

Vorgy at the public park

By Thatfriendlyguy

It seemed like it would be an average Friday afternoon for most folks. Getting off of work, looking forward to the weekend all to themselves! Getting to enjoy the start of the summer season, with the heat already being well apparent. With some folks beating the heat indoors, though most would still be out and about. Doing whatever activities they'd desire for the weekend, before it was back to a Monday shift again. For a certain gryphon in particular, today was going to be a rather interesting experience. One that would change her life, much more than she could have ever anticipated...~

Going by the name of Orchid, she was a bit uncertain of herself at the moment. Having been lingering inside of the nearby public park, she was sitting cozily on one of the benches. Looking over the piece of paper, that told her to be arriving at the public park around noon. It didn't really specify where to be, besides being near the main trail. Not being too useful of a meet-up spot, especially for the supposed Vorgy she had signed up for. "Hmmm... Perhaps this was the wrong day...? Or maybe this is kind of joke..." Being uncertain of it, she was looking back at the small pieces of paper she had. Coming to find it was today's date, with the time being set around noon. The location being the park, but not offering anything past that. With the bottom of the note reading 'Don't worry about finding us. Just sit back and relax. We'll come get you when we're ready.' Whatever that was meant to be, it wasn't like she knew how the twins worked. Specifically, Naarkessex, and Naarkerotics. Knowing they were seemingly one in the same, though different genders from one another. Along with a few small noticeable changes, though she doubt they would blame her for confusing one over the other. However, with neither of them currently showing their faces, nor was she recognizing any of them from the crowds nearby, it didn't seem they were. Perhaps they were running late, or just haven't found her yet! Possibly the latter, seeing how the meeting location was a bit too vague. And it was only now being time for her to meet with the twins. Having originally come a few minutes earlier, wanting to make sure she wasn't late. Though her morbid curiosity wanted to seriously know if this Vorgy was really going to happen. Or was going to end up as one giant waste of her time...

Trying to be optimistic, she decided to wait for a little bit longer. Figuring she would enjoy the somewhat-cool weather, and look around at her surroundings. Keeping her back pressed against the park bench, her eyes curiously gliding around at her surroundings. Coming to find a range of individuals that were currently inhabiting the park. Whether it be a variety of ponies and alicorns walking down the natural trail, to the Pegasus playing volleyball in the sky, to even a few gryphons chasing after each other. A part of her was tempted to join in the fun, and to help kill some time! Besides, she would have an aerial view of the land, and see just whoever was around her. She could even see behind her for a second, and then be looking around at everything else! Though speaking of seeing from behind, she quickly darted her eyes to the back of the seat. Curiously looking over to the more wood-land parts of the park. Coming to find a few ponies trying to climb their way into the nearby trees, and grab at a few nearby pears that the tree held. Sadly for the gryphon, there was no sight for either twin. Still waiting for the two to show up, she'd let out a defeated groan. "Well at least I have you Hi Rez, I know I can always rely on you for company..." She'd turn her attention back over to her hips, where her pet budgie would be resting on her leg. Answering with a small chirp, turning around to face Orchid. The small avian, was enough to paint a smile upon her beak. Knowing that at least if this was a total bust, she still had Hi Rez to keep her company.

Spending the next few minutes resting upon the park bench, it almost seemed like the twins weren't going to show up! Being possibly relieving for Orchid, seeing she did have a few light nerves about the whole event. Not from supposedly being stuffed full of prey, but doing it in public. Having been able to hide most of her nerves naturally, though suppose it came from not doing anything too noticeable. Simply resting against the nearby bench, looking like a normal visitor to the park. It was honestly a perfect place to rest, and kept most eyes off of her. With at most, a few glances towards her and Hi Rez. Though that was it, leaving her at peace for the time being. Occasionally glancing around at her surroundings, though spending most of her time gently petting her budgie. Talons gently stroking against their feathers, with Hi Rez leaning into her touch. Helping to waste away at a few minutes, keeping Orchid well occupied by her pet. Petting, and playfully chirping to her companion. With the bird being happy to respond with their own cheerful chirps. Occupying much of the gryphon's time, until a familiar voice was heard from close by. "Heh, brought your bird to the Vorgy? I don't think they'll be able to rest on top of you, when you're being penetrated from all around~" The voice, sounding familiar feminine, with it being accompanied by another familiar voice. This time, being masculine in nature, and carrying a playful tone with their words. "Oh shush, I doubt she'd be bringing a bird just to rest on. I'm sure it's probably a pet to keep her busy~"

Looking up from her spot, Orchid was greeted to the twins! Two Pegasus, that looked to be incredibly similar in nature. Having the same cutie-mark, and fur color, they were almost duplicate to one another! Although there were a few differences between one another. With Naarkessex being carrying a mixture of blue and white in her mane, while her brother was carrying a blue and green mixture. Along with the white caps on their hoofs, which their sister seemingly lacked. Though that wouldn't be the main focus for Orchid. Having just been happy to see the twins right in front of her! "F-Finally... I honestly thought you two weren't going to show up!" Being in a mixture of relief, and concern, she was honestly thinking this was just a waste of time. Having the two right in front of her, it acted as a reminder of what she originally signed up for. "A-Are we still doing the v-Vorgy? I was starting to think it was called off, with how long I've been waiting..." A part of her had been wishing they hadn't showed up, seeing it would have meant going back home with her budgie. Sadly, it seemed like she was going to be in it for the long run, with the two being her guide towards this rather lewd event. Seeing the twins nodding in unison, before Naarkessex would take the lead. "Yes, that's correct. Sorry about the wait, a certain someone wanted to stop by to grab something to eat, before we have our fun." Giving a playful shove at Naarkerotics' stomach, having been stuffed with some donuts the two had spotted were on sale. Evoking a loud groan from the stomach, as it worked upon its meal. "Hey! Don't think you're innocent either! You couldn't help yourself grabbing at a couple of my donuts!" Naarkerotics was quick to remark, pushing a hoof against his sister's stomach! Evoking a few noisy moans from the gastric chamber, looking to have been part of the guilty party.

And as much as the twins could possibly argue with one another, they would be quickly stopped by Orchid lightly coughing. Clearly her throat, and getting the attention of the two Pegasus. "Besides that... Are we going to be doing this Vorgy now...? Are we going to do it here? Or is there a place in particular we're supposed to do this?" Still uncertain about the whole event, not that the vague details were anything to go by. Luckily for her, the twins would swiftly put an end to their behavior. Having the Vorgy be the main focus, with Naarkessex nodding her head in approval. "Yes, we will get to that now. Sorry about all the wait and fuss. We'll be happy to lead the way" She explained, pointing a hoof directly down the trail the two would be following. "We'll be having it at the small wooden platform in the park center. There we'll be able to have everything set up, and have some fun together~" She continued to tease, being playfully optimistic for what's to come. Already leading the way down the gravel path, with her ass shaking with each step she took. Excited for the delightful fun that'll come out of the grand event. "S-Stage...? W-We're doing this on a stage for others to see!?!)" Orchid was a bit shocked when she had heard the news! Having hoped it would have been a bit more private, she was instantly standing up onto her feet. Feeling Hi Rez swiftly readjust themselves onto her back, while she stood in a bit of shock. While she was expecting a bit of an audience, she wasn't expecting it to be taking place on an actual stage! "Awe, what's the matter? A bit nervous~?" Naarkerotics playfully asked, having been standing in place. Patiently waiting to accompany the gryphon towards the stage. "It's not going to be too bad. Certainly you may get a few onlookers, but you'll be having the time of your life during it, that it won't matter to ya! It'll almost be like they're non-existent!"

Even with Naarkerotics' encouraging words, it wasn't helping Orchid in the slightest. Having her cheeks burning a crimson-red, barely managing to get her talons to take the first few steps down the natural path. "You've got to be kidding... T-There won't be too many folks watching this... W-Will there...? I know I said I'd do this, but I don't want a l-large crowd to be watching." Expressing her concerns, it didn't stop her from at least taking a few steps down the gravel trail. Being incredibly slow at first, with her barely working her body along. Feeling her figure mostly tense in her fears, though she was helped along by Naarkerotics. Giving the occasional light push against her rear, to help her move a few feet ahead. "Oh I doubt it. It's a Friday afternoon, most folks tend to go home after work. I doubt anyone is wanting to see an adorable gryphon getting her body stuffed~" The brotherly twin was trying to further reassure, telling that things were going to be alright for Orchid. After all, with her being the main predator, she was going to be subjected a heavenly amount of pleasure! One that would most certainly cloud her focus, and make it easier for the gryphon to get lost in the lustful stimulation. "It probably won't take too much time either. We just have a few more questions to ask when we get to the stage. Other than that, you're going to do just great!" This time around, it would actually help Orchid! Changing their once heavily cautious tone, to a more optimistically cautious! "W-Well alright. I suppose it shouldn't be too bad. If it's short, and no major c-crowds are going to see it, I think I'll be alright." Hopeful for an enjoyable time, completely unaware of what was in store for her, once the Vorgy begins...~

Walking along the gravelly road, it didn't take long for the three to be arriving at the central park. Having there be a small exercise-area for anyone to work out, a playground for anyone to mess around with. But most importantly; there was the stage. Wooden in nature, being large enough to handle a dozen or so ponies. Besides that, it was just a normal platform, that would be the center of their little Vorgy together. “S-So this is it...? It doesn’t look like it’s all too big...” Orchid remarked, having been expecting it something larger. Then again, she didn’t exactly specify just how many folks were going to be a part of it. Let alone how many she would be engulfing. Drawing closer to the platform, it still kept its relatively small size. Looking to have only a dozen or so ponies at best, not some place she would expect a large gather of folks. “Oh it’ll be fine!” Naarkessex happily remarked! Walking a bit faster than the other two, and already getting on top of the stage. A mischievous grin being on full display, as she eyed the main pred. “It’ll be large enough. Especially since we’ll be doing this in waves. You won’t be having everyone going in at once. Now that would just be too much to ask of you!” She added on, having been giggling slightly to herself. Pointing a hoof over towards the wooden floorboards, she further added on. “But we’ll talk about that later. We’ve got a few questions to ask, before we start. So please, take a seat. We’ll make this as smooth as possible~”

Taking the offer, Orchid swiftly walked onto the stage. Making her way to the center, before resting contently on her rear. Hi Rez resting upon her shoulder, letting out a few chirps to their new destination. “So what kind of q-questions do you have to ask...? Like what type of h-holes I’ll be eating with...?” Being no stranger to eating folks with her body, she was well diverse in the variety of ways to engulf a tasty morsel. With her personal favorite being anal. Having her guts being bloated and stuffed, it was always such a heavenly feeling. It was probably why she kept a horse dildo inside of her ass. Especially one that had a nice fat knot, to ensure it wouldn’t slip out so easily. The sensation being just as heavenly, having a heavy desire to keep it inside, as much as possible. It was even still inside of her ass at the moment! Having planned on taking it out when the actual Vorgy happened, not wanting to miss out on the heavenly feeling. “Oh no, you already filled that out earlier when we first met.” Naarkerotics having talked this time around, walking over to what looked to be clipboard lying on the floor. Picking it up, he examined the contents lingering upon the page. “In fact, you picked all of them to be penetrated. Even your bladder!” He proclaimed, with a devious grin appearing upon his face. Looking delighted to see of the various holes that will be stuffed. Knowing he’ll certainly be playing a part of it, in due time~

“W-What!?! Are you serious!?!” Orchid was shocked to say the least. Then again, she didn’t remember too much on what she agreed. Knowing she at least picked her ass and cunt to be stuffed, though she didn’t remember adding her bladder to the list! Yet, she’d be proven wrong, once Naarkerotics showed her the clipboard. Revealing at the original sheet she had signed, with most of the checkmarks being fully visible. The only one that didn’t have anything, was cock vore. Though that was for more obvious reasons. Everything else, was on full display, showing just what the gryphon had signed up for. “Now all we need to know, is just how many you can handle. We’ll be splitting them evenly, so every hole will be able to enjoy a tasty meal~” Naarkerotics happily said, having been keeping the clipboard in his hoofs. Having it still be fully visible for the gryphon to read, though it oddly only showed three participants. Herself, and the twins. Certainly not enough for a Vorgy. Let alone able to fill the four entrances she had originally signed for. “H-Huh... but there’s only three of us. How are you going to fill each e-entrance...?” Orchid was a bit dumbfounded, not exactly understanding how this was going to work. It didn’t seem to matter much, seeing how her confusion would bring a fit of laughter between the twins. As if finding her confusion to be amusing, Naarkessex would playfully remark. “Oh don’t you worry about that~ Just tell us, how many prey do you think you’ll be able to handle. We’ll take the rest from there~”

Given a simple question, Orchid would have at least been giving this one a bit of thought. While she was going to enjoy a meal, she didn’t know just how many she wanted. “Hmm...” She slightly hummed, having been thinking to herself. If she was going to be having all of her entrances being stuffed with prey, she wanted to at least enjoy it. Putting the amount to already be four. Although she would probably want more of the heavenly feeling, she would most likely desire more to fill her body. With a second wave sounding absolutely heavenly! Anything past that however, would prove to be a bit challenging. Especially if she had to walk her way to the nearest restroom, to relieve at the mess she was going to be packing. Knowing full well her body was going to need sweet relief once this was over, she didn’t want to overdo it. In fears of possibly embarrassing herself in such a public place. “Hmm, how about e-eight...? Two for e-each entrance, so it’ll be keeping me well-filled. But not to the point that I’m going to be unable to h-hold it all in.” She said out loud, trying to confirm her own thoughts. Thinking she could handle that amount. Especially if they’re going to be in their own separate entrances. Certainly she’ll be able to handle it! At least, that’s what her hopes were...

“Eight~ Well I’m sure we can easily work with that. Means there’s going to be plenty of fun for the three of us~” Naarkessex happily remarked, having jumped off the stage. Messing around with something just behind it, though her voice was still loud and clear for the two to hear. “Why don’t you go ahead and relax for a bit. Maybe even try getting into a position that you want. It’ll make it easier for when we start this~” Offering some advice to the gryphon, it didn’t take long for Orchid to take the advice. Walking to the center of the stage, and pushing her ass slightly into the air. Showing off her womanhood, and the puckered hole. Though that said back-entrance, still had her horse dildo tucked away inside. With it needing to come out, before any of the true fun can begin. Fortunately, the other twin was still right beside her, daydreaming of what’ll come in the near future. “H-Hey um N-Naarkerotics...? Can you help me with something real q-quickly. It’s something I have to do, before we can s-start...” Instantly breaking Naarkerotics out of his dreamy state, he turned his attention back over to the gryphon. Curiously staring over at her, trying to figure out what the issue was. “Hmm? Do you need to relieve yourself before this? There’s a bathroom nearby, in case you want to go before our fun~” Thinking it was a need to relieve herself already, or perhaps stage fears, they certainly couldn’t have anticipated what she truly needed help with. Especially with how well the base of the dildo blended into her darkened fur, it was easy to miss if one was to simply look at her ass. “W-Well no, I kind of already did that earlier before I came here... It’s revolving around my butt... I k-kind of have a dildo currently lodged inside of my a-ass...”

Just saying it out loud, she was feeling heavily embarrassed! Cheeks burning a cherry-red, shyly looking away from the Pegasus. Feeling too embarrassed to even face them, even though she wouldn’t have to worry about something as simply lewd as a dildo. In fact, her words would have evoked a playful chuckle out of Naarkerotics! Having been lightly patting at her rear end, before speaking in a more casual tone. “Heh, well that’s alright. I’m sure you probably forgot it was in there, but I am more than happy to help you out.” Showing a more caring side, he’d walk over towards Orchid’s behind. Having been taking a close look upon their rear, with it taking a few seconds for them to notice the dildo firmly lodged in her rear. “Oh, there it is! I quite honestly didn’t see it before. It really does a great job blending in with the rest of your lovely rear~” Smooth talking the gryphon, it didn’t help in the slightest with her blush! If anything, it was probably making it worse! Especially being in such a public, being a bit afraid of any of the nearby ponies learning about her lewd secret! “Y-Yeah... It really makes it e-easy to walk around in public with, t-though I don’t like others noticing! It b-brings up too many questions...” Having already experienced a few ‘encounters’ where some have noticed it. Some were oddly fine with it, while others were seemingly disgusted, or even astonished she would do such a thing! Bringing further embarrassment upon the lustful gryphon, and hoping this encounter won't attract any unwanted attention.

“Heh, you shouldn't worry about that. Who cares what folks think of you, you should enjoy it!” Naarkerotics spoke in an oddly optimistic tone. Telling the gryphon to have some pride in the pleasure, as his hoofs carefully wrapped around the base of the dildo. Getting a firm grasp upon it, before slowly starting to tug it out of the stuffed-rear. “Be like plenty of other folks, that enjoy being openly lewd. Sure, you may get a few lewd glares, but the pleasure is far better than the slight embarrassment that can come from it. You may even learn to ignore the embarrassment all together~” He further encouraged, trying to see past the embarrassment! It would have to be a lesson the gryphon would have to learn, especially with what was in store for the near future. Though for right now, she was trying to hold back a groan. Her bowels clenching down upon the toy, not wanting to let it go! It was perhaps instinct, seeing how many times she wanted this heavenly feeling to last. Or perhaps it was just the pleasure that came from feeling the knot grinding against her sensitive regions. Either way, she was clenching her body. Talons digging into the nearby wood, trying her best to suppress a pleased cry. “W-Well that does sound nice and all, I d-don't know if I could do that...! Especially if there's so many i-individuals watching, the p-pleasure would have to be immense!” She managed to mutter out with a heavily flustered tone. Her body shuddering from the pleasure, as the knot neared its way over towards the clenched pucker. Her body not ready to let go, but it was going to be coming out regardless! With the best she could do, was prepare for the sudden stretch of her ass!

And it would certainly come, in the form Orchid had least hoped for! With the knot worked its way over to her ass, the pucker firmly clenched upon it. Causing the slow pulling Naarkerotics was doing, to come to an abrupt stop. “Huh... Well this might hurt a bit. But it'll be more of a painful pleasurable, that you'll get to enjoy~” Giving a quick warning, before forcefully pulling on the dildo! Having it come out in a loud PLOP! Freeing the gryphon from her dildo, but evoking a pleased cry from her! Having it be loud and clear, she instantly covered a talon over her beak! Cheeks burning as red as can be, as she tried looking away from her rear. Staring directly at the onlooking faces, that were staring at her. Curious to see where the cry was coming from, though she could see a few faces were smirking at her. Further embarrassing the gryphon, as she turned to the floor. Trying to avoid any further embarrassment that might come over her. “Y-You could have pulled it out smoother than that! I w-wasn’t prepared for t-that!” Barely given a second to react, she was huffing for air. Feeling the rest of the dildo leave her ass, leaving her in an aroused state. Already wanting the dildo back inside, with her nether already soaked from the sudden departure. “Heh, sorry about that. It was stuck in there, and I couldn’t get it out easily. Figured this would be easier on you.” Keeping the dildo in hand, Naarkerotics set it off to the side. Having it be for later, when this was possibly over. “Though the good news is, you’re ready for the Vorgy! Me and Naarkessex have been getting it ready, so we will be able to start in just a few moments~”

“S-Starting already? D-Did the others show up...?” Thinking some additional folks have gathered to join in, she turned her attention to the back. Only to be quickly surprised to see the twins standing there. But it was just them, but duplicates of each other. Seemingly coming in 2 pairs, with a random Naarkessex having off to the side. Separated from their clones. “Well you can say that~” She musingly remarked, walking in front of the clones. Showing off their motionless state, as if they were on standby. “Just tell us when you’re ready, and we’ll get started with our fun~” Giving Orchid any last minute prepping, she was originally shocked at first. Having been completely unaware the twins were able to do such a feat! Giving a shaky nod of her head, already starting to reposition herself. Hind-legs spread, exposing at her two sensitive entrances. While her beak was parted open. Ready for the pleasurable Vorgy. “R-Ready!” She shouted, body entering a small tensed state. Preparing for the sudden pleasure, doubling down once she heard the sound of dozens of hoofs clapping against the wooden floorboards. Coming to rest right beside Orchid’s rear end, before the noises came to a stop. “Do you care which one of us goes inside of your body? I forgot to ask you that earlier.” Naarkessex’s voice came from behind. The heat coming from their breath, crashing upon Orchid’s nether regions. Sending a cold shiver throughout the gryphon’s figure, already knowing what part of her body would be penetrated first. “N-No, I think I’m ready! Just please t-try to be careful!” Hoping they would go easy on her; she was answered to the playful giggles coming from the two. Coming to quickly find, she was going to be in way over her head~

Given a second to only imagine how it was going to unfold, she couldn’t anticipate both holes being penetrated! Stretched open, as the twins jam their heads into the sensitive passageways. Overwhelming Orchid with the heavenly stimulation, she bit down upon her tongue! Trying to suppress a blissful cry, claws scrapping against the wooden floorboards. “D-Dearest Celestia!” She managed to cry out. Her voice coming out as a heavy whine, while her body was shivering from the ecstasy. Unable to possibly think in her lust-filled state, though her body already knew what to do. With an audible SQUEELCH coming from the two passageways. Walls grinding against the twin’s fur, dragging them deeper into her body. Stretching her figure out, and drawing them closer to their destination. Though for the twins, their trips weren’t of equal length. Feeling Naarkessex pushing their way into her cervix, Orchid would be unable to hold back from a blissful cry! Feeling the tight-entrance being stretched to accommodate the Pegasus’ head. The feeling being pure heavenly, perhaps even a bit too pleasurable! Feeling her body desperately wanting to reach a climactic peak already, she was huffing for air. Trying her best to drag the rest of Naarkessex’s body into her lustful-folds. The same could be said for Naarkerotics, having been eagerly gobbled alive by the hungry rear! While the pleasure wasn’t as intense as her womb being stretched, it certainly was adding to the state of ecstasy. Wanting so desperately to reach a climax thanks to these two, but unable to satisfy her sexual arousal! Not when those two were still being engulfed. Blocking her body from possibly relieving the building tensions in her loins. Subjecting her to what can only be described as a painful pleasuring experience~

“F-Fuck! W-Why couldn’t one of you have gone for my m-mouth first!?!” She cried in a blissful ecstasy, gathering the attention of the onlookers. Some having already known what was going on, having been chuckling at the gryphon’s heavily flustered state. While newcomers would start to work themselves around the stage. Originally curious about the blissful cries, and staying for the show. Giving Orchid a large group of onlookers, with varying reactions on their face. Some having found it to be amusing, were slightly chuckling at the gryphon’s current blissful state. Even going as far as to point a hoof towards her quivering body, and laugh at her being taken over in overwhelming ecstasy! Though there were a few that looked on in disgust. Being unable to turn away, like they were watching a disaster unfold in front of them. Neither reactions, were helping Orchid in the slightest, as she tried to endure the pleasurable start! Staring down at the scrapped wood, hoping this pleasurable would die down in intensity! “We wanted to have this Vorgy have an eventful start~!” Naarkessex shouted from the slimy interior of the womb! Further stretching it out in size, with the rest of her body being pushed along. Already halfway-lodged inside the gryphon’s cunt, with the clamping walls continuing to push her further inside. Barely able to wiggle around, as she slowly filled the vaginal passageway. “Not to mention, you were already close to climaxing. Think it’s best we start this with a bang~” She further remarked, making the most of the tight interior. Eager to be fully tucked away, and churned into a large pool of gryphon juices~

“Bask in that wonderful high as much as you can! It’ll make the peak all the more pleasuring, once you finish engulfing us~” Naarkerotics’ voice being heard, having been heavily muffled from his current slimy environment. Taking a trip into Orchid’s bowels, he was already off of his hoofs! Resting on top of Naarkessex’s half-engulfed figure, while he was sinking further into the puckered hole. Stretching it out with his presence, and slowly filling the intestinal track. Going through each bend within the gryphon’s bowels, knowing full well he wasn’t going to be making it towards the stomach. “You’re almost there! Just got to keep pushing a bit longer, and then you can really enjoy yourself two meals back here~” Trying to keep their companion motivated, while getting to feel his hind-legs being swiftly pushed through the sphincter. Finishing the first of many prey Orchid was going to be consuming, and it was also prepping Naarkerotics for his shitty fate. Unlike his sister, he won’t have an orgasmic demise. Doomed for a far shittier one, he could already feel the anal walls prepping for his digestion. However, the process was going to take a bit longer, than being his feminine counterpart. Where she was already well underway with the softening process. However, in the end, it didn’t matter much in the end. Already doomed to be coming out of the gryphon’s body, not the same way they originally slipped inside. And having the two almost fully enveloped, meant they would get to enjoy their shitty demise all the sooner~

Traveling further into the gryphon’s body, the twins were soon fully engulfed! Having the tips of their tails, be the last part to slip inside, before they were hidden inside of the lustful-avian. Bringing a bit of sweet relief to Orchid’s mind, as she abruptly collapsed onto her side! Evoking a surprised squawk out of Hi Rez, having flown a few feet away from their master’s body. Trying to get a safe distance, while still curiously watching over their master. Witnessing the gryphon heavily Panting out for breath. Her body overtaken by the wonderful ecstasy. Desperately needing to find that release, and she just might possibly reach it! While being overwhelmed by the sheer pleasure of the Vorgy, she’d feel her vaginal walls starting to relax. No longer having been entering the stretched-state it had been, with the rest of Naarkessex’s body being pushed into her cunt. The same could be said with the brother inside of her ass, though her main attention was on her cunt. And that sweet realization, she can almost push herself over the edge. No longer having the Pegasus’ body covering her nether regions, she desperately slammed her claws against the sensitive passageway! Rubbing against the sweet lips, further sending her into that heavenly high. “S-Sweet Celestia~!” She squawked as loud as she could! Overtaken by the wonderful pleasure, riding off the wonderful high that came with it. Drawing closer towards an inevitable peak, she just needed to push herself a bit further. To seal away the Pegasus that was filling her womb, and reach the first of many climaxes to come! Dead-focused, she didn't care about anything else in the moment. Wanting nothing more than to finally satisfy her sexual lust!

With the rest of Naarkessex's body being sealed past her cervix, she would finally get that climactic peak. Being pushed over the edge, a loud and blissful cry would fill the air! Being loud and clear for anyone within the park to hear, before the load came rushing out! Spilling out her sweet femmy juices, as it collided into her talon! Coating it in the hot and sticky fluids, before rushing onto the platform. Making a complete mess of herself, in front of a live audience! Though for Orchid, she was too lost in the afterglow, to even notice the humiliating act. Eyes naturally held shut, while she panted for breath. Relishing in relief, delighted to have gotten at least two of her meals down. Now her body would have to focus on breaking their two meals down. With the one in her womb, going to be far easier to break down than the one in her intestines, she was going to be stuck with a massive bulge in her gut. Unable to move too well, not till her meals have broken down a bit in size. "Huff... Huff... T-That felt so wonderful...~" She groaned on in her blissful state. Riding off the sweet afterglow, unaware of the audience she had gathered. It was only after a few moments of letting her body recover, and for the lust to slowly leave her mind, would a voice be heard from far ahead. "Stupid bird! You're supposed to save the climax, for when they're completely churned away!" A voice that sounded far masculine in nature, and unfamiliar to the gryphon. It was only by that time, did Orchid finally realize where she was, and how she wasn't alone like she had hoped...

Slowly opening her eyes, she'd come to quickly see the crowd right in front of her. Having been looking to be well over a dozen folks staring directly at her. A portion clearly laughing at her blissful high, while others looked to have been disappointed by the early peak. Having wanted to see the gryphon go on for much longer, the sights would lead Orchid to being heavily distraught! Torn heavily from the wonderful high, and the sheer embarrassment that came from being watched. It was horrific, perhaps being the most humiliating moment of her life! And what made it worse, was the fact she was frozen in place. Unable to move around too much with her two large meals, and being the center of attention to the crowd. Seeing just only the start of the gryphon's pleasurable torment. "I-I thought you said there wasn't going to be too many f-folks nearby!" She shouted accusingly towards the twins. Having foolishly put some faith into them, thinking she was going to be safe from a large crowd! “Oh come on, you should have known better! We had this planned entirely for folks to see~!” Naarkessex was shouting from within the depths of the womb. Already having their body being in a mostly-softened state, and beginning to churn into the gryphon’s next batch of femmy juices. “Don’t forget, you still have two other holes that we’re going to stuff, before we’ll have a small break!” Kindly reminding the gryphon that this wasn’t even the finish of the first wave, there was still two more prey that she had to engulf. With it becoming more apparent, once one of Naarkerotics’ clones walked in front of her. A playful grin upon his face, excited to see the embarrassed pred. “Don’t worry about us going in at once this time around. We’ll at least give you a moment to fill your stomach, before we work on getting into that bladder of yours~”

About to be subjected to her body being violated once again, Orchid tried to speak back against this! Only to have her beak being abruptly jarred open by the entering Pegasus! Cramming their snout into the humid interior, and rubbing his taste against the slimy tongue. “Relax~ Forget about the crowd watching, and focus on the pleasure! You know you won’t regret it, when you do~” The Pegasus offered some words of advice, but it didn’t stop Orchid from still freaking out! Trying to push Naarkerotics out of her maw, only to indirectly swallow them with a loud GLURK! Plunging the willing meal head-first down the esophagus. The throat muscles, firmly grasping a hold of its prey, and tugging them earthwards. Drawing closer to the awaiting stomach, already grumbling in approval for its large meal. “N-NFMRHF!” She tried to yell the twin’s name, but her mouth was too stuffed with their figure. Feeling their neck and chest slipping inside with ease, while their head traveled further down the esophagus. Unable to go too far, due to Orchid’s current resting position. Forcing her to take a hard swallow every few seconds. Hearing that sickening flesh grind against its morsel, as Naarkerotics was moved a few inches with each swallow. Further slipping past the gryphon’s mouth, and stretching her beak out to its fullest ability. Whether she liked it or not, this clone was going to stuff her stomach. There was no way she was going to possibly be able to spit them out this far into the swallowing process. Whether or not she comes to fully embrace being a gluttonous pred, or hide away from the embarrassment, was entirely up to the gryphon to decide...

Unfortunately for Orchid, it didn’t look like she was going to give into the sweet pleasure. Having been made aware there were countless amount of folks watching her, she could barely move at all. Having most of her bodily functions, being done automatically. As she looked away from the crowd. Staring directly at Hi Rez, or at least as best as she could with a Pegasus' rear currently blocking her vision. Hoping her pet might save her from any future embarrassment! Trying to call out to them in a series of coos and caws, the gryphon's voice would be too muffled, let alone inconsistent. Having to take a swallow each time she tried to speak, it didn't work too well. With most of her calls coming out as muffled cries, until Naarkerotics' ass would finally slip down her throat. Temporarily silencing her, while she worked on the last 'major part of the Pegasus' body. Having to deal with the taste of hair brushing against her taste buds, while getting a sight of her budgie looking curiously at her. Not being the first time they've seen her eat someone alive, though not as many as this! Making the process all the more interesting for the small avian. Letting out a series of soft chirps towards their master, wondering if there was going to be any more prey being stuffed into their master's body. The unfortunate answer being yes, with there being one more prey left before the first wave would come to an end. Only coming once she finished her current oral treat, it was the only small relief Orchid would be able to experience. Gently swallowing away at the last of her prey, sealing them to the fleshy prison of her stomach...~

Taking a few more noisy swallows, the rest of Naarkerotics' body would slip its way into Orchid's stomach. Pushing past the stomach's sphincter, sealing shut once the last of him was plopped into the gastric chamber. Giving the Pegasus a moment to move around, before the walls clamped upon its prey. Compacting the clone into a ball, while the rest of the excess air pushed its way into the throat. Rushing its way into the gryphon's mouth, before coming out in a loud BURRAAAAAP! Saliva being sent flying, along with a few loose feathers that came off the clone's body. Coming to rest close to Orchid's head, as she groaned from yet another meal. "A-Augh.... Will I be given a break to at least c-churn you two d-down...?" It didn't feel like there was going to be a break. Having her body already going into overdrive, trying to break away at its current prey. Already having churned a good portion of Naarkessex's body into femmy juices, and bits of Naarkerotics' previous body into bits of crap. However, it wasn't enough to leave her not feeling bloated. As if she was currently stuffed, and unable to handle any more prey. Sweet Celestia... She was even trying her best to break away at her recent meal! Both talons kneading into the grumbling belly bulge, as it sloshed around its prey. Already filling with digestive juices, and softening the Pegasus inside. "You're almost there!" Naarkerotics shouted deep from the slimy confines of the stomach. Bathing in the acids, and rubbing his hoofs against the nearby walls. Further aiding in the digestion process, to help break away at his own current form. "Just need to take my sister inside of your bladder. Then we'll be able to rest. We'll even have you get through most of your digestion, before we continue on with the next wave~”

Promising of a long break after one large meal, Orchid tried to stay motivated! Letting out a loud huff, as she turned her attention back over towards her rear end. Coming to find Naarkessex already resting right beside her body. Their snout resting peacefully upon her butt, with their tongue sticking out at them. “Hehe, of course we'll give you some time to relax after I'm tucked away. So why not enjoy this moment~? It's going to be quite the blissful feeling, being stuffed with copious amounts of prey~” Being at least reassuring in her tone, further confirming there to be a break after this last vore. Unlike her brother, the orange Pegasus wasn't rushing her way into the gryphon's urethra. Waiting patiently for Orchid to gather herself together, which she was certainly thankful for. Taking what little time she did have, to take in a few deep breaths. Trying to relax her body, and get it situated for its next meal. Hind-legs being spread once more, giving easier access to her womanhood. One thing the gryphon wouldn't have noticed, was the odd calmness she was feeling, when she was looking at the twin. She felt slightly lustful, like her body was craving the Pegasus to be trapped inside of her bladder. Reduced to nothing more than a pool of urine, that'll needed to be relieved. Perhaps it was her slight predatory nature coming through, or her body already anticipating the heavy pleasure that'll come out of it. She didn't even realize there was still a crowd watching her at this point. Bound to the pleasure this Vorgy has heaped upon her, she felt her body yearning for more of the blissful state. Having it come to no surprise her once panting breath, would turn into a playful grin once she gathered herself together. Ready to finally take on her large bladder meal. “Ready whenever you are...~”

“Perfect~ Time to finally fill that last hole of yours!” Naarkessex proclaimed at the top of her lungs! Making sure it was loud enough for the nearby audience to hear, before slamming herself head-first into the cunt! SLURREELCH! The sound filled the air, as the Pegasus was crammed into the familiar passageway. Aimed directly for the urethra, as it was abruptly stretched open by her snout. Evoking a painfully pleased cry out of Orchid, as her urethra was stretched in size! Having not been too familiar with the sensation, the environment would be incredibly tight. Not to mention sensitive, with the littlest of movement being enough to elicit a lustful cry from the gryphon! “Hehe, well aren't we a tight one. It's going to feel so good, getting the rest of my body squirming into your bladder~” The orange Pegasus couldn't resist teasing, lightly wiggling against the hot and slimy interior. Being unable to move too much due to the almost skin-tight environment, besides just a light squirm. Thankfully, for her, and her dear brother, Orchid's body was acting gluttonously lustful! Gobbling down whatever meal was being stuffed inside of it, with this one being no exception. While the process was slower than before, it didn't stop the fleshy walls from grinding against Naarkessex's body. Drenching her in a series of bodily fluids, and leftover urine, while bringing her head directly against the sphincter to the bladder. Already, it smelled of musky urine. With some of the golden fluids lingering inside of the bladder! That was, until the sphincter opened by the Pegasus' snout. Causing what bit of urine, to rush its way upon Naark's body. Slightly lubricating them, while they slowly but surely started to fill the gryphon's bladder~

Outside of the bladder though, Orchid was in for one insane ride of ecstasy! Having thought she had been prepared for it; she was unable to contain the extreme wave of pleasure that came out of it! Painful pleasure, with the pain being more apparent this time around. Feeling like her body was being stretched to its utmost limit! The only thing saving this from being incredibly painful, was the overwhelming pleasure coursing through her body. Rivaling that of when the two twins first entered, she was lying upon her side. Unable to possibly think, let alone move from her current state. Having only a series of loud and blissful cries fill the air, as her body engulfed its meal in one of the strangest ways possible. "W-Why did I have to go with b-bladder!?! Oh S-Sweet Celestia~!" Crying out from the extreme pleasure, having been completely unaware of the crowd up ahead. Even as the pleasure continued, the onlookers would continue with their dreadful stare. Watching the gryphon further humiliating herself on stage, with plenty of new faces starting to join amongst the crowd. Little by little, the crowd was growing bigger. Containing a mixture of laughing faces, and disgusted looks. All having the gryphon be their main focus. Being the star of the show, and bottom of the barrel. It was a mess, but none of them could possibly tear their eyes away from the disaster right in front of them. Their eyes mostly focused upon the ecstasy-filled pred, but some did stray from the main deal. Glancing over to see what remained of the prey-ish-Pegasus. Witnessing their hips being pulled in, with the rest of the body to follow in due time~

Little by little, the rest of Naarkessex's body slipped its way into Orchid's womanhood. Traveling down the separate passageway, and inevitably filling up the bladder. Stretching it out to its fullest extent, with the sensitive organ receiving quite the fulfilling meal~ It was also leaving a very stuffed gryphon to be lying on her side! Panting out in sweet relief, as her body worked upon its current meals. No longer going under the intense pleasurable stress of consuming them, with the predatory avian desperately gasping for breath. “N-No more...! I can’t handle a-anymore...!” Slowly snapping back to reality, with her mind being an absolute mess! Unable to think to herself, as she was enveloped by the grumbling sounds of her body. Playing an orchestra of slimy noises, trying to softening away at the giant masses currently bulging out her body. Having so much to digest, it seemed like she was going to be stuck in this position! Panting in her own sweaty mess, slowly starting to come back to reality. Which would inevitably lead to her staring back at the crowd. And dear Celestia... It was far worse than what she remembered.

What she thought was only a dozen or so ponies that were watching her, looked to be the entire park watching her embarrassing display! Ranging from a variety of species, they all their eyes focused upon her. Laughing at her. Making cruel remarks about her slutty state, though most of it was muffled out by the traumatizing laughter that echoed from the crowd. “Such a fucking slut. Can’t even handle a few prey! Talk about such a disgusting low-life.” One of the insults that managed to make its way among the heavy laughter. Degrading the gryphon, as she looked away from the onlooking crowd. Trying to ignore at the hurtful words that came out of them, but it didn’t stop. Hearing more insults and humiliating remarks being directed towards her, the gryphon was helpless. Barely able to let out a small whimper, while her body kept her mostly immobile. Still hard at work trying to break away at the four prey that had stuffed it. Their masses being far too heavy for her to move with, let alone being able to fly. She was stuck in place. Forced to continue on her embarrassing torment, with her pet budgie being the only friendly company she did have. Though even their cheerful chirps, were easily muffled from the noisy moans from her body. Being a cruel reminder of her embarrassing fate...

Though it wouldn’t be all so horrific for Orchid, as two pairs of familiar hoofs would be gently touching around her body. One set having been stroking around against her womb and bladder, while the other was focused upon the rear. Both pairs stroking gently against the distended flesh, lightly kneading it within their grip. “Shouldn’t let the onlookers get the best of you. Who cares if they’re watching, ya should enjoy the sweet ecstasy of the moment! Especially with how and nice stuffed we made you~” It was Naarkerotics’ voice coming from just behind the gryphon. Completely catching her off guard, not that the random rubbing wasn't already doing that. Causing her attention to be shifting over towards her rear. Catching a quick glimpse upon the twins once again. Looking to be alive and well, even though their current clones were far from such. Each giving their own cheerful smile over towards the gryphon, looking to be enjoying themselves throughout this whole lewd event. "It can be embarrassing at first, yes. But once you grow to overcome it, the pleasure is quite heavenly! You might even say you experienced such a wonderful high, when I went into that bladder of yours~" Teasing of her previous fate, the orange Pegasus purposefully rubbed around against the bulging bladder. Listening to the bits of urine already being formed from her previous body. Softening away, and slowly filling the sensitive organ with a pool of urine. "Of course, you'll have to empty yourself out in public. Because we all know you won't be able to keep this all in. Especially with a full bladder. You're going to absolutely relish the feeling of relief~" Speaking of a heavenly bathroom break, Naarkessex was already daydreaming of such a relieving activity.

The same could not be said for Orchid. Having at least been thankful for getting some help digesting away at the meals, the other news was far from pleasing. Sounding almost like she was a ticking time bomb, that was only going to further embarrass herself in the near future. Already being a laughing stock to the crowd close by, she was far from wanting it to further intensify in size. "C-Can I at least go to the bathrooms to r-relieve myself! I don't want to pee myself out in public!" Being able to somewhat focus on the twins, she was still well aware of the crowd watching her ongoing disaster. If she could just go to the bathroom, perhaps most of the crowd would lose interest in her! Sparing her from making a further mess with herself for the second wave. "Huh, bathrooms? Why not use a diaper? They're far cozier!" Just as she had high hopes of getting some relief, it was quickly demolished once she heard Naarkerotics' words. Filling her with a slight disgust, and a heavier blush upon her already blushy cheeks. "D-Diaper!?! Are you serious? W-Why would I ever wear that? That's embarrassing to wear!" Orchid was in disgust! Not wanting to believe she was suggested such a humiliating idea. While it was far from taboo, it was still looked down upon by majority of creatures. Adding that upon her body, would have only made things worse for her heavily flustered state, trying to figure out the best way to save herself from further embarrassment!

Yet, it seemed like fate had other ideas, with the twins further defending the action. "Awe, why not? They're quite cozy, and a portable toilet. You can go whenever you feel like it!” Naarkessex praised the wonderful uses of a diaper! Her tone being purely excited, having nothing but good words about wearing one. She was even giving a playful shake of her rear, before adding on. “In fact, I’m even wearing one right now! And I can tell you, it feels quite cozy against my rear~” Proving a point through personal experiences, at best it would have gotten Orchid to look directly at the orange Pegasus in shock! Having to look up a bit above her bloated back-half, but being able to catch glimpses of the white fabric. “S-Seriously? Are you going to w-wear that the entire time I eat you? W-Won’t that be disgusting to t-taste!?!” Eating a diaper was far from what she had signed up for. Even if it was being worn by one of her prey. Just imagining the fabric gliding against her tongue, was already wretched enough for her to slightly gag. Looking away from the two Pegasus, and returning to the familiar sights of Hi Rez. Having stepped a few feet away, the current rubbing session. Bearing witness to the slowly shrinking bulges upon the gryphon’s back-half, though it seemed the stomach was left alone. Able to digest away at its own pace. “Hehe, oh no, you wouldn’t even taste it!” Naarkerotics was quick to point out, pulling a hoof away from the intestinal bulge. Pointing it directly towards his slightly open maw, as he’d further add on. “I’ve had some being crammed down my throat. Most of them being dirty, but you tend to find most don’t have a taste to them. It’s only the contents inside that counts~”

As much as Naarkerotics tried to help, it didn’t end too well for Orchid. Being further disgusted by the thought, thankfully she would be quickly reassured by the Pegasus’ feminine counterpart. “Oh relax, I’m not going to be relieving this diaper, or even going down your throat. I’ll be sliding into your ass, so you won’t have to worry about a thing~” She reassured, both hoofs squishing down upon the bulging womb. Having already worked the bladder into half of its original size, their focus was shifted back over to the womb. Further assisting the gryphon’s body, as it churned-away towards their next orgasm. “The least you’ll feel, is the fabric against your butt. Though I would still recommend a diaper. It’ll save you from making a mess out here~” Persisting on trying out the white fabric for themselves, Orchid would remain in denial. Instantly shaking her head in disapproval, not wanting to be diapered. “N-No! I’d much rather g-get the second wave done and over w-with, so I can relieve myself properly!” Still yearning to relieve herself somewhere that was far from private, yet being so foolish to think such an opportunity would ever rise. Especially with the feeling of needing to go, already starting to rise within the gryphon’s body. Desiring to relieve the building pressure inside her loins, and take a satisfying dump. Sadly, due to wanting to avoid further embarrassment, she held back on that sweet relief. Thinking she could withstand the pleasurable torment for a bit longer, if it meant finally being done with this painfully pleasurable Vorgy...

As for the twins, they weren't too surprised by the rejection. With the two having been rubbing around for a bit longer, until the three massive bulges were reduced in size. Still noticeable upon the gryphon's body, though it was far more manageable than it was before. "That's fair enough. If you're content with the current digestion, we can continue on with the second wave. After that, you'll be free to go from there. Just tell us when you're ready." Being able to start whenever the gryphon was ready, it didn't take long for the already-stuffed predator, to be nodding her head in approval. Slowly picking herself up into a resting position. Lying on top of her bloated gut, further crushing the clone already being churned within the gastric chamber. "R-Ready to get this done and over with..." She mumbled sheepishly to the twins. Not daring to look at the audience, with her attention remaining purely on her twins. Witnessing the two nodding their heads, with Naarkerotics getting up from their spot. "Perfect! Well let me start this second wave off then. Going to give you something simple to start with, since you're still churning away your previous prey~" The Pegasus' words, were reassuring to Orchid. Especially seeing the male trot his way in front of her. Plopping down upon his stomach, with his hind-hoofs pushed towards the gryphon's beak. Ready to be eaten, though it looked like she would have to do the hard work for once. "Now for a nice change of plans. You'll have to gobble me up by yourself~ I'll help push myself in a small bit, but you'll have to do most of the hard work~" Not forcing himself down the gryphon's throat, he'd wait patiently for his predator to gobble up their delicious meal~

Having been a bit disheartened that she wasn't being fed her meals like earlier, she didn't hesitate to eat her latest prey. Eyes dead-focused upon the hind-hoofs, quickly lunging at them with her parted beak! Having the hoofs sliding against her tongue, before it was quickly followed by a loud GLURK! The wet sound filled the air, as Naarkerotics' hoofs were pushed down the gryphon's gullet. Pushed deeper into the parted beak, and slowly being plummeted towards the stomach. Not providing as much help as he did originally slide down, besides giving the light squirm here and there. Along with pushing himself a bit further with his own front-hooves, though he was mostly giving inspirational words to the avian predator. "You're doing great already! Just keep swallowing like that, and I'll be tucked in your gut in due time~ Then you'll only have three meals left, before you're done with our little event~" Encouraging his predator to continue with their gluttonous task, while watching his legs slowly vanishing into the awaiting gullet. Followed by his waist and bits of his wings. Brought into the humid environment, and getting to join his previous clone in due time. “Make sure to focus on your prey too! Don’t want you getting nervous with a meal halfway lodged down your throat!” This time, Naarkessex would have been. Coming to rest right beside Orchid’s stomach, lightly massaging the bulge lingering inside. Listening to the gastric moans coming from the fleshy chamber, still working on the clone from before. Trying to give as much room as it can, for the prey that was about to slip into the gastric chamber...~

Taking a few more swallows, Naarkerotics’ lower-half would be crammed into the awaiting gastric-chamber. Pushing away at the mushy remains of his previous clone, while his current form was already taking a plunge into the digestive acids. Feeling them already nipping away at his fur, already trying to churn away its next meal. “Heh, looks like someone’s already eager for their next meal~” He couldn’t resist teasing, as his body was being squished around within the gastric-chamber. Unable to move around too much within the cramped environment. Having to squish heavily into his former-self, with the grinding only helping to break away at the clone. Churning them further into a nutrient soup, while helping to further soften away at his body. Causing the curious Pegasus to wonder if he’d be fully engulfed, before his lower-half was no more! There was a few doubts, though he was somewhat-certain he’d be fully tucked away. Especially seeing how close he was to being fully engulfed. Heading drawing closer towards the parted beak, while he was watching the audience the three had gathered. Laughing at the three’s expensive, though it didn’t bother him in the slightest. If anything, he thought the sight was quite arousing by itself! Causing a bit of an erection to grow upon the Pegasus. Rubbing it against the stomach lining, while his vision was slowly overtaken by the fleshy interior of Orchid’s maw. “Almost there! Then all you’ll have left, is three more Pegasus going into your back-end. Though I’m sure you’ll take it like a champ!” Being encouraging to the end, as he slide across the slimy tongue. Spreading his sweet flavoring against the gryphon’s tastebuds, drawing closer towards the gullet. Having only one slimy trip down the gullet, before he’d arrive at his slimy destination...~

Swallowing down the rest of Naarkerotics’ body, fully tucking them away within the hot interior of the chamber. Mushed against the remains of his previous body. Half of them already churned away, with the remains stewing around as a digestive slop. Ready to be absorbed into the gryphon’s body once it was over. Having a little bit of room, there was slight readjusting within the gastric-chamber. Managing to get into an up-right position, just in time for the stomach walls to clamp upon his body. Pressing against his fully-aroused member, drenching it heavily in stomach juices. Not to mention sending a wave of stimulation throughout the Pegasus' body. Moaning out in a sweet ecstasy, though it was easily muffled out from the noisy BURRRRRRAAAAEEEEELCH coming from outside. "Nice~ That's the sound of one stuffed, and satisfied predator~" He mused mostly to himself, while grinding away against the stomach lining. Feeling the slimy flesh already grinding against his member, it made for a perfect grinding spot. With the added bonus of the walls kneading against his cock. Further stimulating the already stimulated equine. Getting to bask away in the hot confines of the stomach, and slowly be churned into gryphon mush. Certainly, it didn't seem like it could be getting any than this! That is, until he felt the familiar outlines of hoofs pressing against his body. Originating around his chest-regions, before slowly working its way down towards his member. Squishing the stomach lining against the throbbing member, evoking a pleased moan from the Pegasus! Making it hard to possibly sit still, as he'd enter a squirmy state. Grinding himself against his leftover remains, though most importantly, stimulating his cock. Drawing him close to a climax, with such a heavenly high. "F-Fuck...~ Are you trying to get me a hoof-job while you're at it~?"

His playful jab towards his sister, was greeted to the hoofs pushing harder against the member! Firmly pinning the throbbing mass against the Pegasus' body, with the pre oozing onto his drenched-fur. Getting to hear that familiar feminine giggle, as the hoofs grinded against the cock. "Perhaps~ I was hoping you would have saved the gut for me. But looks like I get to enjoy going into her cunt again~ Though don't think you're getting away, without some kind of punishment~" If one can even call it that. Knowing the pleasure heavily outweighed any 'negatives', it was like the punishment was non-existent! Yet, it didn't stop Naarkessex from eagerly kneading into the stomach. Squishing around the bulging mass that contained its prey. Softening away at its currently-aroused morsel, while breaking down what remained of the other. Filling the air in a series of wet gastric moans, that were becoming almost deafening. Able to drown out the laughter coming from outside, and evoking a loud BURRAAAAPP from the gryphon! Releasing any leftover air lingering in her stomach, and having the gastric-chamber tighten around its prey. Creating a far-more detailed outline of the Pegasus tucked away. Their frontal-half being on full display for the two, with the member being at the center of attention. Stimulating it with each press of hoof, feeling it throb underneath the layers of flesh and muscles. "Good news Orchid, I won't be doing this for much longer. Looks like your aroused prey will reach their peak soon. Which means you'll get to enjoy your meal in just a bit~" Teasing of her inevitable entry into the gryphon's rear, she curiously looked at the gryphon's face. Seeing the once heavily-flustered avian, panting for breath. Eyes focused back upon her, and their stomach, waiting for the inevitable peak, and for their stomach to fill a bit more from the Pegasus~

Between the stomach walls grinding against him, and the kneading hoofs from outside, Naarkerotics was in a state of pure ecstasy! Losing his mind to the pleasurable high, lustfully pounding away against whatever he could! Wanting to reach that wonderful peak, yet bask in the heat of the moment. One going to overcome the other, and it wouldn't have taken long for the pleasure to become too much. Managing to get a few bucks in, before hitting that blissful peak! With a pleased cry being his only warning, before the load rushed its way out of the shaft. Splattering against the lining, causing the mess to backsplash upon the Pegasus' body. Drenching him in his own musky mess, staining his fur in the heavy-cream. Filling the already stale air, with the heavy aroma of sex. Further intoxicating the already lust-filled equine, riding off his pleasurable load. "A-Aaaah~ T-Totally worth it~" His voice coming out in a low mumble, with a devious grin resting upon his face. Hidden underneath the fleshy internals of the gryphon, being in a state of sheer ecstasy. Knowing full well his body was already mostly-softened at this point, and being slowly dripped off of him. Starting from his hoofs, and working its way up to his wings! Melting away at them, slowly but surely. The process having been painless, due to the numbness taking over his body. Swiftly nullifying any pain receptors upon his body, making the digestion to be a painless, but enjoyable experience. And what a better way to enjoy a digestive end, than rubbing one off? Being able to end his experience quite happily, though he wasn't going to be done entering the gryphon's body just yet. After all, he still had a trip into the gryphon's womb, before she'd be free from his clones~

Outside of the stomach, Naarkessex was finishing up her kneading. Already feeling her brother reach their climactic peak from inside, bringing an end to their so called 'punishment'. "There we go~ Now that he's partially churned away in there, I think it's time I take a trip back into your body~" Focusing her main attention back over towards the gryphon's rear, she slid a few feet towards the plump behind. Taking in the additional bits of padding going straight to the avian's hips, before her attention was shifted onto the back entrance. Seeing the once-tight hole, was gaping open. As if someone had fucked it just moments ago, or perhaps even slipped inside~ "Are you ready for your next meal, Orchid? I'm sure my brother will give you some time to work me into a pile of horseapples, before he dives into your cunt. So you won't have to worry about it~"

Taking things slower the second wave, it was a blessing in disguise for Orchid. Not wanting to end up becoming a big flustered mess from too many prey, she was ecstatic to hear of the mini-breaks she would be receiving. With her stomach already feeling much smaller than it was before eating Naarkerotics, she was hoping the same would happen with her more sensitive regions. “R-Ready!” She shouted over the loud gastric moans that filled the air. Keeping the crowd mostly inaudible to the gryphon, while she stared at her next meal already aligning themselves to the pucker. Snout pushed against the stretched-hole, causing an instinctive clench to occur throughout her body. The back-entrance, lightly kissing the Pegasus’ pucker, ready to gobble down its delicious meal~

“Hehe, cute~” Naarkessex mumbled to herself, before pushing against the back-entrance. Feeling the slimy pucker stretch itself over her facial features, slipping over her body with relative ease! Before it was swiftly clenching itself down against her neck in a loud SLURREELCH! Trapped inside of the humid interior, before tugging the Pegasus a few inches deeper. Hungrily consuming at its latest meal, as it entered a series of tight squeeze and releases. Working at an impressively-quick rate, with her neck being easily engulfed by the hungry behind! “Looks like someone’s quite hungry. Or perhaps you’ve been wanting a dildo up your ass again. I did hear about that dildo of yours earlier~” Teasing of their little dildo issue earlier, it didn’t seem like she would get much of a response out of Orchid. Other than the blissful squawks flooding out of their beak. Being in a state of pure ecstasy once again, with the Pegasus’ presence inside their rear. It didn’t stop the gryphon’s body from instinctively tugging in more of her figure. With her fore-legs and hoofs already being pushed into the slimy interior. Squished around against the intestinal lining, drenched in the heavy amount of anal fluids. Fortunately for her, it didn’t seem like she was hitting any dirty blockages... yet. While it was clean for the first part of Naarkessex’s journey, she knew it wasn’t going to be lasting for much longer. Especially with the familiar aroma of crap filling her nostrils, telling of the decayed state of the former clone. The odor slowly becoming more prominent, the deeper she slipped into the bowels. Becoming stronger than the musky behind, to the point that it was almost on top of the Pegasus! Being just a bit further into the stinky depths, destined to be encountering the shitty remains of her brother~

Getting up to her hips inside of the rear end, and taking a few more twists within the avian’s bowels, she’d have a shitty encounter with the leftover remains! Pushed head-first into the lingering remains, as it plastered itself against Naarkessex’s lower-half. Getting mostly below her lips, staining her orange fur a disgusting shade of brown. Working its way further upon her body, while she slipped deeper into the tight confines. Feeling her pampered bottom, being engulfed past the pucker. Only a little bit more, and she'd be suffering the same shitty fate, as her brother. "Just a bit further Orchid! Then we'll see just how much of my body will turn into your next bowel movement~" Being encouraging for her pred to finish anally engulfing their meal, having her own mischievous intentions of being turned to shit. After all, she wasn't wearing a diaper for nothing. Even though it was quite cozy, she had other intentions of using the white fabric. Not so white now, as it was being drenched in a heavy amount of anal fluids. Already making it a soggy mess from being inside the distended intestines, going to be getting a lot worse once she was churned away. Till then, she'd relax within the hot interior. Being mushed with each passing squelch of the intestinal walls. Rubbing the nearby piles of gryphon manure into her fur, arousing the Pegasus in the process! Causing a heavy dampness to form within Naarkessex's nether regions, she so desperately wanted to toy with. Only to be unable to mess with herself, having the environment being too tight to move her hoofs back. Forcing her to wait for just a bit longer, while her hind-legs were being enveloped by the pucker. Drawing one step closer to being fully engulfed, and even closer to having her own personal fun within the gryphon's body~

Taking a few more tight squeezes from the intestinal track, Naarkessex was sealed away within Orchid's bowels! Being pushed through a few more intestinal-bends, before she was resting peacefully against the intestinal lining. No longer moving deeper into her predator's body, with the environment becoming mostly stationing. With the only real exception, being the occasional kneading of the lining. Drenching the Pegasus in a heavy amount of anal fluids, and prepping her for the inevitable scatification that was about to take place. "Good job Orchid! It looks like you won't have to worry about anymore prey going into your rear!" She shouted at the top of her lungs, trying to sound delighted her main predator was able to keep going after so many prey! Though she was uncertain if her voice would be overheard from the constant growls that came from the digestive track. Specifically the stomach, with the scent of burnt fur, and digestive acids being prominent within the intestines. While it was certainly nowhere close by, the odor still lingered within the gryphon's digestive track. Reminding her of the tingly fate that had fallen upon her brother, though her fate was far shittier than a digestive bath. Going to be turned into actual piles of shit, it was one of her favorites way to go out! Which probably was a heavy influence to why she was feeling so aroused at this point. Her nether regions starting to become needy, as they quivered in arousal. Desperately wanting to be toyed around with, with the Pegasus eager to satisfy her sexual desires! No longer having the walls be skin-tight around her body, she dug her hoofs towards the diaper. Pushing back against the still relatively-tight walls that surrounded her, but finally getting to feel the drenched fabric upon her touch. “Aaaah~ Now it’s time for the real fun~” She mumbled to herself, eager to jack herself into a pile of horseapples~

Unluckily, or perhaps luckily, she wasn’t going to be doing it alone. Feeling as the walls suddenly tightening around her messy diaper, with the faint sensation of hoofs being felt indenting the intestinal lining. Already being a dead giveaway, to who it was. “I was wondering when you were going to reform out there! Expected you to start rubbing, as soon as I pushed myself inside!” Shouting to no other than Naarkerotics, the orange Pegasus had been chuckling to himself. Sitting right beside Orchid’s bloated intestines, while the gryphon squawked in their blissful ecstasy. Mind having gone into another blissful high, leaving the twins to be messing around with one another. “Heh, well you should have known I was going to take a bit to come back! Was savoring that blissful high you gave me, before I was churned into mush~” Reminiscing on the pleasurable experience of stewing away in the gryphon’s gut, he couldn’t resist taking a few glances over to the stomach. No longer as heavily bloated as it had been originally, it was still apparent the gryphon had quite the fulfilling meal. Going to be a while to completely churn away, like the other meals found on their back-end. Halfway, to mostly being reduced to their natural bodily waste, except for its latest addition. Though even the latest adding bulge, wasn’t going to be lasting for much longer. Not when he was ready to knead away at it! Both fore-hoofs pushing back against the intestines, ready to smoothen out the giant bulge found within. “Though don’t worry, I’m sure you’ll be able to enjoy yourself, just like how our dear friend Orchid is~”

“Heh, how lovely~ Means I can jack off in peace, without having to worry about churning myself too slowly~” In fact, Naarkessex was already a good portion of the way through the scatification process. Her body becoming already well-softened, with parts of her already being turned a hideous shade of brown. Mostly from her hoofs, with a bit of it also affecting her wings. Yet, that didn’t stop her from enjoying her shitty environment. Digging her hoofs into the diaper, pushing it against her nether folds with a pleasurable moan! Feeling the slimy fabric digging into her wet folds, stimulating at the needy walls. Partially satisfying her lustful nature, though she was greedy. Yearning for more of that heavenly feeling, causing her hoofs to dig deeper into the diaper! Creating an indent within the used-fabric, acting as a partial dildo to stuff into her folds. “S-Sweet Celest...

You better make sure you're pushing around near my crotch! Want to get off, before both my hoofs are turned to complete shit!" While it wouldn't be the first time it's happened, she did have other ways of still getting off without her hoofs. Thankfully, with how aroused she was, and feeling the delightful pleasure coursing through her body, she wasn't going to last too long within her humid environment. Feeling the walls kneading heavily against her crotch, while the diaper rubbed at the interior of her cunt. Filling with blissful moan after blissful moan, riding on the sweet wave of ecstasy. Trying to ride it off to the best of her ability, while her body was giving way into numbness. Losing feelings in her hoofs, but she kept going! Not wanting to stop, till she reached that wonderful high!

And with the help of her twin, Naarkessex would be able to reach that blissful high. Letting out an ecstatic and heavily muffled cry from the tight interior, before orgasming! Sending a wave of femmy juices out of her womanhood, and directly into the bit of diaper trapped inside. Drenching it in her sweet fluids, capturing her heavenly load inside of the soiled fabric. It was also capturing bits and pieces of her scatified body. Mainly the small chunks that managed to slip into the diaper, lightly staining it brown with its sheer presence. In truth, Naarkessex wouldn't have even felt the familiar sensation of shit in her diaper, with the heavenly feeling greatly overpowering it. Keeping the Pegasus in a state of sweet ecstasy, while her body was slowly crumbling to its raunchy fate. "Heh, well you can rest easy in there now. I'm certain that you were able to reach a climax, like I had earlier~" From outside of the intestinal track, Naarkerotics had rested both hoofs upon the still-bloated bulge upon Orchid's intestines. Still being noticeable upon the predator's body, though it had slightly reduced in size. "Hope you bask in it for as long as you can. Don't know how much longer you have, till your body turns to shit~ I know I'm personally looking forward to bathing in this gryphon's next orgasm. Isn't that right, Orchid~?" He turned his attention back over towards the gryphon, to see her slowly coming back to reality. Still heavily pleased, especially with the Pegasus churning away inside of her bowels. "W-Wha...? Can't I relieve myself first, before you go in t-there...?" As much as she wanted to get this done and over with, Orchid could feel the urge to relieve her body. Mainly her bladder and womb, seeing they were almost ready for release! Needing just a bit more to fully churn away at the lingering leftovers, before it was fully converted to a sweet bodily fluid.

“Huh, a break? We’re so close to finishing! Can’t you hold it in for a bit longer? Or better yet, put on a diaper, after I get tucked away in there~” Being far from the idea of taking a break, Naarkerotics was all too eager to slip into the gryphon’s cunt. Perhaps a bit too eager, as he shifted over towards her rear end. Hind-legs already spread-apart, making it all too easy to push his head towards the womanhood. Nuzzling into the hot flesh, feeling the soaked walls upon his snout. “Oh my, you certainly are aroused~ Well we’ll see how long this takes. Then you’ll have only one more prey, then you’ll be free to do as you please~” Promising of being free once the last set of twins were inside, surely Orchid could withstand this pleasurable hell for a bit longer! Knowing she won’t climax when a prey is inside of her, she could only hope they were quick on entering her body! “A- Alright...! Please try to be q-quick!” Slightly pleading in her tone for it to be quick, she would get exactly what she wanted! In the form of an abrupt entry, as Naarkerotics slammed himself into the awaiting nether regions! A loud SLURREEELCH filled the air, with the walls instinctively clinging onto its prey. Tugging the Pegasus deeper into the awaiting folds, with the very prey pushing himself deeper. Trying his best to penetrate into the womb! The only issue that would come out of it, was the immense pleasure that came out of it. And dear Celestia... Orchid wasn’t truly prepared for her foolish wish...~

Upon entry, her body instantly tensed from its intruder! Causing an incoherent cry to be evoked, as she was overtaken by the pleasure. Falling back over onto her side, as the sweet ecstasy made it almost impossible to move around. Let alone possibly keep most of her bodily fluids inside! Having some of her orgasm already slipping out of her womb, and splattering against the Pegasus’ head! Getting a taste of that sweet nectar, before Orchid tightened her body again. Trying her hardest to keep the load inside, but it was a losing game at this point. “F-FUCK!” She screamed in the dreadful ecstasy! Feeling herself leaking the heavenly juices. It was the only thing she was being able to think about! Beside the sheer ecstasy that came from Naarkerotics’ body, forcefully jamming himself into her cunt. Looking to have been getting most of his body inside, with only their hind-legs remaining outside of her body. Though she knew that wasn’t going to be long, seeing how well the walls squeezed around its prey. Tugging him closer towards the filled womb, knowing full well it wasn’t going to stay like that for long. Especially with Naarkerotics’ head being pushed against the cervix. Closed shut, entering a small stalemate for the gryphon. Holding back on fully consuming her prey, while the pleasure was becoming too immense for her to handle. Desperately wanting to keep as much of her load inside, she would have to come to a decision. Whether to fully embrace her orgasm coming out, and embracing the lewd behavior. Or to stay in refusal. Inevitably breaking in the end, and making a giant mess of herself~

Sadly for Orchid, she remained in denial. Not willing to fully give into the pleasure, and prevent any more fluids from rushing out! However, she'd come to find her fight would be in utter vain. Once Naarkerotics' head would cram itself into her awaiting cervix. Spreading open the sensitive passageway, and finally releasing the flood gates! Giving the prey-ish Pegasus, a taste of what he'll soon become. As the sweet nectar rushed its way out of the womb! Finally escaping from its lengthy entombment within the gryphon's body, and pouring through the vaginal passageway. Drenching the prey that was fortunate enough to be there for the climactic breakthrough. Before inevitably splattering against the wooden floorboards. Staining them with the heavily musky aroma of gryphon sex. Though most importantly, it brought a wave of sheer relief throughout Orchid's body. Being almost like something she hadn't experienced before! Though she could at least compare it to the pleasurable sensation of relief. Emptying one's bodily fluids, after holding it in for hours on end. While she hadn't been keeping it in for that long, the feeling was pure bliss. Nothing could ever beat this wonderful sensation. It even felt better than having that dildo constantly jammed inside of her ass! Basking in the sweet relief of an empty womb, the feeling only temporary for the Pegasus. As her body continued to hungrily work in the rest of Naarkerotics' body. Pushing him past the nether lips, and swiftly into the cervix. Slipping into the once orgasm-stuffed chamber, bound to be suffering the same pleasurable demise like his dear twin~

The engulfing process, was much faster the second time around. Being perhaps instinctive nature, or perhaps Orchid being so intoxicated by the pleasure, her body could do the hard work with ease. Regardless of what it was, her womb-filler would be swiftly arriving at his destination. Taking only a few tight squeezes, before Naarkerotics' being completely engulfed by the womb. His tail being the last to join him, before the cervix sealed itself shut. Trapping its latest prey, and already beginning to fill with the clear digestive juices. Eager to break the Pegasus down into another blissful orgasm, as was the Pegasus eager to turn into such a messy load. Working the juices into his fur, already having his digestion process well underway. "Only one more prey, and you'll be done with the Vorgy! I know you can do it Orchid, just a little bit more!" Wanting to give the gryphon the small bit of motivation she needed to finish up, and help them through this pleasurable experience! In reality, it seemed his encouraging words would, fall upon deafened ears. Or in this case, pleased ones. Still riding off that wave of ecstasy, the gryphon was far from being able to answer. Having been letting out a series of pleasurable bird-like cries, while her body handled the new pleasurable load brewing in her womb. At this point, it felt like the crowd was non-existent. Nothing more than a giant blur, or even a faded voice if she was able to pick up on it. Only for it to be instantly forgotten, by the pleasure keeping her body in such an ecstatic state!

Being filled to the blissful high, she wouldn't have even noticed Naarkessex strolling on by. Having been reformed once again, she sat down beside the bulging womb. Idly stroking around at the mass that contained her brother, listening to the noisy moans coming from the sweet motherhood. "Hehe, she really is out of it. I'm guessing she finally decided to embrace her sexual desires~?" From looking at the gryphon's current blissful state, it wasn't hard to tell how lost into the lust Orchid was. Getting off, after having been so hard in their denial. To the point it would end up breaking her, but hopefully in a good way! Sadly, it didn't seem to be the case, from what Naarkerotics was about to say. "I don't think so just yet...!" His tone being slightly displeased, though that wasn't going to stop him from getting the gryphon to enjoy herself. "I could tell she was hesitant on letting me into her womb. Though it seemed like that changed, once her load came out! Perhaps we can do something similar to her bladder, before giving that rear a nice pampering~" Hinting to their future plans, seeing they weren't exactly done with the gryphon just yet. There was still a bit more fun to be had, before their grand pleasure had reached its end. "That does sound like a good idea~ I'll make sure to wiggle around in her bladder when I can. It'll be one of the most pleasurable golden showers I've gotten~" Already imagining just how delightful it will be to inevitably sink into that cunt one more time~

However, with Orchid still in that blissful high. Off in that wonderful pleasure, though it was slowly starting to die down. With Naarkerotics tucked away, and the original load of femmy juices being gone, it would bring them back to some sense of reality. All Naarkessex had to do now, was wait. Thankfully, there was plenty to keep the Pegasus preoccupied. With her main attention having already been kneading around at the bulge containing her brother. Working to soften away at the lustful prey, and churn them slowly into a pool of femmy juices. "I'm just going to assist in your churning away for a bit. At least until Orchid comes out of their pleasurable high. Would certainly hate to go into a predator, that doesn't even know I'm making my grand return into their bladder~" She teased, though she was certain the gryphon would feel one of their most sensitive regions being stretched open. If anything, it was just an excuse for her to playfully knead away at her brother's body. Feeling his softening form, grow mushier with each passing knead. Accompanied by the loud and noisy sloshes of the avian's body, as it worked upon its meal. "Totally~" Naarkerotics responded in a playfully sarcastic tone. What remained of his fore-hoofs, being pushed against the nearby lining. Rubbing along where he had felt his sister's touch. "Well you better churn me away as much as you can. I'm sure you'll want me to aid in your digestion, and I won't be able to do that when I'm still sloshing around in here~" Being more than happy to taunt the other on back, he would be answered by a heavy shove from outside! Compacting the fleshy interior, and rubbing more of the clear juices upon his body. Ensuring he was going to be turned into a pool of femmy juices in due time~

Having the kneading process last for a few minutes, most of Naarkerotics' body would be already sloshing around as a giant pile of goop. No longer carrying any clear physical form, with most of it already starting to slip off of his body. Coming to already join the heavy amount of femmy juices. The load, already making a decently-large pool inside of the gryphon's womb. Causing what had been what was once a massive bulge upon the gryphon's body, to shrink down in size. Slowly rounding itself out with the digestion process, all thanks to Naarkessex continuously kneading against the womb. Transferring one whole Pegasus, into a mostly-goopy mass. That was only growing more into a load of femmy juices, with each passing second. "That's it, all nice and smooth. Just the way I like to see~" She happily cooed, admiring how much the mass has shrunken down in size. Uncertain if her brother was still conscious within the sloshing depths, or was perhaps already passed out from the transformation process. Whatever it was, it wouldn't have kept the Pegasus' attention for long. As a new sound would capture Naarkessex's attention. Being that, of an exhausted groan. Coming from no other, than the gryphon themselves, her attention was shifted over towards them. Finding the heavily-pleasured avian, to be coming back to reality. "A-Augh... Is it over y-yet...? How long have I been in a state of s-sheer ecstasy...?" Orchid groaned, looking to have been worn out from the entire experience. Not that she could possibly be blamed for it! Having engulfed a total of seven prey so far, it was a lot of pressure for one single predator to handle! Draining her both mentally and physically, going to be needing some time to rest after such a pleasurable high.

"Not yet! Though you only got one more, so you're almost there. Just one more prey into your bladder, and you'll be completely free to go~" Naarkessex, having been trying to keep the gryphon motivated to the very end, was also wanting to wrap things up. Seeing signs of a responding predator, the Pegasus was already scooting her way towards the back-entrance. Snout pushed against the heavily-stretched folds, eyeing down upon the gryphon's urethra. "The good news at least, it'll be a quick, and mostly painless! Though at least you'll get to enjoy the pleasure that'll come out of it~" And keeping to the quick nature, she wasted no time cramming herself into the awaiting cunt! Spreading open the nether-passageway, with a loud moan being heard from just outside! Followed by the audible SLURREELCH, as her head was encased by the fleshy walls. Clinging instinctively against her face, and tugging her further into the awaiting tunnels. Attempting to give them the same fate as her twin, though she was bound to stay on course. Keeping her snout pointed earthwards, it didn't take long for her snout to catch upon the urethra. Coming to find it already stretching around her facial features. Not putting up a fight, like it had originally. Instead, it was eagerly clamping down upon what bits of her face that they could! Making sure it had a firm enough grasp, as it detoured the Pegasus. Bringing her to a far raunchier environment, with the smell of urine being at its strongest. Especially seeing, how the bladder was still filled with a heavy pool of urine. Audibly sloshing around from just above, waiting for the moment of sweet relief. And it wasn't going to have to wait for much longer, with Naarkessex closing the distance. Anticipating the golden shower that'll cover her body in the musky fluids~

Slipping inside inch by inch, it wasn't long till Naarkessex's snout was pushed against the sphincter. The only thing stopping the urine from flooding out, and her entrance into the awaiting bladder. Though unlike the cervix, the sphincter didn't put up much resistance. Being pushed against the sensitive entrance, the sphincter instinctively opened in size! Small at first, with the tight entrance clinging onto the Pegasus' snout. Squeezing her within its slimy grip, before tugging her into the bladder! Piercing into the pool of golden fluids, submerging her into a lovely bath! Though this bath, was quickly turning into a shower. As she was being pushed into the fleshy enclosure, the piss was starting to rush its way out! Rushing out through the small gaps around her body, it didn't take long for Naarkessex to be absolutely drenched in gryphon piss. The scent, clinging onto the Pegasus' body, as it left no part of her figure untouched! Going to be reeking of gryphon for months on end, or until her body was completely reduced to the same golden fluids. As for the current load, it rushed its way out of Orchid's nether-lips! Splattering upon the wooden floorboards, right beside the puddles of cum that was slowly starting to dry out. The two fluids mixing together, causing the musky aroma to further intensify with the two fluids! Making anyone that smelled the mixed odor, to become light-headed from the stale air! Fortunately for Orchid, it didn't seem like that was ever going to be an issue.

Already ecstasy-filled, and back on cloud nine. Riding off the wonderful pleasure, that was taking another meal vaginally. Ridding the gryphon's minds of any worries of holding it in, or being publicly humiliated out in public. All thanks to the pleasurable sensation, of finally relieving her bladder. And of course, the Pegasus currently being jammed into her cunt~

Just like her brother, it wouldn't have taken long for Naarkessex's body to be stuffed away into the tight confines of the bladder. Stretching out the sensitive interior, and forcing the Pegasus to enter a ball-like position. Resting in a small pool of urine, the only remains of the heavy load from before. Unable to completely be emptied out, but drastically reduced in sheer volume. "Good job out there! You finally did it Orchid, you ate all of your prey for the Vorgy!" The orange Pegasus was quick to congratulate Orchid on the job well done! Managing to have eaten eight whole prey, it was quite the amazing feat! With most of the clones being reduced away into their own bodily waste, it left her to be the only whole meal. Though even that wasn't going to be for long, with the urine nipping away at her feathers and fur. Slowly softening away at her body, prepping to be transformed into a new batch of steamy gryphon piss. As was the way things going for the Pegasus, but she had no complaints about it. Loving every second she had inside of the fleshy organ, and bathing in the liquid waste. "Now all that's left, is to churn me away, and you can go ahead and relax for the rest of the day. Doesn't that sound quite wonderful~?" Continuing her conversation with Orchid, she pressed her head against the fleshy lining. Listening to the heavy panting coming from the avian, having tried her best to relax after another pleasurable prey. Heart beating a mile away, and showing no signs of slowing. By the looks of it, the gryphon was off in another pleasurable high. Seeming like it'll be a while, before she'll get to talk with her predator again...

Fortunate enough for Naarkessex, she was soon greeted by a familiar set of indents. "I doubt she'll hear it, but I'm sure she's very happy about finally being done. Though I wonder if she'll still be embarrassed, seeing that huge crowd is still watching us." Naarkerotics thought out loud. Letting his mind wander into the future, when the gryphon would snap out of her pleasurable state. Coming to find just how much of an audience had watched the Vorgy. Witnessing every moment of adultery for the trio, certainly it would destroy someone. "I honestly think she's going to be embarrassed about it, though it would be a pleasant surprise to see her embrace a lewd lifestyle. Who knows, she could even use that bird as a dildo~" He took a glance over towards Hi Rez. The budgie, having gotten closer, was resting by Orchid's head. Curiously watching their owner pant and groan, as they slowly got off their pleasurable high. With said ecstasy slowly dying in intensity, along with the help from his kneading. Sluggishly bringing them back to reality, not to mention shrinking the massive bulge in their bladder. "I certainly hope so too! Would make it a joy to mess with her again. I'm sure she'll like it. And if not, a bit of 'friendly influence' might just push her into liking this kind of stuff~" Naarkessex's voice came out in a heavily muffled tone, with their body already losing most of their physical form. Being turned into the acidic golden fluids, with the added benefit of bathing within the liquid waste. "Don't think it'll be too much, just a slight push over the edge, should push Orchid into loving this kind of stuff~"

"Sounds like a plan then~" Naarkessex being quick to agree, wanting to stimulate the gryphon for a little bit longer. Seeing how they were slowly starting to come out of another high, it wasn't going to be long till she'd enact the next part of their plans. "Better enjoy yourself as much as you can, because it looks like she's starting to come out of it. Slowly for sure, but she'll want to relieve herself soon." Especially with another hole needing to be relieved, she moved her hoof along the gryphon's body. Shifting it from the shrinking bulge from the bladder, towards the avian's intestinal track. Getting a feel for the clump and copious amounts of manure lingering inside. Most likely having been from the two anal treats, though she wouldn't be surprised if some of the tummy prey were making their appearance within the mess. "Heh. Someone's ready to relieve themselves. It's amazing they lasted this long, without shitting themselves!" It was a miracle in that regard, with a hoof drawing close to the gryphon's pucker. Getting a feel for the noticeable bulges upon their lower-half. Telling of the bowel movement, that was ready to come out at any moment! And perhaps it would be coming out soon, with a little outside influence. Perhaps a small shove of her hoofs, would be enough to get the bowels going. To finally release at the lingering load, waiting for the sweet form of release from the gryphon's bowels! Though she wasn't going to bring that wave of relief just yet. Knowing it was all up to her avian predator, to put an end to their voracious fun~

It seemed like a minute or so would pass, before she would hear anything from the ecstasy-filled gryphon. And when there was a sound, at best it came out in a tired moan. Drained away at most of her energy, with the return to reality, not being the kindest for Orchid. "A-Augh... How much more of this do we have to d-d-..." She grumbled out, only to be caught mid-sentence, once she saw the crowd. Completely staring at her, with their amused laughter having died down. Turning to more looks of disgust, seeing the event was finally over. And most of the crowd was not pleased with her performance. “You’re supposed to hold in your fluids! Fucking pathetic excuse for a bird!” A voice could be heard, somewhere from within the crowd. Hidden away by the countless of faces, but their remark was certainly causing an uproar. Having the nearby ponies coming to join along in the insult. Calling her more degenerate words like ‘whore’, ‘slut’, and ‘overgrown bird’. All of them being incredibly hurtful towards the gryphon, seeing she didn’t have any control over it! “W-Wait! I didn’t mean to! It was an a-accident!” Clamming up to her previous self, heavily flustered from the cruel words! Undoing absolutely everything the twins had done to get her to embrace the lewd life. Completely undone by the taunting laughter coming from the crowd. Growing louder in a chorus, with more of the crowd getting in on it. Making sure she knew just how much of a raunchy slut she was; Orchid was defenseless against the verbal assault! Body tensing in a heavily-stressed state. Wishing she had stayed home, and never gotten to this embarrassing event!

It was only then, did things go from worse, to downright horrifying for Orchid. Attempting to keep herself together, she could hear a sickening, splat! Followed by what sounded like a few smaller squishes, and what sounded like almost crinkling. Downright confusing the gryphon, until she looked behind her. Daring to take a look at her behind, and instantly freezing upon the raunchy sight! Lying in front of her, was a few clumps of crap, a shit-covered Pegasus skull, and a crinkled diaper. Heavily drenched in shit and anal juices, resting close to the skull. Telling of the clone that last came out, being nothing more than a pile of gryphon manure, ready to come out. “Oh C-Celestia! This day seriously c-can’t get any worse...” Staring directly at the mess she made for herself, she was disgusted by the sights! She couldn’t keep that out in the open, she’s got to save some fragment of her dignity! “S-Such a mess... I can’t believe I let my body r-relieve itself already...” Guilting herself on the accidental release, it wasn’t like she could help that part of her body. Already having released her other bodily fluids, her body ached for its rectal release! Yet, she tried her best to keep it in. Focusing her attention upon the leftover crap, with her talons opening at the messy diaper. Coming to find it was already filled with the shitty remains of the Pegasus’ body. Bits and pieces of bone, being scattered among the mounds of crap. Looking to have just enough room for her to start cleaning up this disgusting act. “I guess eating them with that diaper, wasn’t such a bad idea...” She mumbled under her breath, before scooping at the clumps of crap. Hoping to be putting this nightmare to an end. Completely unfocused on her digesting bladder, bound to be needing its sweet relief soon~

Taking only a few moments, Orchid would manage to partially clean away at the mess. Picking up the clumps of scat littering around the stage, before being jammed into the diaper. Leaving only the leftover puddle of femmy juices and urine to cover the ground. Something she couldn't possibly clean up herself, though she was at least able to partially clean up her mess. "T-There we go! Get to avoid a total disaster!" She was talking to herself, more than anyone else. Trying to keep her focus away from the laughing crowd, and onto the tidied-up mess! Unfortunately for her, this wouldn't keep her attention for much longer. As something new would be touching the gryphon's body. Specifically, her rear end. "N-Naarkerotics...?" She said in a slightly hopeful tone, thinking it may have been the orange Pegasus. However, the touch felt too soft to be a hoof. Not to mention the small crinkles that accompany the sound, further confusing the gryphon on what was possibly happening back there. Forcing her to turn around in morbid curiosity, and audibly gasping upon the horrific sight! Resting right by her rear, were the twins. Both looking to have a devious grin upon their faces, with their attention looking directly at Orchid's rear end. Coming to find there was a plain-white diaper resting upon her butt. Puffy, and fully visible for the nearby crowd to stare at. Though her main attention was focused upon the twins. Seeing their playful grins, grow a bit further upon her acknowledgement of the diaper. "Hello again Orchid~" Naarkerotics could be heard, as he patted at the top of the pampered cloth. Having the interior fabric, push against the gryphon's feathers. Further reminding her of her current diapered fate~

"Y-You can't be serious; I didn't agree to wearing a diaper!" Orchid was quick to protest, not pleased in the slightest to have a diaper on her ass. This wasn't anywhere in the sign up, she wanted these off, right away! Twisting a talon towards the white-fabric, she'd abruptly double down in pain. Evoking a pained groan from the avian, with both talons stroking around upon her bladder. "C-Celestia! W-Why the fuck do I have to pee so badly!?!)" Completely forgetting she just took in a prey through her bladder, she would be answered by two playful giggles from the twins. Followed by Naarkessex purposefully pushing down upon the bladder. Sloshing the bladder-filled urine inside of its tight enclosure. "Oh, did you forget you had me churning away in there? Naarkerotics helped finish the rest of the churning process. Now you got two more bodily fluids to dispose of. Along with what's lingering in your ass~" They playfully taunted the Pegasus, reminding her that she wasn't done just yet! Having just a bit more to go through, only having to relieve herself on stage to a live audience! However, Orchid wasn't willing to do it. No matter how badly her body wanted to relieve the piss sloshing inside of her body. Desperately wanting out, especially with the heavy shove from Naarkessex. Evoking a pained cry out of the gryphon, testing her limits, until it would finally break her. Mentally giving in to the desperate need of release, and having the hot urine finally be released from the bladder~

Before she could do anything, the sound of wet crinkling filled the air. Caused by the outgoing piss, as it came out in a heavy rush! Splattering against the fabric on impact, with the diaper ready to absorb at the liquid waste. Changing the once perfectly-white fabric, into a bright-yellow. Starting off as a small patch, but quickly growing in size. Turning half of the fabric into that rich golden-yellow, with an audience being ready to see. Only adding to the embarrassment, though it seemed that was the least of Orchid's worries. Having her upset nature, being quickly calmed through a pleasuring 'Aaaah~'. Accompanied by the heavy wave of relief that was coming through her body. Coming as a small shudder, that worked its way down her body. As she basked in the sweet pleasure of relief. Feeling that one massive bulge, quickly shrinking down in size. No longer horribly bulging her out, as the urine rushed its way out of the urethra. Filling in the diaper, and leaving a gryphon in a state of blissful pleasure. Tempted to jack off to the sweet sensation, and unload another wave of bodily fluids that were bulging her out. While her need to release the femmy juices were high, it was far from bad when compared to her bladder. Though with the stimulating sensation of her bladder being relieved, brought further arousal upon her body. Yearning for one more pleasurable high, before the end of the show~

"P-Perhaps it won't be too bad...~" Orchid muttered, already heavily influenced by her arousal. Bringing her talons to the diaper, pulling upon the soiled-fabric. Opening it just enough for her talon to get inside, before releasing the diaper. Allowing her to move her talons around somewhat-freely inside of the soiled-fabric. Being drenched in the pouring piss, having it reek heavily of musk and sex. However, it didn't stop Orchid from her pleasurable quest! Using the urine as a guide to her cunt, she slipped her talons against the nether regions. Finding her digits easily sinking through the fleshy entrance, with the walls having been stretched out from her previous prey. Making it far too easy, for her talons to rub around against the sensitive interior! Hitting at just the right pleasurable spots, and even managing to evoke a blissful squawk out of the avian! Fueling her lust with each move against the vaginal walls. Slightly getting soaked from the occasional run-in with the rushing urine, still it didn't stop her from rubbing away against the nearby flesh. Growing all so needy with her body begging for release. Having it grow stronger, while the stream of urine was slowly coming to an end. The once strong pleasurable ecstasy of relief, quickly dying along with it. Losing one form of pleasure, while trying to reach another wonderful high. Forcing Orchid into a dead-focused state. Wanting nothing more than to reach that climactic orgasm, and nobody was going to possibly stop her!

Pushing herself to the very end, it wasn't long till Orchid would reach one more wonderful peak! Opening the cervix, and having the latest load rush its way into the vaginal passageway. Coming out in a heavy flood, instantly drenching the gryphon's talons with the sweet nectar. Being the delightful remains of the Pegasus, nothing more than a clear fluid rushing its way out of the cunt. Splattering into the urine-drenched diapers, further adding to the slimy mess she was carrying. Causing the used-diaper, to sag from the heavy sogginess. Attempting to possibly soak in the heavy fluids, but it was impossible at this point. Causing a small puddle of femmy juices to grow inside the diaper. Resting at the bottom of the diaper, having the slimy warmth soak into the nearby fur. Sending a shiver down an already ecstasy-filled Pegasus' body. Not adding much to Orchid's wonderful high, having already been lost to the sweet bliss. Originally staying in a tense state for the orgasm, her body slowly started to relax. Entering a more-relaxed position, while her talon slowly retreating from the vaginal passageway. Drenched in the heavy fluids, as it slowly made its way back into the diaper. Landing slightly in the growing pool of femmy juices, before managing to slip out of the fabric. Resting peacefully upon the wooden floorboards. Able to relax in her blissful high, while the orgasm worked its way out of her body. Taking a bit longer, seeing how much she was pushing out of her body. Yet, she loved every moment of it. Savoring each second, letting her mind wander into the blissful heavens. Finally coming to realize, just how pleasurable it was to take on this lewd lifestyle~

By the time it would come to an end, Orchid would be panting for breath. Her body worn from the sheer pleasure that came through her body, and feeling full from her copious amount of meals. At this point, she was ready to go home. "S-So full...~" Her voice came out in a mixture of a mumble, and a groan. Feeling ready to crash on her couch, though she had to get there first! With the first challenge, having to gather up the energy to stand! Being easier said than done, having been lacking a heavy amount of her energy.

Having to gain it back, by resting for a few moments. Letting her heavy breathing, slowly turn into light pants. Fueled with what bit of energy she needed to get up, with her legs stumbling to stand-upright. Shaky at first, feeling too weak at first to stand up normally. Still, the gryphon would gather herself! Slowly but surely getting to stand properly, with her attention thankfully looking away from the onlooking-crowd. “G-Good! I think that’s it for me, I think I’ll be heading h-home now...!” Keeping to a somewhat-civil tone, while her body slowly started taking the first few steps away. Managing to take a step or two, before quickly feeling the diaper upon her ass. Currently sagging behind a little bit, adding a bit of additional weight upon her body. It was also leaking a small bit of femmy juices. Not having been able to soak in the entire load, managing to have a few droplets manage to work its way out of the diaper. Creating a small splattering sound, upon impact the wood. Further reminding the gryphon of the used fabric.

Swiftly turning her head towards the twins, she’d ask of the two. “I-Is there any place I can get this thing off of me, or get a n-new one...? I don’t want to be sagging this thing around all the way home...” She didn’t really want to wear another diaper, though she couldn’t deny just how nice it had felt upon her ass. Before she used it of course, and made it as messy as it currently was. Not to mention it would probably be able to hold in the load of gryphon manure still lingering in her bowels. The pressure having been noticeable, but it hadn’t been strong enough for the gryphon to relieve herself. “Why don’t you try going to the nearby diaper store?” Naarkessex was the first to suggest, pointing a hoof directly towards the park opening just a few dozen or so feet away from the stage. “It’s a bit in the city, but it’s very close to the park. It should take only a few minutes for you to walk there.” Giving instructions on where to go, she seemingly ignored the other suggestion. Finding getting a new diaper to be a better solution, it would soon be followed by Naarkerotics. Having more to add to the talk, he’d praise about the store. “You’d definitely want to visit the diaper store. They’ll help you find just the right diaper, that’ll sit well on your ass. There’s a variety of them, and the customer service is great for help! Not to mention recommending a few possible diapers for you to try out~” Making the trip sound like it would be heavily-worth going, which it most certainly was! With the diapers the twins commonly used, being mainly from that shop. And with fine quality that those diapers came in, it was hard to resist such a tempting offer...~

The twins wouldn't even have to worry about Orchid rejecting the idea, as she was all for it! Eagerly nodding her head in approval, with a bit of a smile appearing upon the gryphon's beak! "Huh... T-That doesn't sound too bad!" Her voice being optimistic at first, before her attention was turned back over to her diaper. "B-But how about my current one...? Can one of you t-take it off of me, so I don't have to sag it around on my errand...?" She didn't want to be wearing this diaper, any longer than she currently had to. With her mind mostly back to reality, she did feel a tiny bit of embarrassment currently wearing it. Wanting to at least put a new one on, instead of carrying this soggy mess all over the place. Unlucky for her, neither twin was willing to offer any help. Both shaking their heads in disapproval, with Naarkessex mentioning. "Not going to happen. Neither one of us have a diaper pail nearby, to clean you up. You're best off wearing it around, till you find a trash can" Her suggestion, was far from helpful to the gryphon. Seeing how she had to continue on with the diaper she currently had. Making for a not so pleasant experience, though it wasn't too hopeless. With Naarkerotics coming to add some helpful advice for Orchid. "It's only going to be a short walk to your destination. The worst you'll experience, is the first minute or so of walking around. Though once you get past that, it'll feel like you're barely carrying any weight around back there!"

Encouraging her to continue on as she was, Orchid was uncertain at first. Wanting this diaper off as soon as possible, she'd inevitably bite her tongue. Going along with the Pegasus' plan, and turning back to the rear-stage. "A-Alright, fine. I guess I'll wear it for now... Though do e-expect me back here later! So I can get my stuff back..." Mainly referring to her dildo, she'd turn her attention towards Hi Rez. Letting out a calling chirp, with the budgie quick to answer in their own cheerful chirp. Flying over to the gryphon, and resting onto her back. Ready to head out, the two would be slowly trotting off the stage. Trying to avoid the crowd, and being able to somewhat successfully avoid it! Though this was only due to a new sound filling the gryphon's mind. Being that, of the loud and noisy squelches coming from the diaper. Making a sickening sound with each step she took; it was strange to hear! Being her primary focus, she'd almost miss out on the twins calling out to her as she left. "We wish you good luck at the shop! I'm sure you'll find something you'll really enjoy!" Naarkerotics voice coming out first, being hopeful of the gryphon finding the right diaper. While Naarkerotics would be soon shouting out a quick suggestion. "Try out the tight diapers! You'll find them to be the most comfortable to wear~" Besides that, the two would have said their farewells for now. With the twins staying at the stage, watching the crowd slowly start to dissipate. And a gryphon, now heading off to see what diaper would be the best for her~

Managing to walk a minute or so towards the exit, Orchid would have been able to see the front gate! Leading directly to the city close by, where she can only assume the diaper store was somewhere nearby. Bringing some hope to the bowel-filled gryphon, thinking this was going to be an easy trip! “W-Well, this isn’t too bad... Perhaps I overreacted a bit...” She thought to herself, having slowly gotten accustomed to her messy diaper. While it was far from the most pleasant of experiences, it would eventually go away after a bit of walking. Transforming what was supposed to be a humiliating walk, to be an oddly cozy one. At least until she heard a familiar voice from behind. Sounding to be masculine in tone, and a bit worn out. “Hey w-wait...! You forgot to take your other diaper with you!” Turning to face the masculine voice, Orchid was surprised to see Naarkerotics rushing towards her! A messy diaper in his maw, containing the contents of her previous meal. Though she was surprised they were bringing it to her, seeing she had no intentions on using it anymore. “H-Huh... What are you doing Naarkerotics? Why do you have that diaper? I thought I was already done with it...” She should have been done with it, especially seeing how the twins kept telling her how she was just about finished! Surely this could be minor to deal with. And it certainly was!... Just not the way she might have anticipated it. “Oh you are done! You just forgot to clean up after yourself is all. You see, while you might be wearing that diaper now, you still have this diaper to carry. Good news is, that other diaper is a great place, to store your previous one!”

Speaking of such a lewd activity, Orchid was downright shocked by the suggestion. “W-Wait! Can’t you just toss it into the trash!?! W-Why does it have to go inside of my diaper! This one is already used!” Trying to possibly back away from the quickly approaching Pegasus, she walked a bit faster. Only to foolishly trip over herself. Miscalculating one step, that would send her beak-first into the nearby grass! Evoking a surprised squawk, as she faceplanted into the soft grass. Acting as a soft landing, while her ass was in the air. Fully on display for Naarkerotics to walk up to. “Oh it’s not that big of a deal! Though unfortunately, all the trash cans, and diaper pails are already filled. So you’ll have to carry this on you, till you get home!” He declared, walking up to the gryphon’s ass. Stretching it open with one of his hoofs. Just enough for him to hover the previously-used diaper over it. “You’re already making good progress with your current diaper. Consider this to be a small motivational boost, to hurry things along!” Putting a brighter spin on this embarrassing behavior, Orchid wasn’t buying it. Shaking her head in disgust, she tried her best to protest against the Pegasus! Only to hear the audible crinkling of the diapers, before a large mass was pushed against her rear end. Lumpy and radiating a heavy-amount of heat, telling of the crinkled diaper’s appearance, inside her own. “And there we go! Tucked away inside of your diaper. Now when you’re done, you can put this stuff into your new diaper! Or find an empty diaper pail, if you’re fortunate enough to find one~” The Pegasus playfully remarked, as if making fun of the fact she was wearing two diapers in one.

For Orchid however, she was far from pleased. Audibly groaning from the slimy mass being moved against her rear. She struggled to get up from her spot. “Y-You could have at least warned me about this... I wasn’t e-xpecting another diaper in there...” She grumbled to herself, having been relieved there wasn’t as much of a crowd around her. Just a few onlooking ponies, looking horrified upon the second diaper’s stuffing. Bringing a slight bit of embarrassment for the gryphon, though it was far from major compared to the previous crowd. Yet, it was enough to slightly unnerve the gryphon. Looking off to the side, as she muttered out. “I-Is there anything else you need from me? Or am I able to continue walking? I’d like to reach it before it gets dark out.” Pointing a hoof to the now pinkened skies. Their eventful afternoon, having turned into evening at this point. And as much as she wanted to go home right away, the diaper was the first to go. “Oh, no. You’re perfectly fine Orchid!” Naarkerotics was happy to say! A smile on his face, as he turned to face towards the stage once again. “Once you’re all pampered up, feel free to come back to the stage for your dildo. Since I’m sure you’ll be wanting it back.” Giving a friendly reminder to where she last held her toy, before starting to walk back to the main stage. “T-Thanks for the reminder...! I think!” Already knowing she was going to be coming back for it, Orchid tried not to think too hard about it. Getting back onto all fours, she began to slowly walk her way forward. Having to slowly grow accustomed to the old diaper being pushed up against her ass. Hoping to find a clean pair, for her to put on instead...

Continuing on with her walk, she would come to find walking around to be relatively-easy. The only issue, was coming from the dirty diaper. Having to feel the messy fabric bounce and move against her ass, with each step she took. The sensation felt alien, but slightly pleasurable to the gryphon. Enough to have caused a small blush to appear upon her tired cheeks. Yet, it didn’t stop her desire for grabbing a new diaper. Getting rid of the one currently sagging upon her behind, and into something that better fit her! Having no other obstacle in the way, besides the disgusted onlooking faces. Some even gagging upon the sight, showing off their clear disgust for the gryphon’s actions. To Orchid however, it almost felt like compared to the heavy torment from before. Being able to shrug it off, and continue walking until she reached the park entrance. At last, she was free from the park! Now all that's left, is to find the diaper store. "Shouldn't be too far now..." She muttered to herself, listening closely to the Pegasus' instructions. Knowing it was at least close by, she was expecting to find something diapered theme for a title. And to her surprise, she would inevitably find something closely resembling her idea. With it being a relatively-big store taking up a chunk of the street. Having the big letters '(INSERT NAME HERE)'s diaper store' in white text. Accompanied by what looked to be a puffy diaper resting beside it. Being just a small walk down the street, the lights were clearly on. All that's left, is to get a new diaper~

"Perfect! Only a bit longer Hi Rez, then we can finally go home!" Cheerfully looking forward to the final stretch, she was already walking straight down the pathway. Dead-set on finally arriving at the store, while the budgie remained on her back. Letting out a few cheerful chirps, delighted to hear that home was near! Singing a cheerful song, while the two were swiftly walking down the street. Taking only a minute or so, before they'd arrive just in front of the store! Getting a quick glimpse inside, as two ponies walked out of the front-doors. Both butts being pampered with extra-thick diapers. Looking like they could absorb any mess the two could possibly get into! 'That looks decent, but a bit too big for my tastes...' Thinking to herself, having been curiously eyeing the two departing equine. Seeing the diaper crinkle and move with each step, though offering perhaps plenty of comfort to its users. All she had left to do, was now open the doors. Then it was trying to figure out, what kind of diaper would fit her! Putting a talon to the handle, she turned her attention over to Hi Rez for a second. The two engaging eye contact with one another, as she stared at her dear companion. "We've certainly done a variety of weird things together; diaper shopping is perhaps one of the weirder ones so far. Though who knows, perhaps it'll be fun...?" Trying to sound optimistic about this whole event, only to be sounding slightly doubtful. As if unaware on if this was going to be enjoyable. Still, Hi Rez was going to be there for Orchid. Being a loyal and loving Budgie, even to the weirdest of places. And with this new endeavor, he was happily chirping away! More than excited to see what this new experience would be like! "Hehe, cheerful about everything... I'm glad I brought you along for the fun, Hi Rez." She'd lean into the budgie's figure. Having the two beaks lightly touch each other in a loving nuzzle, seeming like everything was going to be alright for the two of them. Bringing a smile to Orchid's face, as she opens the door. Ready to take on what the store might have to offer!

Walking into the store, she'd come to find it was decently small in size. Nothing compared to the malls she usually goes to, but they used every bit of space they had! With what she could see, was six aisles, all filled to the brim with different brands for each one of them. She even saw little signs above each other, with some being labeled as 'messy diapers', before giving a few keywords such as 'quick absorbent', 'grows with mess', and 'turns user into mess'. Confusing Orchid, not having expected diapers to come in such complexity. "H-Huh... I guess they sell more than just one type of diaper..." Taking the first few steps deeper into the shop, she'd be able to see a few more of the aisle names. Coming to find an interesting names such as 'Firm and snug', 'Unusual diapers', and 'absorbent and cozy'. Followed by their own little keywords, though she didn't bother to read any of them. Processing what she read so far, and having been a bit uncertain of what to wear. She thought this was going to be easy, just a quick diaper and be back home. Though it looked like this little trip was going to be longer than she expected. "Hmm, well what do you think we should try out first, Hi Rez?" She turned her head to the side. Catching a glimpse of her budgie, looking back at her. Letting out a cheerful chirp, ready to assist the gryphon. "Is there any that we should try out first? They all look... interesting..." Being the best way to explain it, for better or for worse. Asking her pet to see which aisle they'll travel down first...

With a bit of looking, Hi Rez brought a wing down one of the aisles marked 'Unusual Diapers'. Showing off what looked to be a black diaper at the front of the aisle, already living up to its name of being unusual. "I see... Well that doesn't sound too bad. Let's just see how crazy some of these diapers can be!" Orchid's voice, was turning to a more cheerful manner. Mostly due to the fact she was mostly alone inside of the store. And while there were a few ponies lingering around the store, they were off doing their own thing. Wearing diapers like the gryphon, helping her relax within this strange environment. Regardless, she was walking down the aisle. Taking a few feet down the lengthy passageway, and looking around the surrounding stock. Coming to find things were indeed, rather unusual. It honestly made the black diapers seem tame in comparison, once she set her eyes upon some kind of diaper outfit. Instead of just sitting on one's ass, it came all the way up to their neck. With leg sleeves for one to put their hoofs in, acting as some strange suit. On each one of them, was a red sticker that read. 'For very long use, or heavy filthiness.' Promising of a very-long use, the sight alone was enough to be a turn-away. Not wanting to be completely encased by a diaper like this. Leading to her venturing a bit further down the aisle, where she'd come to find two even stranger diapers. One labeled 'Digestive diapers', that digests the user of the diaper, into a pile of crap. While the other one was called 'Ouroboros'. A diaper that apparently pushed the shit inside of the diaper, back into the user's ass. Given the simple tag of 'For lewd scat play'. Neither diapers she could ever possibly imagine using for herself, leading to this aisle to be useless to the gryphon.

"T-This isn't the best aisle for me... Perhaps we should try the 'absorbent diaper' aisle. Maybe that'll be best!" Suggesting a different aisle, Hi Rez happily chirped at the gryphon's idea! More than happy to check another aisle, it would lead to the two traveling over to the aisle next over. Getting to see a different selection of diapers, this one, being far different than the unusual ones. Keeping to a more traditional form, though there were still a variety of differences amongst them. Whether it be their sizes, plushness, or overall fabric, it seemed there was plenty for the gryphon to look at! "Well this is certainly far better than the previous aisle. Perhaps this will work best for me." Being more optimistic about this aisle, she'd pick up a small and pudgy diaper. Feeling the soft fabric crinkling against her talons, while she read at the sticker on the bottom. 'Expands when used, 5x'. Telling this diaper's size was simply a fraction of its full potential, she didn't look too pleased on the heavy growth. Seeing it as a way of gathering a crowd nearby, she'd put the diaper off to the side. Coming to pick another diaper that was close by. Looking around similar in size, though having been only expanding to twice their size. Not bad, but Orchid wanted something that was possibly a bit smaller than that. However, she'd be unable to find any being close by. With the sizes only further expanding in size, threatening to cross into the messy section, with how massive some of the sizes went! None of them being anything the gryphon would want.

"Perhaps asking for some help, might make it easier to pick." Orchid was quick to suggest, trying to possibly use an alternative solution to her problems. Finding it to be better asking someone who knows this stuff, compared to her lack of knowledge about diapers. Taking a glance of her surroundings, she'd come to find a brown earthly pony, standing by a cashier. A diaper on his ass, looking to have already used it earlier on his shaft. Though what mattered most to the gryphon, was the fact he worked here. "Perfect! This will hopefully make it easier to pick out a diaper!" Speaking in a mostly mumbled tone, trying to scavenge what courage she did have inside of herself. Braving herself for the interaction, she strolled her way towards the cashier. Coming to a stop in front of the register, and giving a friendly wave towards the pony. "H-Hello there! Do you mind if I a-ask for some help? I'm trying to figure out what diaper would work b-best for me." Her words coming all out at once, feeling slightly embarrassed by her request. It was a first time for her, and she was bound to be easily embarrassed about buying a diaper. Luckily for her, this was a normal occurrence at the diaper store. Evoking a light-hearted, and cheerful chuckle out of the pony. “Heh, well don’t worry. We’re going to find you a diaper that will best fit that lovely butt of yours!” His voice being cheerful, and charismatic. Looking to have enjoyed his line of work! Having pulled away from the registry, he walked around Orchid’s rear end. Taking note of the current diaper presiding upon her ass. “Are you looking to get anything in particular? Like the one you are wearing right now? Or would you prefer trying out a few diapers? It’ll be free of charge~”

Given a few options, Orchid was uncertain at first! On one hand, she could ask for a simple diaper, and head home right away. On the other, she could try out a few diapers. Possibly find out which ones she likes, and know what she’ll wear later on. And with it sounding like a free sample of sorts, how could she resist such a tempting offer? “I-I think I would like to try some diapers out... I’m kind of n-new to this whole diaper stuff...” Her cheeks a soft pink, flustered at the thought! Thankfully the employee was more than happy to take the lead. Chuckling a bit to himself, wandering to the back of the cashier. Pulling out three diapers of varying degrees. One that looked to be a tight fit to its user. A puffy diaper, and then one of the digestive diapers. “How about we try these three? If you like any of them, you can take it home with you! And since you’re new to this kind of stuff, I have pulled out three distinctive diapers for you to try on. I’m sure you’re going to enjoy them!” The pony praised on! Determined to win over Orchid’s interest, with the gryphon having been looking over towards the current three. Already having read what one of them was, but having shown interest in the smaller diaper. “I think I’ll try this one first.” Pointing a talon directly to the tight pamper, and evoking a delightful appraisal from the pony. “Ah, nice choice! This ones been popular for folks on the go. If you travel a lot, these diapers tend to work great.” Grabbing the diaper, he’d walk over to Orchid’s rear. Prepping to undo the current diaper hanging from her ass. “It also expands out after use. In case you’re wondering if the diaper will stay this size.”

Undoing the dirty diaper, it would come crashing down with a wet squelch. Already widening out in size, revealing at the contents inside. “Oh my, looks like someone was having some fun earlier~ At least if that diaper has anything to say about it!” The employee gawked at the sight! As if the mess was something to be admire, it would certainly catch Orchid off guard. Her cheeks burning a crimson-red, as she glanced back over to the diaper. Witnessing the leftover femmy juices, and the piss stains covering the used-fabric, she honestly didn't see the beauty in it. Just one giant mess, with the other diaper being a small souvenir of what happened prior. "I-It's not that big of a deal. Just some Vorgy I attended with a few friends. They just w-wanted me to wear this diaper, until I got a new one..." Slightly implying the twins were the reason she was even going into diapers, it evoked a cheerful chuckle from the pony. Delighted to hear of the news. "Ah, the twins, right? They tend to be a common customer here. I shouldn't be surprised about this new mess, especially if the twins were involved!" Of course, the twins knew the employees. Orchid should have saw it coming, seeing how much the two liked to wear this padded fabric. Sweet Celestia, they probably do lewd things with one another, off of work! Though she tried not to get too focused on it, especially with her ass being without a diaper. Feeling like a part of her was missing from the diaper falling off. Yearning for something similar to fill the void. "Guessing those two are commonly customers of yours? Because they recommended this place for me to try out."

"Awe, how nice of them! Sounds like I'll have to give them a gift, after giving me another lovely customer!" The employee happily sang along, before grabbing at the new diaper. Having slowly worked Orchid's hind-legs through the diaper, he'd continue talking. "If it's not too much to ask, would you mind bringing that other diaper I have for you to try? It's something the twins are absolutely going to love. Just make sure you get them as shitty as can be, before giving them their 'gift.'~" He sang out, pulling the diaper up to the gryphon's ass. Making sure it was firmly snug around her waist, before backing away to reveal the portable potty. "And there we go! How do you feel with this? These are going to remain tight, and expand upon relieving yourself. These are best to avoid making too much of a scene, and not having to worry about the crap sticking to you." He further reexplained the diaper's abilities. Telling Orchid, stuff she had already heard from before. Though her main attention was on walking around with the pampered fabric. Getting a feel for the nice cushioning against her rear. The sensation being almost described as heavenly, after having to wear a messy one directly from the park. "I really do like this one! It feels nice and snug, b-but you said it expanded, right?" She turned to face the pony. Having been nodding his head in approval, before adding on. "Yes, that's correct. You look like one of the shy types, so I think this diaper would work best for you. Best part, with how small they are to carry, you can have multiple on you! For when you're ready to relieve yourself of your previous mess~"

From the first pic, she was already tempted to buy the current diaper she was trying out. It felt nice, and had already made a great impression on the gryphon. All that's left, would be to 'use' the diaper. However, after everything she had done today, she didn't want to relieve herself in public. Leading to her soon coming to ask. "D-Do you have a demonstration of how big they grow? Like any previous d-diapers, or anyone that's currently wearing one...?" It was a bit weird to ask, seeing she would have to experience it for herself! Unable to really take one's word for it, without trying the diaper out to its fullest ability. "Oh well of course! I can easily demonstrate that to you, right now!" The employee happily stated, rushing his way to the back of the cashier. Where he'd begin taking off his own diaper, and tossing it to the side. Grabbing at another similar-looking diaper, and working to put it upon his ass. "I've actually been hoping someone would ask, I can my dinner already trying to come out!" He further explained, as he put the diaper upon his butt. Managing to do it by himself, with relative ease. Surprising Orchid a bit, though not from the fact they were wearing the same diaper. But from the fact he was going to do a live demonstration using it. "A-Are you serious? You're going to shit directly into that diaper, in the middle of the s-store...?" The idea sounded crazy, but that was already due to how overstimulated she had been all afternoon. She didn't think it was acceptable to do! But behold this brown pony. Smirking deviously to himself, playfully responding to the gryphon's concern tone. "Why should I, when I have a diaper covering my ass~?"

Before Orchid could respond, a loud PBHHRFRT filled the room! Telling of what smelled like burnt flesh, before it was accompanied by the loud crinkling of the diaper. Right before the gryphon's eyes, the employee was relieving himself. Having it come as a small yellow spot on the diaper, before it was quickly overcome by a heavy brown mass. As log after log was filling the diaper. Expanding it out in size, to accommodate for the outgoing load. "The o-one thing I'll tell you about wearing diapers, is how wonderful it is to relieve yourself! Not having to worry about holding it in, and letting it all come out into your diaper. I'm shocked more folks aren't wearing diapers!" Seemingly in a blissful state, continuing to relieve himself. Giving Orchid a clear view of the diaper. Witnessing it grow in size, though it was far from horrible in size. Looking to have been growing to about double its original height. Offering some room for the crap to come out, but not becoming too much baggage for the gryphon to handle. "It certainly looks like you're enjoying yourself. And I'm g-guessing that it's cozy while you're relieving yourself?" Prodding the pony for answers, she was answered between a pleased groan, and a nod of the head. Already being clear answers to how much he was enjoying himself. "Oh it is incredibly cozy! Though I'm sure you would be more focused upon the pleasure, than you are about your diaper.” He explained throughout his blissful relief. Emptying out his bowels, while his bladder was being emptied into the diaper. Not going to completely empty himself out, but pushing the diaper to its limits. Wanting to truly show off just how much this diaper can handle...~

By the time he was done, the diaper was well cramped with pony manure. Showing off the potential of the diaper, with him walking around peacefully in front of the gryphon. “And this is what the diaper would look like, at its max point. It’s enough to handle let’s say, a pony in there, before you start having issues.” He explained, with his ‘proof’ being completely in the fabrics. All for which Orchid was visibly watching. Certainly impressed with this type of diaper. “I see... Well I think I’ll take ten of these then. Besides the one that I’m currently wearing.” Feeling comfortable enough in this fabric, she didn’t need to try out the others. Saving that whole experience, for another time. “Ah, a delightful choice.” The employee praised of her choice! Having gone to the register, and started ringing her up for the diapers. Having a total of ten instances of the same diaper, with the total being on display down below. “That’ll be forty dollars. I do hope to be seeing you around some time~” He continued on with his cheerful manner. Turning a slight bit teasing near the end, though she didn’t think too much of it. Being happy from the fact she had something to wear, she’d simply give a nod of approval to the playful pony. “Of course, and I suppose we j-just might!” Pulling a wallet out from within her feathers, she’d pull out the right amount. Giving it to the employee, before swiftly putting the wallet away. Just about to head on out, she was stopped short by the pony’s words. “Don’t forget to also grab the digestive diaper for the twins. It’d be greatly appreciated if you can follow along with what I had mentioned earlier.”

Swiftly reminding Orchid that she wasn’t getting a diaper just for herself, she turned her attention to the counter. Looking back over at the digestive diaper, knowing it was meant for the twins. At first appearances, it honestly didn’t look too different from the rest. With the only main difference, being its sheer size. Looking to be four times larger than her current diaper, but that was all the noticeable differences she’d take notice upon. “I see... And how would I use it...? You mentioned pushing the two inside. Is that all I have to do?” She wasn’t too certain, though that was due to not being used to this kind of stuff. Thankfully, the employee was more than happy to nod his head in approval, and point a hoof over towards the other diapers currently resting on the floor. “Yes, that’s basically what you’ll want to do. Though I recommend putting those diapers onto their head, before stuffing them inside. It'll make it a far more exciting experience, not knowing what's happening around you. Other than being turned into a giant load inside a much larger diaper~" Explaining what she had to do in the simplest of details, evoking a small nod from Orchid. Completely understanding it at this point, with her walking over to her previously-used one. Stretched out from having worn it, giving a glimpse into the other diaper tucked away inside. "I see... Well that s-shouldn't be too hard. I'm sure I can figure something out." Picking up the used diaper, she carefully brought it into the digestive diaper. Resting peacefully against one of the padded walls, ready to be taken back home. "You have fun out there! Make sure to tell the twins I said hi! At least, before they're completely churned away in there~" The employee would say his farewells to the gryphon, with her being more than happy to say her goodbyes. Feeling relieved she'll be heading home in just a few moments. Unintentionally, fucking her over, more than she could ever anticipate.

PBHRRFRT! The wet sound filled the air, with it quickly being accompanied by the noisy crinkling of her diaper. Feeling it starting to already be packed away with her bowel movement, she could only stare in utter shock! "O-Oh Celestia, why now!?!?" Her words coming out in a low whine, with her bowels continuing to empty themselves out. Battling against the sweet wave of relief coursing through her body, and failing to put an end to it. Her body wanted this. To void the contents of the bowels, after having the other areas be freshly vacated of its bodily waste. Not to mention being able to feel at the fractured bones lingering within her bowels. Feeling the rough edges, grinding against the intestinal lining. Sending shivers of delight throughout the gryphon's body, growing aroused from the sweet stimulation. "C-Can't I just get a break a-already...? I just want to rest..." She groaned on from her current state. Having her ass be in the air, while her head moped near the floor. Too ashamed to look at the pony, while her diaper was being filled. Though to the diaper's credit, it was living up to its promise. Expanding out in size to take on the current load, while still being comfortable to wear. It was just a shame she was spending most of her time being miserable. Not savoring the blissful pleasure like she had with her womb and bladder. Wanting nothing more than to have this sweet relief, come to an end.

"Huh, what's the matter? Afraid to shit yourself out in public?" The employee curiously asked, having been taking a step out of their register. Gently placing the other diapers onto the counter, while his eyes focused mainly on the gryphon. Not disgusted by the gryphon's actions, as he was mostly confused. "Aren't you glad you're relieving yourself...? After all, you came in here with a messy one. Aren't you glad you went in a fresh one?" Eyes turning to face the gryphon's ass, coming to find the diaper being turned to a raunchy-brown coloring. Reeking of steamy gryphon manure, and burnt fur from within. Telling of the fate of the two lucky Pegasus, if the bone imprints weren't already a dead-giveaway. "It honestly looks like you've been holding it in for a while. Have you been trying to hold it in till you got home? Certainly sounds like it would be painful to hold it in for so long." Trying to possibly work something out of the gryphon, he was answered by a slow nod coming from Orchid's head. Followed by another noisy SQBHRRRFRT from her bowels. Pushing out another few chunks of ex-Pegasus from her ass. "Y-Yes... I didn't want to embarrass myself, any f-further than I already have..." She grumbled out in defeat, letting the load continue to work its way out of her ass.

That is, until it would come to an abrupt stop. Her intestines, clamping down upon what felt like four large masses, lingering within her intestines. "F-Fuck... I think I can feel their skulls back there. This is going to hurt a bit..." Having to now focus for a moment, Orchid clenched onto her bowels. Firmly squeezing against the lingering masses inside her ass, before abruptly pushing! Forcing them towards the exit, with the sphincter slowly stretching over the first skull. Sending a shiver of pain throughout the gryphon's body, being forced to stretch to accommodate for the foreign object. Until it was pushed out with an audible slurrupp! The skull, falling into the nearby logs of crap. Submerging itself in the massive mess, Having at least one out of the four skulls out, it would bring some relief to the gryphon! Only for it to be quickly back into a tense state, once the second skull pushed itself along. Having to repeat the process, and push down upon the skull. Enduring another painful surge of pain, though it was far weakened in comparison. Her body growing slowly accustomed to the larger objects, with her not having to push as hard. Still, the pressure would be taxing upon Orchid's body. Evoking a few tired pants, as she worked the second skull into the pile. Further adding weight upon the diaper, but only needing two more skulls to push out! "A-Almost done, just t-two more..." Her voice cutting out into exhausted-panting. Determined to get the last two out of her ass, and finally be empty from any bodily waste!

Taking a bit of time, Orchid would manage to push the last two skulls into her stuffed-diaper. Having them plop into the used-fabric, resting against the messy load lingering underneath. The load, causing the diaper to sag in its filled state. Barely avoiding having any of the crap touch her rear end. In return however, she'd feel the giant mass lingering against her hind-legs. Acting as a reminder of her current load. "I-I think that's all of them... Sweet Celestia... I don't think I can handle any more..." She groaned in such an exhausted-state. Ready to go home and crash, after she got her dildo back. With nothing else lingering inside of her body, she would at least not have to worry about accidentally relieving anything. As most of it was trapped inside of the diaper she was currently wearing. "No kidding... Looks like you could definitely use some rest-eye. Looks like you've had one absolutely pleasurable day, that has clearly taken its toll on you." The earth pony commented, though was having a far calmer tone. Tending to the gryphon's needs, by grabbing a hold of the giant diaper. Bringing it over to the additional ones Orchid had bought, and putting them inside. Resting away from the messy diaper, to avoid any messes. Afterwards, he put a small tie upon the top. Making it easier for the gryphon to take back home. "Well here you go miss! I do hope to see you again, and hope you do enjoy your new diapers. Do tell the twins that I said hi!" Giving the gryphon everything she needed, she'd grab a hold of the diaper with her beak. Keeping a firm grasp upon it, as she stood up properly. Eyes already on the exit, as she slowly trotted herself out. Giving one last wave to the earth pony, and now be heading out to meet with the twins again. This time, with a fresh, but already used, diaper on her butt...~

Walking back into the park, it felt far different than when she originally went in. Unlike in the daytime, there weren't many ponies out. With most of them having gone back home, or gone off to do their own things. There was still the occasional Pegasus, and alicorn that were passing by. However, they were departing from the park. While Orchid was heading inside, heading straight for the stage. Having a surprisingly pleasant trip, heading down the familiar trail. Only catching a few quick glances, but they were soon dismissed by the departing eyes. Added to the fact she had slowly gotten accustomed to wearing a messy diaper. With the prior trip, having gotten her used to a messy load. And while a load of gryphon manure, was far heavier than a giant pool of cum and urine, it didn't take long for her to get used to it. Easily passing away a few minutes, until she'd finally arrive back at the stage. Where she'd come to find the twins talking to themselves. Resting in the center of the stage, with her horse dildo resting close by. "Oh hey, you're back! I was wondering when you'd be coming back from the store!" Appearing that they saw her first, Naarkerotics called out to the gryphon. Picking up her dildo, and waving it in the air. Making sure she was able to see them. "I can stuff this dildo into your ass, if you need any help with it! It can be a bit challenging for new folks that aren't used to wearing a diaper."

Kindly offering to help her out, Orchid was a bit flustered by the offer! Her cheeks returning to a soft-pink, though the darkness of the night helped to hide it from the twins. “T-That would be greatly appreciated... I don’t think I can do it with my current load.” Orchid’s voice was slightly muffled, due to the diaper she was carrying. Walking up onto the stage, she’d rest it off to the side. Being able to now turn around, and present her padded-ass to the two. “Ready whenever you are! Just t-try to be gentle, my ass is worn out from having shit you two out...” With her dirtied diaper being all the evidence they needed, to know what happened at the diaper shop. Evoking a playful giggle out of the two of them, with Naarkessex pushing a hoof against the diaper. Sinking into the brown-mess, and feeling the slimy warmth enveloping her hoof. Getting to feel the occasional bone or two, protruding from the mess. “Hehe, definitely can feel a bit of Pegasus in there. I bet that was a pleasure to push out of your ass~” She teased the freshly-relieved avian. Getting a small huff out of the gryphon, and a small chuckle coming out of Naarkerotics’ lips. “Probably not as pleasurable as taking two Pegasus up the ass, but I bet the pleasure is still quite lovely~” He commented, bringing the dildo towards the diaper. Spreading it open with one hoof, while the other pushed the toy along. Grinding it against the plump cheeks, before aligning itself towards the pucker. Ready to be pushed in, at any given moment. “Alright, your toy is aligned. Hope you’re ready for it, because I’m pushing on it!”

Given a slight warning, Orchid was at least prepared for this! Clenching her ass in anticipation, the member was being quickly engulfed by the rear end. Slipping inside with an audible SQUELCH, with the rest of it following smoothly inside. Accompanied by the intestinal walls instinctively clenching upon the familiar cock. Sending a delightful shiver through Orchid’s body, feeling it slip into the intestinal passageway. Making a lovely bulge that she had grown to love. And with a few seconds of pushing, the rest of the equine cock would slip into her ass! Its base, resting upon the pucker. Blocking anything from coming out, and leaving a gryphon to be stimulated with the delightful feeling. “Aaaah~ It still feels delightful having that dildo tucked away inside. Feels almost normal in a sense...~” Starting to walk around with the freshly-inserted cock, relishing in the delightful feeling. Now with it finally back inside, she can head home with Hi Rez. Possibly crash upon the couch, and sleep the rest of the night away. And it would have possibly played out that way, if it wasn’t for Naarkessex’s voice coming from just behind. “Oh my! I didn’t realize you would go that lewd Orchid. Getting a digesting diaper, how amusing~” Reminding the gryphon she had bought other diapers for herself! Of course, the digestive diaper wasn’t hers, but the ten that were put inside, were certainly hers! “W-Well not like that, I can explain this back at my place if you want. It’ll be e-easier to show it there.” Remembering what the employee had told her earlier, she was going to follow those instructions. But she wasn’t going to do it here. No, she wanted to do it at the comforts of her own home.

“Huh, a trip to your house? Well that doesn’t sound too bad.” Naarkerotics commented, seemingly interested in the visit! Along with figuring out what the big diaper was going to be used for. It sounded like a fun time, and he was in for the ride! “I would have to agree. If it has anything to do with that diaper, I can already tell it’s going to be a blast~” Signing up for whatever fun the two will end up, the twins were ready to go! Only needing Orchid to lead the way, she was quickly walking to the diaper. Grabbing a hold of the diaper, and pointing a talon off to her right. “It’ll be to the right of us. Follow me, and we’ll get there in a few minutes.” Speaking in a slightly inaudible tone, before already starting to make the trek towards the exit. She didn’t live too far from the park, so the walk wouldn’t be too bad. Not to mention, giving the twins their personal gift, will be amusing to the gryphon. Especially if the diaper really lives up to its expectations~ “Got it! We’ll be right behind you!” Naarkessex cheerfully spoke, as the two twins followed along. Slightly unaware of what the two had signed themselves up for, adding further to the messy fun~

Taking a few minutes to walk back home, the three would eventually be arriving at Orchid’s place. Walking through the front door, with Orchid happy to announce “Welcome to my home! Feel free to get cozy for a moment, while I set things up.” A smile resting upon her face, happy to finally be back at the comforts of her own home. Walking off towards the living room, while Hi Rez flew off onto their nearby perch. “You’ve got quite the lovely place. We might have to come over again, just so we can relax together.” Naarkerotics happily commented, having been following Orchid to the back. Eyes still mostly on the giant diaper, as it was set on the floor. Where the gryphon would pull out the two used diapers. Setting them close by, with the tops being opened. “Perhaps~ Though for now, this is a gift I’m giving to you two. A lovely pony told me just the right way, to thank you for the fun Vorgy~” She spoke in a cheerful manner. Having slowly come to enjoy the Vorgy back at the park, she knew it was only fair she returned the favor~ “Oh you do~? Well do tell us! What kind of lewd gift are you giving~?” Naarkessex asked, purely out of excitement. Already getting wild up on her gift, she was imagining what lewd activity the gryphon had in store. Eyes still focused upon the digestive diaper. Knowing no matter how it went, she was going straight into the diaper~

“Oh I’d much rather show you instead~” Orchid cheerfully grinned, before grabbing a hold of both diapers! Holding at the soggy bottoms, and stuffing the two’s faces with the nasty mess! Naarkessex getting a face-full of the cum and piss-soaked fabric. The smell of sex and musk, being at its highest. With the lukewarm fluids being soaked into her face. Making for quite the slimy reminder. While Naarkerotics was greeted to the shitty remains of his clones. Shit mushed against his facial features. Caking it into the disgusting waste, and forcing him to breathe in the stale air. Catching both Pegasus completely off guard, as they fell back! Groaning from the sudden raunchy attack, they were squirming around! Enjoying themselves, though their fun wasn’t going to end just yet. Having the two being so close to one another, she was grabbing a hold of their feet. Carefully pushing them, into each other’s diapers. Smearing them within the slimy contents lingering within, and making it hard to move inside of the diaper. Essentially trapping them two inside of their own raunchy prison. Pleasurably squirming around, as they bathed in the filth. Already loving this part of the punishment! Making the grand finale, to be incredibly easy. Picking up each twin, she pushed them directly into the much larger diaper. Cramming them inside by one side of the fabric, with the other resting in the opposite. Bulging out the diaper in size, though it showed no signs of easy tearing. Allowing Orchid to add the finishing touches to her work, by tying the diaper up. Setting it to start digesting at the two Pegasus trapped inside. “Do hope you enjoy your present! Now enjoy however it is this diaper works. It should be something you’ll enjoy~”

Within the large diaper, the twins were squirming around! Basking in the stinky moment, with it only going to be getting worse. Having the digestion diaper being fully booted up, it showed no mercy to the two Pegasus. Their bodies were being already softened by the diaper. Losing much of the physical state that kept them together. Having their figures already starting to be transformed into a mixture of horse apples, and musky urine. Helping to add onto the messy diaper, and having the two Pegasus be in a state of pure bliss! Their moans filled the air, as each brought a hoof over, to pleasure the other. “F-Fuck! I d-didn’t see this coming, but this is one delightful gift for sure~!” Naarkessex screamed in sheer pleasure, with her brother crying along in the ecstasy of the moment. His mind running off the wonderful high, and trying to get off before his inevitable demise into shit. Having wanted to end up in a diaper, they would get exactly what they wanted. Filling up the two smaller diapers with their decaying remains. Breathing in the noxious smell of manure, and hot gryphon shit lingering within the mess. Yet the two were happy as can be. Seeing this as a perfect way to end their night. Being nothing more than a pile of bodily remains inside a diaper. Waiting for the day Orchid disposes of the slimy remains~

“Looking good out there you two! Now you can enjoy being in a diaper together~” Orchid teased from outside now taking the role of the audience. Sitting cozily on the couch, with Hi Rez resting close by. This was going to be the end of their voracious fun. Getting to watch the two who tested her limits, churning away in a diaper. Giving a delightful show, while she grinded a skull against her nether regions. Ending this night off with a delightful end. While she may have been iffy about the Vorgy, she loved every second of it. Basking in an endless wave of sheer ecstasy, and feel the relief coming afterwards. And now with a few diapers to carry around on her ass, she’d have to say the day was an absolute blast. Willing to do it all over again~
