back. Panting out in a blissful ecstasy, with her tongue hanging out in the open. She was loving this wonderful moment, even if it was pushing her towards her orgasm. "Hehe... I can't tell if you're really enjoying yourself, or you just want to be churned away at this point~ Because it sounds like you're eager to be broken down into my next orgasm~" Trying to make some small talk while she was taking a breather, it had her front hooves starting to take off her thong. Digging into the fabric, before carefully pushing it off of her ass. To no surprise, Gunny was staying firmly where they were. Lodged directly inside of her cunt, with their hindlegs dangling out of her body. It was an amusing sight to say the least, with it being tempting to push him the rest of the way inside! If she didn't plan on putting on a few other articles of clothing, she probably would have done it. "What can I say, I'm eager to see what kind of fun still I'll be getting into! Don't take it the wrong way, but I just love being inside of your cunt. Not that being pushed against it is a bad thing, I much prefer being inside of it~" Gunny's voice could have been heard. Muffled slightly from being inside of her cunt, as they idly stroked around at the interior walls. Seemingly waiting for her to try on her next pair of clothing, with their head resting against the velvet walls. Snuggling into the warm flesh, basking in the wonderful heat that came from the musky nether regions.

"I'll try not to waste too much time trying on these clothes then. If you're just that eager to be churned away already~" Grease jokingly mentioned, as she took the thong off of her legs. Tossing them off to the side, before grasping a hold of the last 'normal' piece of clothing. Her bottom part of the bikini. Being of a cyan coloring to match her hair, it would have been looking incredibly small. Offering the littlest of room to support the gryphon's hindlegs. However, with how much they were already desiring to possibly slip into her cunt, she doubt it was going to be an issue. Already starting to carefully put on her bikini piece, she'd go on to mention. "The good news is, you only have to endure two more pieces of clothes for me to try on! Then we'll get you tucked away inside of my cunt. So do try to be patient. I want to enjoy myself a little bit, before stuffing you fully inside of my womb~" Just like the other two articles of clothing, the bikini was easily slipping onto her ass. Having it be working its way up her ass, before firmly resting itself upon her butt. Sealing itself off with a snap, and having the panties be a tight fit upon her body! They were a size too small for herself, having grown out of them some time last year. Making for what was going to be a tight fit for her body, and to help push Gunny a few inches deeper into her cunt. Bringing him up to his stomach within the nether lips, with his cock lightly be pushed back into the nether lips. Looking to have been back in the spot they were in originally, before Grease had purposefully pushed them back out. "Alright fine, but you better hurry up! I've already been breathing in your delightful musk down here~"

Promising at least give her some time to try out one last pair after this. Carefully crawling her way off of the bed, she would be standing back onto her feet. Purposefully squeezing down upon her body, with the vaginal walls clinging onto Gunny's body. Evoking a surprised 'squawk!' out of the tiny creature, before their body was being lightly pushed out of her womanhood. Not too far, as she didn't want to ruin his fun so soon. Only a few inches that he wouldn't end up accidentally sinking too far into her body. "Relax, I'm not going to be letting you out so soon. I just want to make sure you don't have me peak too early... We've already been taunting my body with how close we've had you inside of me. So do expect this to be short, so we can finally tuck you away inside of my womb~" Promising of spending some time inside of the womb, she was already trying to take the first few steps around the room. Walking in what can only be described was a funny manner, as she walked back and forth between her bed. Even if she was trying to be careful, she could already feel Gunny slipping a few inches back inside of her cunt. Almost like her movement was cramming him back inside, it didn't help he was being far too willingly to slip inside. Lightly clinging to her interior walls, pushing themselves deeper into the vaginal passageway. Going even further than they did previously, with their rear having been firmly lodged inside of her opening! Leaving only their hindlegs to be the only part of them sitting outside of her womanhood. "Heh, well I can't wait~ I bet it's going to be wonderful, once you finally stop trying to deny that orgasm of yours~" Gunny was more than happy to tease. Lightly wiggling around to further stimulate the vaginal walls into possibly dragging him deeper into the slimy soaked depths~

'Y-You're definitely not making it any easier...' Grease grumbled underneath her breath. Panting out heavily from the wonderful sensation, as she tried her best to take deep breaths. While she may have been able to walk around too much with her bikini suit, she was already wanting to throw her diaper on at this point. With her having been edged so close towards her peak, she knew that trying to wait it out, wasn't going to end well for her. Quickly and carefully pushing herself onto the bed, she was already trying her best to work the bottom-piece off of her body. Managing to get it off of her ass, and most importantly get the pressure off of Gunny's backside. Sparing him from being pushed further inside, and sparing the unicorn from having her tiny company from accidentally sinking deeper inside. "Oh shush~ I'm going to change into my diaper, so I can finally stimulate myself. So you better be ready when I do, because I'm not going to last all too long!" Mainly saying it to prevent the gryphon from doing anything stupid, she had been carefully kicking the rest of the bikini off of her hindlegs. Having it dangling from one of her hoofs, before she'd lightly toss it off to the side. Naked once again with most of her companion tucked away inside of her cunt, she had to take a few deep breaths. Slowly pushing them a few inches out of her womanhood, sparing her nether regions from the constant stimulation. Luckily for her, her clean diaper was right beside her. Resting on one of the nearby pillows, it was easy for her to grab. With the added benefit of having put on a diaper multiple times in the past, she can easily make sure she's able to put the padding fabric upon her body, without accidentally pushing Gunny further into her nether regions. "Heh, fine~ But you only get a few moments at most, so you better be able to make the most out of it!"

Threatening to possibly make her orgasm on his own command, Grease in a bit of disbelief with the gryphon. With everything that the two have done, and he thinks he has the right to decide when she gets to climax. 'Does he really think he can control my orgasm? He's got to be joking...' Muttering to herself, she wasn't too pleased with the gryphon's words. However, she would continue on with her plans. Grasping a hold of the diaper close by, she was already starting to put it onto her hindlegs. Having them easily slide down towards her rear, before fully enveloping her ass. Already snug where she was, with the diaper having to be only tightened a small bit. Nothing that she couldn't easily accomplish, with her hoofs having gone to tightening the diaper a small bit. Luckily for her, the diaper was slightly spacious. Meaning that she wouldn't have to worry about her companion being forced inside of her cunt too soon. At least not until she pushes him into her cunt herself. Which would be good, considering how much her body was just aching to finally eat its meal. Not to mention the shrinking was probably going to wear off soon, and she didn't want to possibly be stuck with it happening mid-digestion. It would definitely make the stream interesting, considering she was planning on streaming the process. She wasn't going to be telling Gunny, wanting to have it be a little surprise. "So do try to possibly hold still to the best of your ability! I don't want to have you accidentally moving around in there, and accidentally getting yourself inside of my cunt too soon!" Having to already crawl her way over towards the phone she had set up, she'd grasp a hold of it. Keeping it close to her body, and slowly prepping herself for an on-stream performance for her audience~

As for gunny, he was blissfully unaware of what was happening! Having only been clued in that he was going to be eaten by the unicorn's cunt soon, he was all too excited about it! Being unable to contain himself, he would have been wiggling in place. Attempting to possibly drain away at some of his energy, without venturing deeper into the awaiting folds. "Alright! Do hurry! I don't know how much longer I can resist looking at that gorgeous sex of yours~" With his squirming in place, being joined by the unicorn's movement, it was only a matter of time till he'd end up dislodging himself out on accident! Having him be fully pulled out of the nether lips, it had him crashing into the cushioned fabric. Helping to act as a comfortable resting spot for the gryphon, as he looked at the sensitive regions in front of him. Admiring both the cunt, and the sweet womanhood that he had been desiring to have his fun with. Feeling as how the two were moving around somewhere, he didn't want to try possibly going for the nether lips once again. Having her already being close to a climax, he didn't want her to break just yet. However, he was also slightly bored, with him not wanting to wait till she was ready. Thankfully, there was another hole that he could easily mess around with. One that wasn't going to stimulate her as much, but still be enjoyable for him to be fucking around with. "Though where are we going anyways~? Just out of curiosity since we're apparently leaving your room." Speaking in what was a calm yet taunting manner, as his talons went to stroking around at the puckered donut in front of him. Getting a feel for the wrinkly donut, being able to feel the slimy back-entrance against his talons.

With him being stimulating her pucker, he was expecting a response out of the unicorn. Whether it be a pleasurable shudder, or perhaps even a moan, he was expecting a pleasurable response out of the unicorn. Which he would have received, just not the way he had anticipated it! Listening to the pleased moans from the unicorn, before abruptly feeling them pushing against the diaper. Pushing him against her body in an upward direction. Narrowly avoiding running into her nether regions, and having his head slip inside of her ass with a noisy SLURRELCH! Tucked inside of the back entrance, with it stretching open to easily take in his head and neck. He had ended up letting out a shocked squawk upon having his body be entering a different location, before attempting to possibly squirm his way back out! Only to feel more of the unicorn pushing him into the anal passageway. Effortlessly grinding him against the back entrance, with the pucker easily stretching itself open to take in the gryphon's miniature figure. "Will you stop moving around in there!?! If you really want to be in there, fine. But you better not move around in there. At least not till I start masturbating, alright!?!)" Clearly having already pushed the unicorn to her limits, Gunny was left speechless at the sudden outburst. Even though it was probably deserved with how close he's gotten her to climaxing, he could understand why she was annoyed. However, he was going inside of the wrong hole! Being pushed directly into the rear end with ease, as the pucker had managed to easily engulf him inside. Leaving no part of him lingering inside of the diaper, with him having been fully pushed past the sphincter. Now trapped inside of a brand-new area, one that smelled far shittier than the musky womanhood he had been savoring~

With Gunny having been accidentally tucked away inside of her rear, Grease had been peacefully walking over towards the nearby bathroom. Closing the door behind her, before starting to set up her phone inside of the shower. Already having a place set up just underneath the shower head, it was to give a view of her body to her audience. Having it be set to go live, she just had to hit start, for their little fun to begin~ “Ok, NOW you can start squirming around as much as you want. However, I’m not going to be talking to you, since I’ll have my stream going on. Hope you don’t mind that!” Speaking in a more relaxed and calm tone, she would turn the water on. Having the lever being instantly pulled to hot, it wasn’t long afterwards for the water to come rushing out of the shower head. Crashing down on top of the unicorn’s head, with it easily going down her neck. Helping to get her soaked before her personal fun, it was now time to have some personal fun for herself. “Going to be streaming right now, so don’t mind what I’m saying. It’s mainly for the audience that’ll be watching me churn you away inside of my womb~” Still blissfully unaware they were in the wrong hole; she’d turn the stream to be online. Streaming live for anyone to come in and watch, it was only a matter of time before a couple of folks would begin to tune into the stream. Being the regulars that often watched her stream, it had caused a bit of a mischievous grin starting to appear upon her face. She had her audience, and now it was time to have some fun with herself! Grasping a hold of the shower head, she’d proclaim to the audience. “Welcome all! It’s a pleasure to have you all watch me churn a tiny gryphon inside of my womb. Stay tuned, as I soak these diapers in my sweet nectar~” Going to sit down in front of the phone, with the detachable shower head in her hoof. Ready to start jacking herself off, in front of a lovely audience~

As for the unlucky gryphon that had been inside of the wrong hole, things would have been rather interesting for him. Having been too shy to possibly tell her that he was in the wrong hole, he ended up staying silent while the stream was going on. Listening on to the blissful moans of the unicorn, as she used the showerhead to get off. He would only assume that it would take a bit to climax, and have her blowing her sweet nectar inside of the diaper. It was a grand shame that he wasn’t going to be able to experience it for himself, but he’d shrug it off. Perhaps another time he’d be able to experience it for himself, without having to be stuck inside of her rear. Speaking of which, he wasn’t exactly having the most peaceful of experiences inside of the unicorn’s rear. While he was thankful that it was currently empty, he wasn’t able to spare himself from sinking deeper into the tight passageway. Even as a tiny, he could feel the walls firmly grasping a hold of his body. Making it impossible to move backwards, with the walls helping to drag him deeper into the intestinal track. Breathing in the scent of musk and ass, while the sound of water poured somewhere close by. Accompanied by the blissful cries from Grease, as she reaches her peak within a matter of moments! Easily splattering her blissful peak against the diaper. Making a mess of it to say the least, and sadly missing out on him being able to drink the sweet nectar of her orgasm. Instead being treated to the dreadfully musky interior of the rear, as it dragged him deeper into the anal passageway. While he may have gotten inside fully intact, the same can't be said on his way out. With a bliss being reached, it would have something else triggering inside of Grease's body. Being that, of a desire to churn something inside of her body~

Unfortunately for Gunny, it looked like he was going to fall victim to the bowel's desire to churn something! With the process already beginning, he could feel his body already starting to be churned into crap. With him having been reduced drastically in size, he could feel the tingling sensation currently undergoing his legs. Softening up his body at an alarming pace, and helping to transform it into a bunch of horse apples. A sight he couldn't have anticipated, nor did he possibly want to go quietly. He had desired to have some fun with this unicorn, and by stars was he going to enjoy himself! Grasping at the interior walls to the best of his ability, he was already starting to aggressively buck himself into the intestinal lining. Forcefully bucking and slamming his cock into the hot flesh, with it already being at a fully-erect state. His time was going to be short, but he could already feel himself drawing close towards a second peak! Just needing to push himself over the edge, he was aggressively bucking into whatever he could! Shaft throbbing heavily in anticipation, with pre oozing out of the very tip. "C-Come on... Just need a bit more...~" He was talking to himself, knowing fully well they wouldn't be able to hear him at this point. Not that they were much of a concern to the gryphon, as he wanted to jack himself off! Having his claws already growing quickly numb from being churned away, the time was ticking. Racing against the clock, in a desperate attempt to possibly get something out of being shoved down the wrong hole. Smearred in a mixture of anal fluids, and the growing pieces of crap that were his body, Gunny was pushing himself to his limit! Panting heavily, while his cock pushed and shoved along the hot flesh, desperately trying to reach that peak!

With another few peaks, Gunny would have achieved one last blissful peak. Letting out a loud yet heavily muffled out moan, he'd finally climax! Splattering his load against the interior walls, as they were being smearred with his hot spunk. Covering the intestinal lining with his thick white seed. Only to be having it smearred against him with the clenching of the bowels. Pinning him in place, while his load was being smearred into his feathers. Covering them in a sticky-white, before they were changing into a heinous shade of brown. Even while basking in the sweet ecstasy of his climax, the bowels were refusing to slow down on the transformation process. Not wanting to stop until there was nothing left of the gryphon's body, his climax would sadly be short lived. Being able to only feel what felt like a few ropes of spunk, before it was quickly dying down. Leaving Gunny to be heavily panting out. Breathing in the musky bowels, with his senses picking up on the scent of steamy hot shit. His body, already turning into the unicorn's next bowel movement. A rather small bowel movement, but a small bit of crap for them to dispose of later on. Trapping the gryphon in the state of desperately trying to gasp for breath, while drawing his last few breaths within the bowels. By all means, this wasn't going to be the end of him. He was going to reform once he's been disposed of, back and ready for whatever fun he could have with the unicorn. But till then, he'd relax against the intestinal walls. Trying to relax within his final few moments, before his body is fully reduced to just another bowel movement for the unicorn~

As for outside, Grease would have been heavily panting to herself. Having already reached her blissful climax, she was trying to catch her breath. Back against one of the nearby walls, while her diaper had been soaked in a mixture of femmy juices, and water. Finally, she had reached her peak! To finally enjoy an orgasm, without having to worry about it being too soon. Doing it on stream, with well over thirty other ponies applauding her for her blissful peak. With some going to admire the mess she made of her diaper, the crowd had loved the little show she had put on for them! Their enjoyment, was her own personal pleasure after all. "Hehe, well it was certainly a pleasure to show off for you all again. Been edging myself lately with a 'tiny friend of mine. He was helping to get me so worked up earlier. Getting me so close to climaxing, I didn't think I would make it! Luckily for my very lovely audience you all got to watch me hit my peak, and make a mess of my diaper~" Giving the used diaper a gentle patting, she could feel it crinkling it around within her grasp. Soaked, and ready to be disposed of like the previous diapers she had used when in the shower. Thankfully, she had a diaper pail, that was already open! Sitting right next to the toilet, with it being mostly filled to the brim with diapers. Ready to take on another one, to help mark what was another fun shower time to herself. Yet, she couldn't help but wonder what the experience was for Gunny. She had been too caught up in her pleasure, she didn't think too much for her tiny companion! "Hehe... You all have no idea how badly I've been having my nethers being stimulated earlier. I kept telling my companion, to take it easy. They'll get to experience being churned inside of me in due time. I just hope they're happy with my climax~" Bringing a hoof to her intestines, she was trying to feel around for a pool of femmy juices, or even a slight bulge that was the gryphon. However, she felt nothing. No sight of the tiny helper, having been lost somewhere inside of her body.

With a few seconds coming to pass, something else would have begun to happen. With the shrinking pill having been wearing out during this time, it would have been reverting Gunny back to their original height! However, due to their body having been churned away inside of the unicorn's bowels, the pill wasn't able to do its job properly. Having to resort with what remains of the gryphon, the filthy remains would begin to grow back in size! Attempting to return the shitty remains back to its original height, it would have left Grease's bowels to be abruptly stuffed with crap! Filled to the brim with the gryphon's body, almost like she had originally engulfed him with her ass. It would have come to much of a surprise to the unicorn too! Having thought that she had ended up unbirthing the gryphon, only to feel her bowels being compact.

Craving the desire to relieve herself, it was enough to leave her heavily blushing at the sight! “O-Oh my... H-How did you get in there...? I thought you went inside of my cunt...” She’d softly grumble, poking around at her intestinal track. Torn between shock and guilt, upon finding out what had happened to her companion. This certainly wasn’t the way the two had originally envisioned. He was supposed to come out as a huge load of femmy juices! Not as a big pile of crap! “I a-am so sorry... I didn’t mean for you to be churned into shit...” Softly mumbling under her voice. Quiet enough that it wouldn’t be easily picked up on by the stream, as it continued to stream her resting on the floor. Seemingly talking to herself, with the comments asking what was going on. Not understanding what was going on, with some asking for an encore performance by the unicorn. They were going to get an encore, but not the way that they might have anticipated! With her bowels being stuffed, it was only a matter of time before she’d have to relieve herself~

Adjusting her spot, she would have been getting up from her spot! Standing onto all fours once again, before turning her ass over towards the phone. “Well you’re all incredibly lucky to see this, but I’m going to relieve myself on stream. It’s going to be a big one, so you all better be watching~” Giving her rear end a gentle shake, as it sloshed around with the water it’s absorbed. Being baggy and heavy, it was only going to be growing far worse when she started relieving herself. Keeping her eyes on the stream, it wasn’t long till she could see the multiple hearts and shit emojis going across the screen. All looking forward to possibly seeing the load themselves, Grease couldn’t resist giggling a bit to herself. While this certainly wasn’t an expected outcome, but at least someone was going to be getting something out of it. Mainly the crowd more than anything, but at least she got to enjoy relieving herself in front of the crowd. “It’s going to be a big load, so I hope you’re ready, because it’s about to come out~! Last chance to catch to watch, before I start unloading myself~” Both figurative, and literally. Having a sudden increase in crap inside of her body, it would have been taking a heavy amount of space inside of her intestines. Having already rushed towards her pucker, it was ready to come out. Desperately needing to be relieved, with her feeling like it was going to rush its way out at any moment! Having already given her views a warning for what’s to come, she felt ready to finally relieve herself. This may not have been a part of the original plan, but she will stuff Gunny’s remains inside of her diaper!

Pushing down upon her bowels, it wasn’t long afterwards for her pucker to be stretching slightly open. Having to accommodate the load currently on its way out, the crap would be swiftly pushing its way out of her asshole. Coming to plop down into the nearby cushioning, causing it to crinkle upon first hitting it. Creating an indent upon the diaper, along with an all too familiar shade of brown. She was dumping Gunny’s remains out into her diaper, and the crowd was able to see it! Filling the chat with a variety of heart-themed emojis, as they’d come to witness lump after lump starting to form within the diaper. Weighing it down even further than it was before, and further changing it to the brown-coloring that it was before. Leaving an audience happy, and a unicorn to be happily disposing of her previous prey. Tongue hanging out in the open, as she felt bit by bit of the gryphon, leaving her ass. Having been reduced to nothing more than shit and bones, it was still an incredibly pleasurable experience for the unicorn. Especially for when she would feel a stray bone brushing against her interior walls. Sending a shiver of ecstasy down her spine, and having her shudder from the blissful feeling. All while enjoying the wonderful heat of the rushing water, as it continued to pour itself down upon her body. Further dampening the diaper, and having it grow soggy by the second! It was a good thing she had bought water-absorbent diapers, because they would have broken if they were regularly ones! Still, she would have continued to relieve herself, of her shitty companion. Taking her time to relieve herself, and looking to have also been enjoying it too! Panting happily, as her bowels were being relieved! Further making a mess of the diaper, but at least it had its pleasurable moments.

With the process lasting a bit, Grease was able to enjoy the hot water on her body, as she emptied out the last few logs from her body. What used to be a proud and cocky four-foot-tall gryphon, was now just one big diaper filling. Heavily sagging the wet diaper, with it ready to be disposed of at this point. Of course, she was more than happy to do such a thing, especially with the crowd still watching her stream. “Alright everyone! That was the end of the load. Let’s get this bad boy all marked, and send him to the diaper pail~” Going to turn the water off, it had Grease letting out a bit of relief. Just glad to have been emptied out her bowels, as she put a towel over her back. Stepping out of the shower, only to grasp at the marker she kept in the bathroom. Setting it in front of the phone, while she went to stripping herself of her diaper. Having it instantly plop onto the ground, once she loosened it off of her body. Filled to the brim with crap, and looking well beyond used at that point. “Looks like you filled up the diaper quite well! I might have to do it again some time~” Next time it would perhaps be intentional. Grasping at the marker, she went to writing down in big black letters ‘GUNNY FEATHERS’, before showing the diaper off towards the stream! Letting them get one last look of the ex-gryphon, before they sent to the diaper pail. “Hehe, take a look when you can~ This used to be a lovely gryphon, but now it looks like they’re diaper filler at this point~ Say your goodbyes, before he joins the rest of the lovely folks that have been dumped into one of my diapers~”

Letting the audience stare and comment on how much they adored the filled diaper, she would eventually begin to tie it up. Finally putting a close to the diaper, and having it be ready for disposal. With the diaper pail just being right beside her, she could easily just toss the diaper inside. Which was certainly her intention, with her turning the phone to the side. Showing off the diaper pail, and her naked self to the audience. “Alright, hope you all said goodbyes, because it’s time we say goodbye to our lovely friend here. It was a pleasure having here, but it’s time to say goodbye. So farewell Gunny! Come again another time~!” Focusing her aim upon the diaper, it wasn’t long till she’d toss the filled diaper! Having it already being decently heavily, it would easily sink into the diaper pail! Looking to be landing on the top of the diaper, with the tip of the diaper being visible within the pail. Telling Grease that she would need to take them out some time, but that'll be for another time. Worn out from her sexual fun, and desiring some rest, it was now time to finally put her stream to an end.

Turning to look over towards the phone again, she'd give a happy smile towards the crowd! Waving a hoof, with her proclaiming. "Well, that's it folks! It's a pleasure to have you all witness me disposing of my recent prey. Feel free to come stop by, the next time I'm streaming. Other than that, I'll see you all later~" Waving her hoof a bit longer, as she watched a variety of goodbye messages pass through the chat. A good majority of them, containing a variety of hearts and love emojis. Appreciating the stream, along with the dump she had just showed off~ But alas, with it being over, she'd finally be turning the stream off. Finally being left alone to her thoughts again, leaving her to be sighing softly to herself. "Oh Gunny... I didn't anticipate you to go inside of my ass! I suppose I'll have to make it up to you somehow... Really sorry about that..." Trying not to let it get to her, she was already busy starting to clean herself off. Drying away at the water that had been clinging onto her fur, as she was at least going to get ready for bed. She was unsure if Gunny was going to reform in her home, or if they'd be home at this point. Regardless of what it was, she might as well prep for at least a nap. It's been a long enough day, and she can go to rest. Stepping out of the shower for good, she'd turn on the heat lamp. Helping to dry her off a bit faster, while she rubbed her body down. It was definitely surprising what had happened, but it was just accident. She was certain Gunny would forgive her, and that she shouldn't take it too seriously. She should probably send a message though. After she's done getting her diaper on of course.

Taking a bit to dry off, Grease would eventually wander out of the bathroom. Wandering her way down the hallway. Naked and ready to put on a diaper, as she pushed against her door. Opening to reveal that Gunny had returned! Looking to have been lying on his stomach, having taken a spot on her bed. Looking slightly annoyed with what had happened, not that she could blame him. She promised him that she'd have fun going into her cunt, and ended up shoving him inside of her ass on accident! "Welcome back! Did you enjoy your shower?" He calmly asked. Not sounding too upset, even if his facial expressions showed clear annoyance towards what she did. And she did feel sorry for what had happened. She did really intend on unbirthing him, but accidents happen. Gently nodding her head, she would have walked up to the side of the bed. Looking over at the gryphon, with a bit of a frown on her face. "Yes, I did. I'm sorry for accidentally shoving you inside of my ass! I really didn't even know you were in there! I kind of just assumed you were inside of my cunt, and I was feeling you moving around in there. I had been pleased back there so much, that I didn't realize what hole it was coming out of!" She did want to try and make up for what she did. To possibly make up for what had happened! But first, she had to see if they would be willing to accept her apology. Thankfully for her sake, it did seem that he did. With Gunny nodding his head, before patting the top of Grease's head with one of their talons. "Heh, well you're fine. I shouldn't have been stimulating you inside of your cunt for so long. I should have realized that you wouldn't have realized I was messing with your ass. So a part of it is my fault."

Looking to have been blaming a bit on themselves, it was definitely a surprise for Grease. Thinking that she was the main individual to blame, she wasn't going to complain too much about it. With her main focus being on wanting to make up to them, she'd go to mention. "Hmm, well, I forgive you I suppose. However, I do want to make it up to you. If you want, I still have a bit of energy inside of me. If you want to possibly fuck me in my cunt. It's the least I can possibly offer, after accidentally shoving you up my ass..." Offering one last good time before bed, Grease was feeling up for a bit of personal fun. Not to mention it helps make up for the fact she accidentally fucked him over. It's not like they won't ever do something like this again, but this will be an easy solution. A solution, that Gunner was more than happy to take! With his head instantly nodding in approval. Already liking the idea of at least getting to fuck that wonderful cunt. "Heh, well it's not going inside of your cunt, but I will be more than happy to at least have some fun with it~" Being excited about a quick fucking session, he was already starting to lay himself onto his back! Having his hind feet be resting up a bit, presenting what looked to be an already-erect member. It looked like Gunny had a high sex-drive, with him already being ready to fuck after already climaxing twice earlier! Yet, it didn't seem to bother him. Having just been getting into position, showing himself off towards his partner. "Whenever you're ready, do feel free to ride this shaft of mine. Or maybe I'll fuck you~ Depending on how slow you are at riding me~" Giving control, only if they can handle going fast enough. It seemed like things were about to get intimate between the two of them~

Even with Gunny already showing himself off to be rode on, Grease couldn't resist giggling a bit to herself. Mainly to the fact she was still massive compared to the gryphon, even after he's been brought back to his full height. "Heh, well if you think you could handle this unicorn being double your height, who am I to reject such an offer~?" Already climbing onto the bed, she was standing over her companion. Carefully aligning her nether regions towards the awaiting member, with her front hooves putting pressure in the bed for support. This wasn't the first time the two of them have done this, but she was a bit rusty with it. Having her slowly but surely bringing the two genitalia together. The cock tip, gently brushing against her womanhood. So close to penetrating her, with it only needing one good buck to easily dig itself into her body. While a part of her did want to take control, she figured that it was perhaps best for Gunny to enjoy it. After all, he was the one who got fucked over, not her. With her lightly pushing down upon the member, she'd engulf the cock tip. Having it be occupying her cunt, ready to take in more of the delightful shaft. “You know, I think I’ll let you just enjoy yourself. It’s apology sex anyways, so you should have your fun fucking me. Since I had my fun shitting you out of my bowels~” She’d playfully remark, gyrating her hips on top of their member. Helping to work the member deeper into her womanhood, and purposefully messing around with the gryphon. Waiting for the moment that they’d snap, and take control of this intimate moment~

Grease would get their wish, in the form of a heavy buck! The cock being firmly lodged inside of her nether regions, with the member being dug into the vaginal walls! Evoking a pleased groan from the unicorn, as she turned to face the gryphon. “Heh, I figured you would take control~” Taking in a deep breath, she’d lower herself a bit further upon the member. Helping to fully tuck the shaft into her womanhood, just in time for her to feel the member starting to work its way back out of her body. Pulling out what looked to be a few inches, before abruptly pushing the member back into the slimy flesh! “Well of course I would! If you weren’t going to take it, I most certainly will~” He was quick to counter, before starting to pull back once again. Purposefully grinding his member against the interior walls, as he pulled out. Having starting to work into a rhythm of constantly bucking in and out of the unicorn. Pulling out every few inches, before cramming the slimy passageway! With it already being well lubricated, thanks to the unicorn’s blissful peak having left the interior a slimy mess. Not to mention the natural lubricant that his member was giving. Pre rushing its way out of his urethra. Smearred against the vaginal walls, helping to make the process a little less painful for the unicorn. Not that it stopped Grease from enjoying it, since she tended to love the painful experience, so it worked out well either way. Tightly grasping a hold of the bed sheets, as he focused mainly on bucking into the warm flesh. Even with the two having just getting started, he could feel himself drawing closer towards his climax. He wasn’t going to achieve it just yet, but he was getting there. All it would have to take, is a few minutes of pounding away at Grease’s wonderful cunt~

Bucking into one another, the two would have been continuing to fuck around with one another. With Gunny bucking into Grease’s nether regions, while the unicorn purposefully pushed down against the member. Going down on the slimy rod, when it was thrust into her sweet pussy. Working together in a perfect unison, as the two were picking up speed. Pushing harder than before, and having them drawing closer towards their blissful peaks. Vaginal walls being already soaked, and the member currently throbbing inside of the tight passageway. Smothered by the fleshy walls, as they squeezed on it after each buck. Trying to milk him of his delicious spunk, and almost managing to accomplish such a task! With him having been so close to his peak, Gunny was holding on to the best of his ability. Taking in deep breaths to try and calm himself, but that wasn’t stopping the waves of ecstasy from crashing into him. Filling him with this blissful feeling, and the burning desire to reach his peak! Yet not wanting to end their fun so soon, he was resisting his climax as best as he could. Digging his talons into the nearby bed sheets, with him being unable to stop the lewd groans from escaping his lips. “F-Fuck! W-We should have just fucked earlier, instead of shrinking me down in size! I feel like I’m about to cum at any moment!” He’d cry in a blissful ecstasy. Unable to stop his member from throbbing heavily inside of Grease’s cunt. Not that she minded in the slightest, with her having been already close to her own orgasm. Panting out heavily, as she tried her best to resist orgasming so quickly. However, she was feeling a wave of relief upon hearing the gryphon was ready to blow. Meaning she could give it all she’s got; she’d proceed to laugh at her partner. A mischievous grin upon her face, clearly planning on pushing the two over the edge. “Well then let’s get to seeing that peak of yours then! I want your spunk, and I want it now~!”

Abruptly taking a hold of the situation, she was starting to aggressively ride down upon the gryphon’s cock! Bouncing up and down upon the slimy member, with her walls constantly squeezing down against the slimy rod. Evoking a series of lewd and pleased squawks from Gunny, as their mind was overrun with pleasure. Being unable to hold it any longer, he’d finally climax! Letting out a blissful ‘Caw!’ into the air, before blowing his load into the unicorns’ nether regions. Stuffing it with his thick white spunk, as it splattered against the vaginal walls. Covering it in his sticky fluids, as it rushed towards the womb. Filling it to the best of his ability, and leaving the gryphon to bask in the sweet afterglow of his peak. Yet he wouldn’t be the only one that would reach this peak. With the gryphon’s load being enough to finally push Grease over the edge, she’d be able to let out a noisy moan, before finally succumbing to her own lust. Forcefully slamming her body down on top of the member, before finally orgasming! Vaginal walls clenching tightly to the slimy rod, as it was being drenched in a stream of her sweet nectar. Finally giving him the sweet ecstasy that he had been craving, and leaving the two to now bask in the blissful afterglow. Leaving a gryphon with their load being blown, and a unicorn having her womb being stuffed with her partner’s spunk~

Taking what felt like minutes on end, the two would have been recovering from their blissful peaks. With Grease getting herself off of Gunny’s member, before coming to rest close by. Cum oozing out of her cunt, as she was huffing happily to herself. “Hehe... well hope you enjoyed yourself there, because that definitely wore me out. Definitely a lot of fun though~” Already leaning over the side of the bed, she was pulling out what looked to be a new diaper for herself. Idly starting to put it upon herself, while she was watching the gryphon remain lying on their back. Still worn out after their peak, but looking to be nodding their head. Agreeing that they had at least a bit of fun between one another. “Heh, yeah~ Though it definitely wore me out for the night... Do you mind if I sleep with you for the night? I’m too tired to possibly head back home, and I’m sure you don’t mind... Right?” Showing a bit of doubt in his own words, Gunny was slightly doubting himself. However, the unicorn would be there to reassure the gryphon was alright. Lightly nodding her head, as she was tightening the diaper back on her butt. Having it be there to collect any cum that oozed out of her cunt, not to mention it felt nice on her butt. “Well of course! I’m going to crash anyways, so you might as well stay here with me . After all, it’ll be fun sleeping with you~” Already starting to work the covers out from underneath her, she was peacefully tucking herself underneath the blankets. Happily getting herself comfortable under the covers, with her head coming to rest on the pillow nearby. Now just waiting for her companion to do the same~

“Ah, how very kind of you! I’d love to spend time with such a delightful unicorn~” Gunny would teasingly respond, before he was to slowly do the same. Pushing the covers out of the way underneath him, before getting underneath them. Bringing his head to rest, with him looking back over to Grease. A playful smile on his face, as he snuggled into her face. “But I had my fun being around you. So thank you for giving such a pleasurable time~” He’d place a small cheek on the unicorn’s cheek. Going to do it on the other, only to end up getting stopped halfway. With Grease abruptly kissing the unicorn on the lips! Looking to have shared what was a passionate kiss between the two, it would have caught Gunny off guard! Letting out a muffled ‘eep!’, before falling silent. His eyes instantly darting over towards the unicorn. Being able to see that playful grin upon her face, clearly knowing what she was doing. Eventually she’d back away from the kiss. Lightly giggling to herself, as she jokingly teased. “What, can’t show a bit of affection on back~? Hehe, I do wish you a good night Gunny. Glad to hear you enjoyed yourself. Maybe tomorrow we can have some fun together. It could be fun~” Hinting towards other lewd things in the future, she’d turn to face the other side of the room. Looking back over towards where she kept her diapers, before bringing her eyes to rest. “Besides that, do have some good dreams~ You might even have a ‘great’ dream if I don’t fall asleep. Doubtful, but we’ll have to wait and see~”

Hinting towards much lewder things happening in the middle of the night, it was enough to cause a small blush to appear upon the gryphon’s face! Huffing loudly to himself, he’d turn to face the other side of the bed. His back pushed against Grease’s, as he wished her a good night. “W-Well alright then. I suppose I’ll look forward to that~ Besides that. I do wish you a good night, and sweet dreams too. I can’t wait to see what kind of lewd things we’ll do later~” Bringing his eyes to rest just like the unicorn, it was only a matter of time before the two of them would find themselves drifting off into their peaceful slumbers. Having done some lewd things with each other, and planning on more in the near future. It sounded like it was going to be an exciting experience for the pair~ Of course, there was an accidental slip-up. With one tiny gryphon, switching destinations last second. However, it wasn’t like either of them cared in the end. With tomorrow being a brand-new day, bringing new possible lewd opportunities for the two~
