

Diaper Sex

“God, why didn’t I think of this before?”

Rain commented, his body slowly rocking on the bed. The filled diaper which sat tight around his waist had more than just his piss in it. Inside the swollen, heavy thing was Grease Pan, who was working his wet cock over with her mouth. Deep in the diaper the other pony rocked on his cock, her mechanical limbs clicking as they slowly stroked her own sex. It was stuffy, and the acrid scent of piss hit her nose and made it burn and curl. But she loved it, the warmth, the feeling of the diaper stretched around her, holding her in, pressing her against Rain’s warm body. His heavy balls dripped with sweat and she lapped at it, moaning gently as she worked over his cock.

“Fuck yeah...little diaper slut.”

Rain laughed, running his hooves over the front of the diaper. It was swollen and soggy, heavily laden with piss. His legs were splayed out to the side, sitting wide and open, giving her as much room as he could. The diaper rocked and squelched with each movement, and Rain’s body twitched with pleasure.

“You doing ok in there?”

He called out, feeling her tongue work over his balls.

“Ahuh!”

She called back, and he chuckled again. He squished the diaper down around her head, letting her smell the piss, feel the heavy heat around her body. The diaper was so tight on her body it hugged her, prohibiting much movement. But it was more than enough to suck his cock. She slipped her tongue up his shaft and teased his head with her lips. He gave a loud groan before she dove down on his cock, sucking him quickly. She bobbed her head up and down, the strong scent of sex and piss making her feel dizzy, but oh so turned on. She rubbed over her clit with her metal hoof, feeling her own body writhe within the diaper. Rain watched her squirm, watched the diaper move and shift. He felt himself growing closer.

“Fuck, I think I might cum soon!”

He called out, and she bobbed her head quicker, faster. Her mouth, like the diaper was so hot, so warm, and so wet. It felt like heaven around his cock, the warm saliva dripping down to his sweaty balls, his body rocking into her maw. The pony gripped the diaper and moaned, feeling his legs start to twitch. Grease Pan was growing close as well, her cunt soaking down into the diaper, mixing with the urine, ready to cum with him. She lapped over his cock, then shoved it down into the back of her throat.

“Yes!”

Rain cried out, and began to burst in her maw. His salty cum splashed into the back of her throat, filling her maw just as she squirted into the diaper. She swallowed every drop, took in every bit of it, drank it down like fine wine. The ponies moaned together until Rain finally stopped rocking, his cock popping from her mouth and leaking down into the diaper.

“Hahh...round two?”
