

Egg Passing

The two orange ponies lay surrounded by squirming tentacles, each holding a clutch of rounded white eggs. They squirmed over their bodies, wet, slippery, and hungry. Naarkesex was excited, and spread her legs, revealing her wet sex and puckered hole. The tentacle wormed its way into her cunt, depositing its eggs into her as she moaned and squirmed on the ground. Her twin brother, separated only by his sex and his hair, was lying next to her, a tentacle trying to fuck into his mouth.

"I-I'm not sure about this!"

He said loudly, trying to be heard over his sister's screams of pleasure. She reached down and felt along her tummy, which was bloated with eggs at this point. They squirmed inside her, filling her, the tentacle fucking into her sweetened sex.

"It feels amazing, brother. You should give it a try~!"

She said, her voice almost singing with praise. Naarkerotics tried to stand and walk away, but his sister grabbed the leash she had wound around his neck. She pulled him tight to her, keeping him still as the tentacles wormed over his body. He couldn't deny it felt good, his black cock hard and throbbing between his legs. One of the tentacles slipped into his sister's ass, depositing its gift into her bowels. She let out a loud moan, her stomach further distending with the clutch, her ass gaping and used from the slimy tentacle. Suddenly a smirk set over her face, and she gave Naarkerotic's leash a tight tug, pulling him across the floor toward her. Her ass puckered open, and she pushed it against his own hole. She grunted softly, and began to push outward. One of the eggs slipped from her hole, and immediately began to press against his.

"It's your turn to lay a clutch, brother."

She said smoothly, her leg lifting upward. Her brother moaned loudly as the egg began to fill his gaping hole. This gave the tentacle some space, and it shoved into his maw, beginning to deposit its eggs into his belly. He was forced to take it from both ends, swallowing eggs down as his sister forced another into his hole. His cock throbbed and twitched, and as the egg slid deep into his bowels he couldn't hold it back anymore. He began to cum, spurting his seed over the floor, his sister giggling at him as he spasmed and moaned around the tentacle. It slipped from his mouth, leaving him gasping for breath.

"A-ah! It's too much!"

"Oh no it's not, you're being silly, were not even halfway done with you!"

She grinned as she pushed the egg further in, and he felt his hole widening further. He moaned out loud until the slimy egg slipped into his ass. His belly was full, he could see the outlines of the eggs within him, his ass gaping and used, ready to take another one.

“See? Not so bad...are you ready for the next one?”

He could only stammer, utterly used and exhausted. All he could do was moan as his sister pressed her hole to his, and began to deposit another egg.
